TWO REGIMENTS TO QUIT CAPITAL.

Governor, Convinced the Riot Danger Is Over, Orders First and Fourth Infantry Home.

CITY TO DRIVE OUT EVIL.

Citizens Pledge Aid in Wiping Out Political Misrule Which Made the Outbreak Possible.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 18.—[Special.]—Convinced the danger of a renewal of rioting is remote, Gov. Deneen tonight ordered home the First and Fourth regiments of Illinois militia. There still remain 2,000 troops to keep watch over the city.

The First regiment will leave Springfield at 9:30 tomorrow morning. It will arrive in Chicago over the Chicago and Alton at 4 o'clock. The members of the regiment made a demonstration in honor of Gov. Deneen at the statehouse tonight. The governor made a short speech, thanking them for their loyalty.

Private Joseph B. Klein of company A is the only member of the regiment who regrets the end of field service. As soon as his active service ends he will be liable to arrest and trial in the civil courts at Kankakee on a charge of murder, the result of the fatal stabbing of Earl Nelson. It is probable Attorney General Stead will defend Klein. An attempt may be made to arrest Klein in the morning or when the train passes through Kankakee on the way to Chicago.

No Violence in City.

There has been no violence of importance in Springfield today, the disturbances being limited to vandalism and several fist fights. In one of these a small crowd of white men and boys set upon a negro and beat him severely. He managed to break away and is said to have left the city.

The only affair in which the militiamen were called upon occurred in Harvard Park. Residents of that suburb reported that 150 negro refugees were hiding in the cornfields and making raids on gardens and chicken yards. A company of militia was sent out and brought in the blacks without any skirmish or firing.

Reports of disturbances are being received from the mining towns near Springfield. At Andrews a negro was forced to leave town. He appealed to Gov. Deneen, who asked the state's attorney to act on the matter.

At the Woodside and Tuxhorn mines some of the white workers walked out rather than dig beside the negro miners. They said the blacks were armed and feared some accident might cause a clash. Both blacks and whites belong to the miners' union and officials of that body met tonight to patch up the trouble.

Citizens Demand Full Justice.

Springfield is to purge itself of the sins which resulted in the recent race riots. Not only the acts of violence themselves but the political rottenness which made them possible will be investigated by the special grand jury summoned at the demand of Gov. Deneen, and there will be no mercy shown to the city and county officials responsible.

This determination of the officials has the full support of the better class of Springfield's citizens. A joint meeting of the chamber of commerce and Business Men's association, with 1,000 persons attending, today gave pledges of support to the rigid enforcement of law, just equally to white and black, and promised all possible aid to the grand jury by members of both bodies.

In the face of the fact their determination to rid Illinois' capital of the evils which have beset it may bring financial losses to them, merchants, manufacturers, property owners, and professional men joined in indorsing a resolution calling upon the grand jury to get at the root of the evil.

Text of Resolution.

The resolution, as adopted, was as follows:

"Whereas, A condition has arisen in this city, due to causes in themselves calling for the severest condemnation and the strictest punishment which has brought danger and shame to every citizen of Springfield; which threatens the material interests of every citizen, whether property owner or wage earner; which has cost the taxpayer many thousands of dollars; which threatens the security of every home and the lives of innocent citizens and the foundation of free government by the open defiance of law; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to the earnest support of all officials whose duty is law enforcement and to give all information and assistance to them in bringing to swift justice all persons guilty of crime, and we call upon all good citizens to coöperate in restoring order and punishing all offenders to the end that the prosperity of the city may continue and to show that Springfield is deserving of respect and confidence and that it is a community committed to the enforcement of law and order, and that we demand that the life, liberty, and prosperity of citizens be protected, without reference to nationality or color."

Color Talk Causes Trouble.

The resolution was adopted only after a fight upon it which was led by the man who had first drawn up the document. He was Dr. J. W. Scott, who declared the words "color or nationality" had been inserted after he had turned the resolution in. He declared they were useless and would be only a hindrance to the results sought. He gave in to the majority later.

Dr. Scott was on his feet as soon as the reading of the resolution was ended. He declared the words were inserted without his knowledge, and added:

"I will go as far as anybody for the protection of life and property and in the enforcement of the law, but I tell you it is a mistake to insert those words, 'color or nationality.' They will be firebrands in this situation. The people who are making this trouble will not read the meaning or understand the resolution. All they will see will be the words 'color or nationality,' and they will take it that we are 'nigger lovers.' It is not necessary for us to go on record on the color question."

Want No Backward Step.

W. A. Northcott then arose. "We cannot take a backward step," he said. "It would be fatal to change this resolution now that it has been read out here in this meeting. What will they say? We will be called cowards and trimmers. This is a proposition that every man can stand by. Every human

WHO OWNS "THE DEVIL"?

Fiske and Savage Present Play Simultaneously in New York.

FIGHT FOR AMERICAN RIGHTS

Garden Theater Troupe Organized in Thirty-six Hours.

New York, Aug. 18.—[Special.]—Broadway is in the hands of "The Devil." And "the devil" is to pay in circles of dramatic art. The cultured world of buskin is all split up over which faction of Thespianism shall possess the American rights to the devil, also as to whether the devil is a joke or a serious but scintillating cynic.

Oliver Herford's and Henry W. Savage's presentation, "The Devil" and "The Devil" possessed in common by David Belasco and Harrison Grey Fiske, hit town simultaneously tonight, and roused Broadway to a pitch of excitement so high that nobody went to bed until they turned out the lights in the restaurants.

Mr. Savage produced Ferenc Molnar's three act play, "The Devil," at Garden theater, the adaptation being by Oliver Herford. Mr. Fiske brought out at Belasco theater exactly the same play, but to a different adaptation by Alexander Konta and William Trowbridge Larned.

Both Mr. Fiske and Mr. Savage in statements made in the last twenty-four hours to the effect that each had the American rights to the play, with the further intimation by Mr. Savage that Mr. Fiske is "playing it low down" on him in producing "The Devil" at all had aroused so much interest generally that when it came time for the curtains to go up at the Garden and Belasco's tonight both theaters were packed.

Thousand People Turned Away.

The audiences were ruled by emotion rather than by unbiased dramatic criticism. In both theaters at the fall of every curtain the applause was continuous and demonstrative, in each case prompted largely by the enthusiastic sentiment in which critical analysis had a small part.

Owing to the artistic prestige of George Arliss, who long was the support of Mrs. Fiske, the dramatic critics flocked to Belasco's almost without exception.

Reporters with a knack for dramatic news went to the Garden theater to see what Mr. Savage had managed to accomplish in his spasm of energy in which he hailed the principals from six states and drove them through their parts and hurled them out to compete with Mr. Fiske's more thoroughly trained company—all in thirty-six hours.

The comparison of the merits of the two productions was left for another night. It was enough that Mr. Savage and Mr. Fiske were dangling devils in each others' faces all in the same evening and that the friends and sympathizers of each were uproariously applauding. The situation was entirely unique in the theatrical history of the town.

Fiske's Romantic Schemes to Win.

The story has been told already how Mr. Fiske sent George Arliss and the rest of the company up into Westchester county, where they lived under assumed names, wore strange disguises, rehearsed in town halls and barns, and when they were ready to flash it on New York did so with such dramatic effect that Mr. Savage, busy rehearsing the Boston company of "The Merry Widow," was for a few minutes, maybe, completely hornswoggled.

Then he took a long breath and got busy. He changed the name of the version of Molnar's play that he possessed from "The Cloven Hoof"—under which name it had been shown in Hartford, Conn.—back to "The Devil" to match Fiske, and cracked his managerial whip over the backs of his actors.

His star, Edwin Stevens, was at that time on Nantucket island. Mr. Savage got him by wireless. Mr. Stevens chartered a steamboat, which took him to Woods Hole, where he caught an express train to New York. He arrived at Mott Haven at 1:59 Monday morning, where an automobile was waiting for him.

Work All Night and Day.

Straight to the Garden theater, at something less than sixty miles an hour, the automobile took Actor Stevens, where an all night rehearsal had started already under the direction of Mr. Savage, Mr. Herford, and Robert Milton. Mr. Savage held them hard at work until daylight this morning, thirty-six hours' steady grind.

There was a short interval then for breakfast, a rest, and then, at 9 o'clock this morning, Mr. Stevens and the rest of the company went back to work and plugged away until 7 o'clock tonight.

After the adapters had finished tinkering with the Hungarian newspaper man's drama the result was essentially the same as to the general theme, but Mr. Herford laid more stress on the comedy side, constructing the devil as a humorous fellow who played pranks and made jokes and whose wickedness was sugar coated thickly, especially in the last act, so that the audience might be reconciled to the triumph of deviltry.

Different Ideas of Devil.

As in the original Mr. Herford's idea was that humor swathed a multitude of sins.

Mr. Konta and Mr. Larned, who adapted for Mr. Fiske, devised a polite, excessively cultivated devil who had a true sense of humor, but who, above everything else, was cynical and sharp as the edge of a razor.

Hunschi, who is 21 years old, was arrested yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct.

SOCIETY WOMEN EVADE CUSTOMS; FINED $70,000.

Officials of Treasury Catch Mrs Jack Gardner and Mrs. Emily Crane Chadbourne.

LATTER IS CHICAGO GIRL.

Principal Must Pay $80,000 More, and Department of Justice May Take Case.

The United States authorities in Chicago, Boston, and Washington for the last eight weeks have been investigating the most remarkable attempt to "beat" the customs laws ever brought to their attention. The audacity of the scheme and the standing of the participants breaks all records.

Mrs. Emily Rockwell Crane Chadbourne, who is now living on the north shore, daughter of Richard T. Crane, president of the Crane Manufacturing company, and Mrs. "Jack" Gardner of Boston are the unlucky persons involved. Mrs. Chadbourne brought into this country as her household goods, under a false declaration, nearly $100,000 worth of articles of virtu belonging to Mrs. Gardner, on which she placed a valuation of $8,000.

RESULTS UP TO DATE.

The result to date has been:

First—The goods have been seized by United States Collector Ames and are now confiscated by the government.

Second—An agent acting for Mrs. Chadbourne or Mrs. Gardner paid the government $70,000 in fines and penalties, and Mrs. Gardner will have to pay $80,000 additional if she wishes to secure possession of the property.

Third—The case in all probability will be placed in the hands of the prosecuting authorities, and it is not unlikely that both women will have to face indictments at the hands of the next federal grand jury that meets in Chicago.

Mrs. Chadbourne was married to Thomas L. Chadbourne in 1896 and was divorced in 1905. Mr. Chadbourne shortly afterwards wedding the divorced wife of Dr. Wassell, the dentist. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Chadbourne spent much time in European continued after the separation. It was while in the east and in Europe that Mrs. Chadbourne formed the friendship with Mrs. Gardner that has resulted so disastrously.

ALL KNOW MRS. GARDNER.

There are few persons in this country who read the newspapers who haven't heard at one time or another of Mrs. "Jack" Gardner, the eccentric Boston widow, and her famous Venetian palace, brought to this country, stone by stone, pilaster by pilaster, 3,000 miles from Italy. This palace, erected at great cost in Back Bay Fens, and known as Fenway court, is filled with rare paintings and statuary and other works of art that Mrs. Gardner collected in various parts of Europe, but chiefly in Italy. Perhaps more than half of Mrs. Gardner's fortune of $5,000,000 has gone into this beautiful building and its contents, which have been so often described.

For years Mrs. Gardner has tried to evade the payment of duties on the art treasures that she has brought to this country on the plea that her home was a public museum, works of art for exhibition purposes being admitted free.

BONDED TO OBEY LAW.

Some years ago she was permitted by the government to bring in a large quantity of things on this assumption, first, however, putting up a bond of $200,000 to pay duties if she should not comply with the law.

Although she claimed that her beautiful home was a museum, open to the public, the authorities soon found out that it was not the easiest thing in the world for the public to gain admission to her home. She put on a charge of $2 or $3 for admission tickets and then had open days only once or twice a month. In addition to this she was exclusive in her idea as to what constituted the "general public," and many a person who would like to have feasted his or her eyes upon the art treasures that she had collected, even though willing to pay the $2 or $3 charged for admission, was denied entrance to the Venetian palace.

SHAW GETS AFTER BOND.

When Leslie M. Shaw, who then was secretary of the treasury, heard of this he descended on the $200,000 which she had deposited and started proceedings to forfeit it. He asked Attorney General Knox whether Mrs. Gardner's display constituted a public exhibition, and Mr. Knox decided that it was not in the sense that the law contemplated.

Mr. Shaw then gave Mrs. Gardner the choice of throwing open her house to enable the public to view the art treasures without restrictions that were unreasonable or paying $200,000 duty, and she chose the latter alternative.

Since this row with the treasury department Mrs. Gardner has purchased liberally in the art markets of Europe. She has kept up a constant fight to secure free admission for her purchases, but has failed.

GOODS STORED IN PARIS.

Some time ago the government learned that she had stored in Paris nearly a quarter of a million dollars' worth of tapestries, marbles, oil paintings, armor, and other gems from various European collections. The tapestries in question were registered and are just as well known among art collectors and connoisseurs as paintings of Titian, Raphael, and Velasquez.

About two months ago one of the treasury secret agents in Paris learned that a large shipment of Mrs. Gardner's goods had been made from Paris to London. In the English capital the secret service agent lost track of the goods for a little while.

MRS. CHADBOURNE'S PANS.

Last month Mrs. Chadbourne came back to America. When she landed in New York she had several large cases which were labeled "Household Goods," and which were shipped in bond to Chicago. She signed a sworn declaration as follows:

> I, ——, do solemnly and truly declare that I am the owner of the merchandise described in the annexed entry or invoice; that the entry now delivered by me to the clerk of the board contains a just and true account of all the goods, wares, and merchandise imported by me.
>
> I further solemnly and truly declare that I have not in the said entry or invoice concealed or suppressed anything whereby the United States may be defrauded of any part of the duty due on said goods, wares, and merchandise, and if at any time hereafter I discover an error in the said invoice I will immediately make the same known to the collector of this district.

Attached to this declaration was a statement that the goods were household goods, had been in use for less than one year abroad, were her personal property, and as such under the law were entitled to admission without duty.

TIP COMES FROM ABROAD.

Before Mrs. Chadbourne's declaration was accepted a further hint came from abroad that it might be well to keep a close lookout for Mrs. Jack Gardner's stuff. Whether this was a tip that started the customs officials in action or not is not known, but when the packing cases were opened, instead of $8,000 worth of pots and pans, bedsteads, chairs, and other things, $80,000 worth of tapestries, marbles, oil paintings, armor, porcelains, and other things of like ilk were exposed to view.

Just exactly what explanation was made by Mrs. Chadbourne at the start of the investigation is not known, but the case was so big that Charles P. Montgomery, chief of the customs department of the United States treasury, was put on the case. He came to Chicago and interviewed Mrs. Chadbourne and her relatives. He went to Boston and interviewed Mrs. Gardner.

ADMISSIONS ARE FORCED.

At first there were denials and protestations, but when he confronted them with the fact that one of the tapestries concealed in a packing case and valued at $30,000 was a certain registered piece of work the ownership of which was well known to exist in Mrs. Gardner, she having purchased it on a certain day from a certain dealer in Europe, all explanations and all subterfuge fell to the ground. Anyway, it was hard to maintain that a $30,000 tapestry gem was a household article.

Then heroic efforts were made to settle the case without publicity and as cheaply as possible. The government authorities, however, were incensed at the attempted fraud, and when the appraisers fixed a value of $80,000 on the "$8,000 worth of household goods," they immediately assessed the legitimate duties (which amounted to $20,000) and then clapped on a 50 per cent penalty on the gross value of the goods.

PAY A $70,000 PENALTY.

This made a nice little sum of $70,000 which somebody had to put up as the first step out of the woods. It took some days to get this money, but finally a check for the amount was handed to the customs authorities.

The goods were thereupon declared forfeited to the government, and if Mrs. Gardner wishes to secure their return she must pay the government $80,000—their real value—for them, otherwise, they will be sold at auction.

When this step is taken the commercial honor of the government will be satisfied, but the department of justice in all probability, unless present plans are changed, will get into action.

WHAT THE LAW SAYS.

The law governing the case is so plain that Mrs. Gardner, at all events, who has had considerable experience with the customs officials, must be aware of all its provisions.

Section 2 of the customs administrative act says in part:

> All invoices of imported merchandise shall be made out in the currency of the country from whence the importations are made, and shall contain a correct description of such merchandise and signed by the person owning and shipping the same.

Section 3, or as much of it as seems applicable to this case, states:

> All such invoices shall at or before the shipment of the merchandise be produced to the consul or commercial agent of the United States in the consular district in which the merchandise was purchased, and shall have indorsed thereon a declaration signed by the purchaser or agent setting forth that the invoice is true; that it contains a full and true statement of the time when and the place where and the person from whom purchased and the actual cost thereof and all charges thereon.

Section 4, which is perhaps the one most familiar to persons who are bringing in imported goods into this country, reads as follows:

> Except in case of personal effects accompanying the passenger, no importation of any merchandise exceeding $100 in dutiable value shall be admitted to entry without the production of a duly certified invoice, as required by law, or an affidavit made by the owner, importer, or consignee, before the collector, or his deputy, showing why it is impracticable to produce such invoice, and no entry shall be made in the absence of a certified invoice upon affidavit as aforesaid, unless such affidavit be accompanied by a statement in the form of an invoice or otherwise, showing the actual cost of such merchandise, if purchased, or, if obtained otherwise than by purchase, the actual market value or wholesale price thereof at the time of exportation to the United States in the principal markets of the country from which the same has been imported.

Then follows the forms of the declarations to be made by owners, agents, or consignees of such imported goods, which begin:

> I . . . do solemnly and truly declare that I am the owner of the merchandise described in the annexed entry and invoice, that the entry now delivered by me to the collector of . . . contains a just and true account of all the goods, wares and merchandise imported by me. I further solemnly and truly declare that I have not in the said entry or invoice concealed or suppressed anything whereby the United States may be defrauded in any part of the duty due on the said goods, wares and merchandise . . . and if at any time hereafter I discover any error in the said invoice I will immediately make the same known to the collector of this district.

PRISON PENALTY PROVIDED.

Section 6 provides the following penalty for any person who shall knowingly make any false statement, as follows:

> Any person who shall knowingly make any false statement in the declarations provided for in the preceding section, or shall aid or procure the making of any such false statement as to any matter material thereto, shall on conviction thereof be punishable by a fine not exceeding $5,000, or by imprisonment at hard labor not more than two years, or both, in the discretion of the court; provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve imported merchandise from forfeiture by reason of such false statement or for any cause elsewhere provided by law.

WARDING OFF BIG STICK.

For the last three weeks friends of Mrs. Chadbourne and Mrs. Gardner have been moving heaven and earth to ward off the government's big stick. They have been willing enough to settle financially, but they have been pleading and praying that no criminal prosecution follow. Whether their efforts will prove successful is a matter of doubt.

MOST ECCENTRIC WOMAN.

Mrs. Jack Gardner, who has by turns been admired, criticised, reviled, and ridiculed at her home in Boston, is one of the most eccentric women who ever lived.

She is a Philadelphian by birth, and is the daughter of a candymaker, who acquired a fortune in the eastern city. Her maiden name was Isabelle Stewart.

Forty years ago, when her millionaire husband took her a bride to Beacon street, her audacious exploits startled the staid people of the "Hub." Her graciousness and tact eventually won her a position in the exclusive circles of Boston, from which even her eccentricity failed to displace her.

HAIR OF REDDISH GRAY.

Mrs. Gardner is 60 years old or thereabouts. She has reddish gray hair, pale eyes, a heavy Scotch face, and a thin, fragile figure that doesn't match the face.

She was the first social leader in Boston to open her house to the artists, literatti, musicians, and stage people of the eastern cities, and she had stars appear at her entertainments when the money of others had been insufficient to tempt them. At the time when Mrs. Gardner decided to abandon the conventionalities of Boston town for her own sweet will, society stood aghast at the innovation, but finally fell into line submissively, as it had done before.

FATHER LEFT HER MILLIONS.

Shortly after her father, the candy merchant of New York, died, leaving her an independent fortune of several millions, Miss Bell Stuart married John Lowell Gardner, a Boston financier, representing one of the oldest families of that exclusive city. The Gardners had a beautiful home in Beacon street, and a magnificent estate in Brookline, which the widow still owns, her husband having made her his sole heir upon his death ten years ago.

John Lowell Gardner died in 1898, and two years later Mrs. Gardner, who had been left a fortune of more than $5,000,000, conceived the unique idea, more startling than anything she had done before, of transporting to the Back Bay Fens a Venetian palace and filling it with works of art.

BUYS OLD ITALIAN HOME.

In Venice she found such an edifice, the Palazzo Barboro, and an impoverished Italian nobleman was not averse to parting with the home of his ancestors for a sum that would enable him to live in luxury in Paris for the remainder of his days. The palazzo and its furnishings from the roof down were dismantled and each separate piece was packed for shipment to Boston.

There in the Fens, old world artisans put every stone and every pilaster back into place. All around it gardens were laid out after the Italian fashion and in the palace Mrs. Gardner hung the masterpieces she had been collecting all over the world, paintings by Raphael, Rembrandt, Titian, Velasques, Rubens, Botticelli, Michael Angelo, Donatello, while a still larger collection of the paintings of a more modern school also graced the walls.

To this famous gallery she added statues, bronzes, rare tapestry, priceless manuscripts, rich armor, and a whole catalogue of rare antiquities which mark the discriminating and wealthy collector.

HIDDEN BY PLAIN WALLS.

The building is 150 feet long and 100 feet wide, surrounded by a plain looking high brick wall. Its exterior is not altogether pleasing to many eyes, but the inside is rich and unexampled in America. When once within the outer wall a feeling of awe and admiration comes over the visitor. On the walls of the vestibule are bas reliefs made centuries ago. One is of St. George and the dragon. The other is the figure of a giant pouring water on a burning castle.

From the vestibule one passes to the rectangular courtyard filled with palms, plants, statuary, and fountains. Over all is a glass roof. The main corridor, with its chiseled lions and columns of marbles from the finest quarries of Italy, bas reliefs of the Virgin, dolphins, and mosaic flooring, is one of the great features of the magnificent building.

The music room, two stories high, is the largest room of its kind in this country in any private house.

On the second floor is the Chinese room, which is an oriental treasure house. In the red room are a number of famous paintings. The Dutch room contains some of the masterpieces of Van Dyke and Van der Meer.

The living rooms of Mrs. Gardner are in the upper part of the palace.

UNUSUALLY POPULAR.

But Mrs. Gardner personally is popular and pleases the eye. Although her stature is less than that of the average woman, her figure is good, her form having been carefully molded by nature and preserved by art. There are fine curves in her arms, which she knows how to display to advantage. These come from her physical exercise and explain in part her interest in athletics, which is only second to her passion for art.

Although much of the public interest in Mrs. Gardner has been due to her dilettantism, the courting of art, music, and literature, the fêting of Bohemia, she has earned a place in Boston's exclusive circles also in consequence of her philanthropic work. The splendid art treasures of Fenway court often of late years have been thrown open to the public for a price and the proceeds have gone for worthy philanthropic enterprises. Many a struggling student has been aided by her generous gifts, because she has chosen to play the goddess of fortune in their lives. Although she has worshiped at the shrine of many fads, her devotion has not been of the empty handed sort.

GRASPS LIVE WIRE; MAY DIE.

Frank Grast, 16 years old, grasped a live wire which was hanging from an electric light pole at St. Louis and Potomac avenues, last night and was burned severely.

His screams attracted Policeman Charles Bucholz, who, after wrapping his handkerchief around his hand, released the young man.

Grast's left forearm was almost burned off. His right hand was burned also in his efforts to release himself. His chances of recovery are slight. He lives at 201 Pierce street.

LAW ON RECOUNTS PROVES A PUZZLE.

Election Commissioners, Facing Contest, Perplexed by New Statute.

DIFFER AS TO EXPENSES.

Complaint Made That Well Oiled Machine Voted "Repeaters" in Ninth Ward.

Facing the probability of a recount on the republican nomination for state's attorney, the election commissioners have begun to study that part of the new primary law relating to contests, and have encountered bits of phraseology that are bewildering.

As no court has had an opportunity to pass on the law, no official construction has been placed on many of its terms and provisions; and the commissioners are convinced that there are no two judges who would construe the section upon contests in the same way.

To them it seems there are no exact stipulations as to who shall make the recount, who shall bear the expense, or what costs are to be figured in the expense.

With no withdrawal of Mr. Healy's friends from their attitude of certainty that the state's attorney intends to pave the way by wholesale prosecutions of violators of the primary law, the general election laws, and the criminal code, for a fight to obtain an official recount, Frank Ayers, attorney for the board, was instructed to prepare an opinion on the duties of the commissioners in such a contingency.

O'Connell Also to Fight.

Members of the board and friends of Mr. Healy and John T. O'Connell, who so far is reported defeated by 231 votes for the Appellate court clerkship, and who also is contemplating a finish fight, have studied the puzzle for several days without finding light.

In each of these instances the petition must be filed before County Judge Rinaker, and it will be from his lips that the decisions will come if the questions are put to the issue, but the commissioners are anxious to obtain, before that point is reached, some idea of the position in which they will be placed.

The same is true of the possible contestants to whom the question of the expense of a recount is of vital importance, largely from the standpoint of expense, since various estimates have placed the cost of opening the ballots anywhere from $2,000 to $15,000—with the reminder that the rule of past contests has been to increase the plurality against the petitioner.

Attorney Ayers has not yet gone into the matter thoroughly, although he already has expressed the opinion unofficially that two contests such as those of Mr. Healy and Mr. O'Connell could be united so that the expense would be about halved for each.

"Security for All Costs."

After setting forth the time limit for filing petitions and requiring that the defendants shall be summoned within five days of the filing, and that the hearing shall have preference over all other cases within three days after the service of process, the primary law says:

"The petitioner shall give security for all costs."

This sentence raises the first two issues—whether "security" means simply a bond or a guaranty that the petitioner will pay the bill, and the other of what the costs may consist.

First of all, the expenses incurred by a recount will be those of the accountants who do the clerical work, but there remain the question of materials, salaries of the commissioners, or whatever officials conduct the count; pay of their clerks, who, while they are on salaries, are taken away from their regular duties, and the rent of the space occupied by the recount machinery.

That phase of the subject touches on the third issue—whether the county clerk, the election commissioners, or even a third individual or body should not be named to perform the task. Commissioner Judge holds that the board is not bound by the law to undertake its management.

On this point the law reads:

"If the grounds alleged are sufficient in law the court shall proceed in a summary manner and may hear evidence, examine the returns, recount the ballots, and make such orders and enter such judgment as justice may require."

"That plainly says 'the court' shall handle the recount," said Mr. Judge, "and we want to know if it is probable that the task will come into our hands."

Charges of "Repeaters."

Among the latest complaints are some asserting that a well oiled machine in the Ninth ward keeps track of all the voters who have died or left the ward since the last registration, and has their names voted by "repeaters," who are paid 50 cents for each time they enter the polls. Another is that many republicans failed to vote on the state's attorneyship, and that the blank was filled with Wayman's name by the judges or else it was counted for him and the space was left vacant.

It is said that the first installment of 4,000 cards for the index of voters who signed democratic nominating petitions and then voted in the republican primaries shows that large numbers of Thirteenth ward residents will be charged with that offense.

MOVING PICTURE MAN BURNED IN '5 CENT SHOW' EXPLOSION.

Audience in Panic and Manager of a Small Theater with Difficulty Rescues Operator of Machine.

Mathias Busch, an operator for a moving picture machine, was burned seriously last night by the explosion of a gas tank in the 5 cent theater at 681 West Madison street. Eugene Greene, the manager, also was burned severely about the head and arms in rescuing Busch, who was taken to the county hospital.

The theater was filled at the time of the explosion and in the wild scramble to get out a number of persons were badly bruised.

The machine is located in a small gallery over the entrance to the place, and the performance was half over when the explosion occurred. When Manager Greene succeeded in climbing to the gallery he found it a mass of flames and Busch lying unconscious on the floor.

'DROWNING VICTIM' RUNS AWAY

Policeman Takes Body from Lake, but When He Returns with Patrol It Is Gone.

Police were called last night to remove the body of a dead man which had been taken from the lake at Fifty-seventh street, but when they arrived at the Fifty-seventh street pier the man supposed to have been drowned had run away.

Sergeant Michael Golden saw the unconscious form of Otto S. Kleuchler, 420 Otto street, in the water, about fifteen feet from the shore. He dragged him to the pier, where after an examination he thought the man was dead, and ran to the nearest telephone to summon aid.

When the patrol wagon arrived nothing could be seen of the man, but after a search he was found hiding behind some bushes. He was taken to the Hyde Park station, where he told the police he had jumped into the water because he was despondent from lack of work.

Brother of Missing Man Comes.

L. P. Pittman, brother of John L. Pittman, 1273 North Clark street, who disappeared a week ago, arrived in Chicago yesterday from Pittsburg and conferred with Capt. Kane of the Sheffield avenue police station. He was unable to throw any light on the case.

REPUBLICAN SHIP COMPLETES CREW.

Notification of Sherman, Vice Presidential Candidate, Finishes the Preliminaries.

GIVES HOPE TO NEGROES.

Nominee in Accepting Party Honor Tells Blacks They Shall Be Advanced.

Utica, N. Y., Aug. 18.—The last official ceremony attending the launching of the republican national ticket of 1908 was held here today when Representative James Schoolcraft Sherman was tendered and accepted the nomination for vice president.

In accepting he subscribed heartily to the declaration of principles adopted at the Chicago convention in June, to the every utterance of Secretary Taft in his Cincinnati speech, and to the policies of President Roosevelt. Mr. Sherman asserted that the approval of the Roosevelt administration was the real issue of the campaign.

Mr. Bryan's question, "Shall the people rule?" was declared to be no issue at all. "Surely the people shall rule," Mr. Sherman said; "surely they have ruled; surely they do rule. Shame on the candidate who insults the American people by suggestion or declaration that a majority of its electorate is venal."

Pleases with His Brevity.

Mr. Sherman's speech was brief, and he did not attempt to discuss in detail any of the questions touched upon by Secretary Taft, saying he could not hope to persuade any one not convinced by the presidential candidate's presentation of the platforms and the issues. He did enter into a brief discussion of the tariff, and his declaration, "I am a protectionist," brought spontaneous response from his hearers.

Senator Julius Burrows of Michigan, chairman of the notification committee, made the tender of the nomination. In his speech he, too, resented what he declared was a thinly veiled accusation by Mr. Bryan that a republican administration did not represent the rule of the people.

Secretary of State Root, speaking as a neighbor and lifelong friend of the candidate, eulogized Mr. Sherman, politics having no place in his brief but eloquent address.

President M. W. Stryker of Hamilton college, from which Mr. Sherman was graduated, also paid a personal tribute to the candidate, and there were addresses of welcome to the visiting committeemen and sightseers from Mayor Thomas Wheeler and Chairman Charles S. Symonds of the local reception committee.

Colleagues Give Loving Cup.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies Mr. Sherman was presented with a magnificent gold lined silver loving cup, a gift from his colleagues in the national house of representatives. A large number of congressmen were at today's exercises. The brief speech of presentation was made by Representative Sereno Payne of New York. Mr. Sherman also received a telegram of felicitation from Mr. Taft and the mayor of Utica received congratulatory messages from the mayor of Cincinnati.

Notified Under Ancient Elms.

The ceremonies of notification occupied a little less than two hours and were held in the shade of the old elm trees which surround the Sherman lawn on Upper Genesee street. An uncovered, flag draped platform had been erected in front of the quaint old residence, and on this the speakers and more distinguished guests were gathered. The day was well nigh ideal. A stirring breeze gave a suggestion of autumn in its sweep and at times its noisy play with the towering branches of the elms all but drowned the speakers' voices.

Holiday throngs filled the streets from early morning until late tonight, band concerts and an electrical illumination being the last features of the day's celebration.

National Chairman Frank H. Hitchcock occupied a front seat on the speakers' platform. William Kelly of Brooklyn, national president of the Letter Carriers' association, was also on the platform.

Candidate in Robust Health.

Mr. Sherman, who was ill for a time after the convention, appeared today to be in vigorous health. His voice today carried further than any of the others, and often he was interrupted with cheers. He will undertake a long campaign trip through the west in October.

Chairman Burrows was the first speaker at the ceremonies, and was followed in turn by Mr. Sherman, Mr. Symonds, Mayor Wheeler, Secretary Root, and President Stryker.

Text of Sherman's Speech.

"Senator Burrows and gentlemen of the notification committee: Your chairman, speaking for the committee, has notified me of my nomination by the republican national convention, held in Chicago in June, as the party's candidate for vice president," said Mr. Sherman in accepting the nomination. "As I chanced to be in Chicago in June, I had an inkling of the convention's action, which was confirmed by a warm hearted reception tendered me by my neighbors on the occasion of my home coming on July 2.

"This official notification, however, is welcome, and the nomination you tender me is accepted; accepted with a gratitude commensurate with the great honor conferred; accepted with a full appreciation of the obligations which accompany that honor, an honor greater because my name is linked with that of William H. Taft, whom I respect and esteem highly and who approaches the high office of president exceptionally well equipped to discharge the duties and bear the varied and weighty responsibilities of that exalted position. My acceptance could not be made with honor unless I were in full accord with the declaration of principles adopted.

"Not only am I in full and complete accord with my party's platform but I indorse every word of the statement made by Mr. Taft in his address of acceptance when notified of his nomination as the republican candidate for president.

Revision on Protective Plan.

"First let me say that I am a protectionist, because experience has demonstrated that the application of that principle has lifted us as a nation to a plane of prosperity above that occupied by any other people.

"I especially commend that plank of our platform which provides an early revision of tariff schedules. That pledge will be fulfilled in an adjustment based in every particular upon the broad principles of protection for all American interests, alike for labor, for capital, for producers and consumers. In this readjustment the principle of protection must and will govern; such duties must and will be imposed as will equalize the cost of production at home and abroad and insure a reasonable profit to all American interests.

"The republican idea of such a profit embraces not alone the manufacturer, not alone the capital invested, but all engaged in American production, the employer and employed, the artisan, the farmer, the miner, and those engaged in transportation and trade; broadly speaking, those engaged in every pursuit and calling which our tariff directly or indirectly affects.

Prosperous Under High Tariff.

"During a statutory application of this principle, prosperity has abided with us. When a revenue tariff has been the law, adversity and want have been our portion.

"Experience, that effective teacher—effective save with the one man power now parading under the title of the democratic party—has taught the nation a valuable lesson, and the result of the coming November election will once more prove the American people to be apt scholars. What the laborer of the land, skilled and unskilled, desires is the opportunity at all times to exchange his brain and brawn for good pay in good money. A protective tariff and the gold standard, both now the existing achievements of the republican party, in spite of democratic opposition, give the laborer that opportunity.

"The republican party believes in the equality of all men before the law; believes in granting labor's every request that does not seek to accord rights to one man denied to another. Fair minded labor asks no more, no less, and approves the record of the republican party's acts.

"I have helped to make my party's record in the enactment of the eight hour law, the employers' liability act, the statutes to minimize the hazard of railroad employés, the child labor law for the District of Columbia, and other enactments designed especially to improve the conditions of labor. I cannot hope to better state my position on injunctions than by a specific indorsement of Mr. Taft's Cincinnati declaration on that subject. That indorsement I make.

Must Help Uplift Negro.

"As a nation our duty compels that by every constitutional and reasonable means the material and educational condition of the colored race be advanced. This we owe to ourselves as well as to them. As the result of a course of events that can never be reversed, they are a part of our civilization; their prosperity is our prosperity; their debasement would be our misfortune.

"The republican party, therefore, will offer every encouragement to the thrift, industry, and intelligence that will better their prospect of higher attainment.

"Our platform, as it should do, pledges adherence to the policies of President Roosevelt; promises to continue the work inaugurated during his administration, to insure to persons and property every proper safeguard and all necessary strengthening of administrative methods will be provided to furnish efficient inspection and supervision, and prompt righting of every injustice, discrimination, and wrong.

Main Issue Roosevelt Policies.

"The overshadowing issue of the campaign really is: Shall the administration of President Roosevelt be approved; shall a party of demonstrated capacity in administrative affairs be continued in power, shall the reins of government be placed in experienced hands, or do the people prefer to trust their destinies to an aggregation of experimental malcontents and theorists, whose only claim to a history is a party name they pilfered?"

SOUTH IS FAVORABLE TO TAFT.

Candidate Hears Optimistic Reports Made by Leaders at Chicago Conference.

Hot Springs, Va., Aug. 18.—Through the visit here today of R. V. Oulahan, director of the literary bureau of the republican national committee, Mr. Taft was enabled to gain at first hand the results of the recent conference at Chicago, which marked the opening of the western branch of the committee headquarters.

Mr. Oulahan indicated that there was a real element of surprise in the optimism of southern members of the committee. This was based, he said, on information to the effect that Mr. Taft's personality was a decided and increasing element of the strength to the ticket in the south and an outspoken sentiment that the present and continued prosperity of that section depended on the perpetuation of present governmental policies.

The situation, particularly in several of the western states, Mr. Taft was told, is seemingly changing for the better from the republican viewpoint.

BRYAN PREPARES HIS SPEECHES

Democratic Candidate Puts Finishing Touches to Addresses to Be Delivered on Ten Days' Trip.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 18.—William J. Bryan, in anticipation of his ten days' trip, which begins Thursday night, devoted most of the day to work on the speeches which he is to deliver at Indianapolis, Topeka, and elsewhere.

The liquidation and surrender of the charter of the Enid (Okla.) national bank, and its reorganization under the state law which provides for guaranty of deposits, furnished an opportunity for the democratic candidate to criticise the republican leaders of congress for not enacting legislation making it possible for national banks in Oklahoma to operate under the state law.

Over $5,600 has been turned into the democratic national campaign fund by William J. Bryan's political paper as the proceeds of subscriptions sent in directly to it by individuals, clubs, and newspapers.

GOING SCORES ERRING WOMAN.

Advises Her Either to Lead Respectable Life, Leave Chicago, or Throw Herself in the Lake.

After imposing a fine of $25 on Miss Bertha Lazelle, who was found in the raided house of George and Agnes McDonald, 94 Adams street, early Tuesday morning, Judge Going advised her yesterday either to lead a respectable life hereafter or to choose between leaving Chicago or throwing herself in the lake.

Later in the day the judge asserted that he had nothing against women who are led astray, as a class.

"I have known of many," he said, "who have reformed and become respected women, and I don't want it understood that I am an enemy of them as a class."

MAKE PLANS FOR PARTY RULE

Republican County Convention to Prepare for Primary Puzzles.

HYDE PARK HAS FOUR IDEAS

Fxpected to Meet All the Perplexities of the New Law.

If the plans of the most astute of the republican leaders are carried out in the county convention today the party in these parts will be equipped with a self-adjustable, automatic organization which will meet all emergencies arising from future construction or interpretation of the primary law.

No matter in which direction the organization rolls it will find feet to alight upon. Ward caucuses were held by newly elected county committeemen yesterday and last night. They elected what they called "chairmen of the county central committee."

In the Seventh ward Isaac N. Powell was chosen for this job. In the Sixth John R. Thompson was elected. Both these caucuses were held at Vogelsang's restaurant. Nearly all the wards have held meetings within the last forty-eight hours.

Master the Primary Law.

As the result of the plans which have been carried into effect the party leaders have the primary law on the mat and yelling for help. No matter how the battle goes they will come out on top, which is regarded as being commendably discreet and statesmanlike.

To follow the mental evolutions of the party chiefs who have yielded to the first law of nature and have strengthened themselves to play both ends against the middle, is a trying task and mostly an unprofitable one, but it may be stated as a fact, easily understandable, that the county convention today will adopt a new party constitution.

It is a modest one, so far as can be determined by advance information. It merely seeks to have the duly elected committeemen turn over their privileges, so far as they may be turned over, to unofficial committeemen who have not been elected.

Hyde Park's Organization Plan.

The ideas which prevail in Hyde Park seem to be different from those which prevail in Lake View, but the fomer contemplate an organization about as follows:

1. A precinct organization, headed by a precinct captain, who shall be elected the last Tuesday in November by the precinct club.
2. A precinct organization, headed by the precinct committeeman who was elected by the voters on Aug. 8.
3. A ward executive committeeman, who shall be elected by the precinct captains selected by the precinct clubs.
4. A ward county chairman, who shall be elected by the precinct committeemen elected by the people.

Lake View Takes No. 3.

In many cases Nos. 1 and 2 will be one and the same man and in nearly every case No. 3 and No. 4 will be one and the same. The idea looking to this sort of an organization is so well developed in Hyde Park that the wards caucused in the afternoon and selected No. 4. It has not been accepted at all in Lake View, where the wards seem to have contented themselves with electing No. 3.

All of the old members of the county central committee can come under the head of No. 4 except Ernest J. Magerstadt in the Fourth ward, Roy O. West in the Seventh, Daniel A. Campbell in the Fourteenth, James Pease in the Twenty-fifth, Robert M. Simon in the Twenty-sixth, and Willard M. McEwen in the Twenty-seventh.

Inasmuch as they did not run for the county committee, as elected by the people, they cannot be classed under No. 4, but they have been chosen in the No. 3 classification. All the others can serve in both classes.

Airtight Organization.

If the Hyde Park idea prevails the organization will be air tight. The precinct committeemen elected by the people and the executive committeemen elected by the precinct committeemen undoubtedly will have power to perform all official and unofficial acts. The precinct presidents elected by the precinct organizations and the executive committeemen elected by them in most cases will be identical with the official parts of the organization and in cases where they are not identical, the unofficial but real authority will control the official committeeman.

The county convention will adopt the new constitution which a subcommittee headed by John J. Hanberg has drawn up. It will provide for the continuance of the present organization and precinct clubs and the duly elected committeemen will be asked to give it quasi-official standing by adopting it.

Unofficial Committeemen Real Works.

By doing so they will confer upon the unofficial executive committee the power to call precinct meetings and name the places in which they shall be held. These will be held on the last Tuesday in November, and at them will be chosen the precinct presidents, who in turn will elect the unofficial executive committeemen, who will be the real works.

If the Hyde Park idea be carried out and any question arises as to the legality of an act performed by the unofficial body there can be a swift change of front, a dropping out of the half dozen statesmen who were not duly elected, a filling in with the men chosen from the duly elected county committee and chosen by them, and, presto! an official body with practically the same membership.

It is presented as a beautiful solution for all the preplexities which lie in the new primary law, and one which its originators hope will find the favor it merits. It is calculated to put any legal restrictions on the blink and to make the new republican organization air tight and rustproof.

Gray Explains His Statement.

John H. Gray, republican candidate for the house of representatives in the Thirty-fifth senatorial district, has added an explanation to the statement he had made to the effect that he regarded the vote on the United States senator as merely advisory and the question as one to be settled in the legislature. In his explanation he says:

"I resent the inference that I will not regard the plurality vote given for Senator Hopkins in the state and in this district as instructions by the republican voters to the members of the legislature of that party. If elected as a representative from this district I shall certainly vote for the reelection of Senator Hopkins and believe that the large plurality he received over his competitors should be considered as decisive."

Representative John Flannigan of East St. Louis has replied to The Tribune's inquiry by saying:

"I regard the primary vote as conclusive. Senator Hopkins has secured a large plurality vote and should be returned to the senate without opposition.

UPHAM ASKS BUSINESS MEN TO SWELL CAMPAIGN FUND.

Calls Attention to Fact That Corporations Cannot Be Solicited and Individuals Must Bear the Expense.

Fred W. Upham, assistant treasurer of the republican national committee, issued an appeal for funds yesterday calling attention to the fact that the law prohibits contributions from corporations, hence individuals must carry the financial burdens of the campaign.

His statement, in the form of a letter to various business men, follows:

"Both the New York and the Chicago headquarters of the republican national committee have been opened and the work of the campaign is well advanced. The election of Mr. Taft and Mr. Sherman is essential to the welfare of this country, and perfect organization is necessary to elect them. To secure a perfect organization the national committee must be liberally supplied with funds.

Corporation Gifts Are Barred.

"Congress recently enacted a statute making it unlawful to solicit money for political purposes from corporations. All the funds, therefore, for the campaign must be supplied by individuals. You are requested to bring this matter to the attention of your business associates and to ask each to send a check.

"Please be as liberal as possible, as it will take a large amount of money to pay the expenses of organization, the postage, printing, speakers' bureau, and various details that are absolutely necessary to success."

Congressmen Pick Headquarters.

Speaker Joseph G. Cannon, Congressman William B. McKinley of Illinois, and Congressman James Tawney of Minnesota, members of the republican congressional committee, met at the Union League club and decided to open national congressional headquarters in the Auditorium Annex, using rooms 208-216. Arrangements were made later for the occupancy of the rooms by John C. Eversman, secretary to Chairman McKinley.

Mr. McKinley, as chairman, and Mr. Tawney, as vice chairman and chairman of the speakers' bureau, will be at the Chicago headquarters. A branch for the distribution of literature will be maintained at Washington, and Congressman Laudenslager will have charge of branch headquarters in New York.

PLAN FOR DEMOCRAT MEETING.

Every Seat in Sid J. Euson's Theater Expected to Be Occupied by Committeemen.

Arrangements for the meeting of the democratic county committee at Sid J. Euson's theater, North Clark and Kinzie streets, at 10 o'clock this morning were completed so far as possible last evening.

The main thing settled on was that part of the constitution printed in The Tribune yesterday providing for a managing committee composed of two members from each ward, seven from the country towns, and ten at large. This is expected to go through without trouble. What subcommittees will have to be appointed are yet undetermined and will have to be fixed today. It is not thought this major provision will cause trouble.

One minor matter is likely, however, to cause no end of trouble. The theater is small and the committee is a large body. Spectators are expected to swell the crowd that will want to get in to more than 2,000. The problem of seating the committeemen alone was a perplexing one to the body making the arrangements. Every seat in the theater will be occupied by a committeeman.

CHAFIN NOTIFIED; JABS OLD PARTIES

Reins of "Water Wagon" Officially Turned Over Amid Great Enthusiasm.

TRIVIAL ISSUES SCORED.

Prohibition Managers Not Unwilling to Accept Contributions from Corporations.

The "water wagon" lumbered up to the entrance of Music hall in Michigan avenue last evening and the reins were officially placed in the hands of Eugene W. Chafin, who before the close of the present campaign promises to drive that vehicle at a higher speed than it ever before has attained.

Mr. Chafin was the last of the presidential candidates to be notified of his selection as the standard bearer of his party, but this delay does not indicate lack of enthusiasm on the part of his supporters. Last evening's surprise party was one of the most enthusiastic the Fine Arts building ever has seen. Every seat in the hall was taken and every point made by the candidate was the signal for uproarious cheering and the waving of hats and handkerchiefs.

Charges a Conspiracy.

Mr. Chafin pointed out that both of the big political parties were in a conspiracy to uphold the liquor interests, and made some remarks about the candidates of these parties. He also took a sly dig at the preachers, teachers, and reformers of the country, saying that unless they voted for the prohibition candidates it would indicate that their reform views were in theory only.

An indication of the spirited campaign to be waged by the party was seen in a new campaign song that was sung from the platform immediately after the speech of acceptance. The chorus of this song, which was hummed by the audience, is:

Down with the bosses,
The people shall rule;
Sing it in highways, in home, and at school.
Banish the traitor, the healer, the tool,
Down with the bosses,
The people shall rule.

The notification speech was made by Charles Scanlon, immediately after which Mr. Chafin replied with a statement of the issues involved in the campaign and the "lack of issues" of the other parties.

Candidate Chafin's Speech.

Mr. Chafin said, in part:

"We are now approaching the close of another fifty years in which two dominant political parties, republican and democratic, have allied themselves with the most gigantic crime that ever cursed the world and by their attitude make known to the American people that they do not propose to permit them to have a chance, even though the majority may favor it, to destroy the liquor traffic and add another amendment to the constitution, which would mark the highest achievement of civilization in the world's history.

"Twenty-seven presidential campaigns have been more or less fiercely fought to gain control of the government. Most of them have been battles over fictitious issues which had little or nothing to do with the administrations which followed. In not more than six instances would a line of American history have been changed if the defeated candidates had been elected instead of the successful one.

"The makers of the federal constitution provided wisely that once in four years the people should have an opportunity, through the election of a president and a house of representatives, to record the advance in morals and adopt new and necessary methods of government. If one or more political parties are to be kept in power twenty-five or fifty years, each succeeding administration, carrying out the policy of the past and refusing to enact into law the progress attained, then such party or parties have violated the spirit of the constitution and turned our democracy into despotism, making the political boss dictator.

Calls Other Issues Farcical.

"We are dangerously near that condition in the pending presidential campaign. The attempt made by the republican and democratic parties to create a fictitious issue is the most farcical in our history, in the face of the fact that during the last four years the question of the prohibition of the liquor traffic has attracted wider attention of the press and the people than all other public issues combined.

"For a long time there has been a disposition on the part of the leading politicians of these old parties to belittle and ignore the liquor problem. This has now reached an acute stage which amounts to a conspiracy on the part of the leaders of these parties to coin up the conscience of the people into liquor license revenue and offices."

Discuss Raising Funds.

The executive committee of the prohibition national committee held a short session at the Auditorium during the afternoon. It was called to order by Chairman Charles Reading Jones. It developed that in one thing at least the prohibitionists do not differ from the other party organizations. The main topic was how to raise money to carry on the campaign.

The prohibitionists have set the figure they want at $50,000. They have $26,000 on hand and figure that $76,000 will be enough. In one thing the prohibitionists are perfectly frank. They are willing to accept money from corporations as well as individuals.

NICE RECEIPT FOR PARTY AID

Democrats Promise Fine Certificate Fit for Framing.

HURRY CALL FOR DOLLARS.

National Committee Invites Small Subscriptions to Fund.

"Give a dollar or more to the democratic campaign fund and get a handsome certificate you can hang up on the wall along with the parlor decorations," was the invitation sent out from the party's national headquarters yesterday. It was expressed in a circular letter signed by Chairman Mack of the national committee, and Chairman Wetmore of the finance committee, and sent to 4,300 daily and weekly newspapers professing the democratic faith with a request that it be published in their columns.

The certificate will be an ornate affair, although of necessity not an expensive one. It will contain pictures of Bryan and Kern, a representation of the American flag, and attest that Mr. ——— of ——— state has subscribed ——— dollars, which has been given "without any pledge in return except for honest government in the interest of the whole people."

It also states that the donor believes that "if the people of this country are to rule their own country, they must pay the expenses of electing their own public servants."

It all is attested duly with facsimiles of the signatures of Mr. Mack and Mr. Wetmore, and large enough in size to be framed. Everybody who contributes to the cause is to get one, stating his name and the amount of his contribution.

Party Needs the Money.

It is acknowledged on all hands the democratic campaign fund needs all the money it can get. At present its funds are scant and constantly being drawn from the state protected banks of Oklahoma, in which they are deposited.

The national committee's nest egg was $41,000, turned over to it by former Chairman Thomas F. Taggart. This was saved from the Denver convention. The citizens of the Colorado city subscribed $100,000 for the expenses of the convention, and the committee only spent $50,000 of it. The remainder was turned over to the new national committee.

In Chicago there also was a surplus after the republican national convention, but Fred W. Upham distributed this among the citizens who had subscribed.

In addition to the $41,000, Mr. Bryan's paper, The Commoner, has collected $1,800 for the campaign fund. Treasurer Haskell has raised nearly $3,500 in his state of Oklahoma, and in New York Chairman Mack has collected about $4,000. There have been minor receipts, but the total is less than $60,000.

"Big Tim" Looks Affluent.

Mr. Wetmore cordially welcomed "Big Tim," otherwise Senator Sullivan of New York, when he called at national headquarters during the morning. Mr. Sullivan looked like what he himself would call "ready money." What he had to say to the chairman of the finance committee has not been put in the publicity class.

He did, however, furnish the newspaper reporters who talked with him what—if true—certainly is real news. It was that in all its history Tammany never had cut a democratic ticket of any kind and it was too late for it to begin now.

"Tammany has always been regular," he asserted. "We cannot teach our people to split a ticket, for if we did they might turn around and come back at us some day. Tammany would support its bitterest enemy if he were the regular democratic nominee. That is why we live."

MRS. HAINS CALLS CAPTAIN PERVERT.

Motive of Killing of Annis Believed to Lie in Charges Made in Suit.

LIKE GERMAN SCANDAL.

Army Officer Thought to Have Held Editor Responsible for Filing of Accusations.

Winthrop Highlands, Mass., Aug. 18.—[Special.]—The motive for the murder of William E. Annis at the Bay Side Yacht club last Saturday by Capt. Peter C. Hains Jr., U. S. A., aided by his brother, Thornton Jenkins Hains, is to be found in the filing of a suit brought by Mrs. Peter C. Hains against her husband. The papers were served upon Capt. Hains in New York a week ago Monday by a representative of the young woman's Boston lawyer.

In this suit Mrs. Hains alleges her husband is a morally degraded person and charges are made of the most sensational character. At the same time the complaint demands in her petition that the case itself be tried in open court.

Similar to Berlin Cases.

The allegations are along the lines of the exposures at the "round table" in Berlin where Count Eulenburg was charged with misconduct with other officers. The papers served upon Capt. Hains contain what is called a complete history of his misdoings.

While no names are mentioned, there are instances related which date back to the time Capt. Hains and his wife were on their honeymoon and while the captain was stationed at Fortress Monroe. It is alleged that Mrs. Hains caught her husband in the quarters of an officer whose residence was close to the one occupied by Hains. Mrs. Hains also charges her husband ill treated her in a manner most unnatural.

Will Fight for Children.

Mrs. Hains and her mother still are in New York and are not expected back in Winthrop Highlands for several days. Their intention is to get control of the three children of Capt. and Mrs. Hains, and it is expected that unless the children are given up voluntarily habeas corpus proceedings will be started at once in order that the children may be restored to the mother and brought to this city.

Information concerning the filing of this suit against Capt. Hains by his wife was secured tonight from Charles H. Libby, father of Mrs. Peter Hains, who read the complaint as dictated to her lawyers in this city by his daughter. It is believed that Capt. Hains and his brother concluded that Annis was behind the bringing of these accusations and that it was Annis who had suggested to Mrs. Hains that the only way she could clear herself was by demanding that the case be tried in open court.

Prepared to Testify.

Mrs. Hains dreads what she calls being "Evelyn Thawed."

"I am trying to make up my mind," she said, "to go through this case to the end without flinching. I know I may have to stand many things, but my name must be vindicated. It is not right that a misinformed man, wild with jealousy, should drag his wife's name in the dirt—the mother of his children.

"It seems too bad that an insane man—insane on some things at least—can make the charges my husband has made and not be punished.

"I do not feel that I am the wife of Capt. Hains. He extinguished all my love when he made those charges. Some women can love a man after they have been struck and abused, but I am not one of that kind. I have friends in the army, just as Capt. Hains has, but I fear I have more of the gossips against me. That is one of the greatest curses in the army—people who will gossip and put a wrong construction on the actions of a man or woman."

Challenged Annis to Duel.

It was said today that Capt. Hains three times challenged Annis to a duel to settle their differences, before he finally set about to kill him as he did. Hains is an expert revolver shot.

District Attorney Darrin of Queens county this afternoon definitely decided to ask for a special grand jury and an extraordinary term of the Supreme court to indict and try Capt. Hains and his brother for the murder of Annis. Twenty days must elapse between the filing of the order and the date of assembling the grand jury, so District Attorney Darrin does not expect the jury will get together before Sept. 14.

No intimation has yet been made of the nature of the defense. Weldon C. Percy, attorney for the Hains brothers, has made no statement concerning this point beyond the bare fact that he has in his possession the alleged written confession of Mrs. Hains. Mr. Percy said today that no other attorneys have yet been retained for the prisoners.

Inquest Held Tonight.

Coroner A. S. Ambler's inquest will be held in Flushing tomorrow night. The coroner today repeated his declaration that he would not go into the motives of the shooting but merely prove the bare facts relating to the easily answered question: "How did William E. Annis meet his death?" This means that the guarded statement of Dr. Harris A. Houghton that Annis told him things that would have important bearing on the case will not be brought out at this time nor will anything else which pertains to the history of the relations of the Hains brothers and Mr. and Mrs. Annis.

A second written statement made by Mr. Annis after the shooting was made public today. This was in answer to a question asked by Dr. Joseph Bloodgood whether Mr. Annis had anything to say before ether was administered for the operation. Mr. Annis dictated and signed this statement:

"Shot by Capt. P. C. Hains. I did not irritate him at the time. I have nothing to say."

After signing the statement he turned to one of the physicians and said:

"There was absolutely no reason for the shooting."

On the way to the hospital in the ambulance Mr. Annis told Dr. A. S. Jones in reply to a question that he was about three feet from Capt. Hains when the latter fired. Asked by Dr. Jones the cause of the shooting Mr. Annis was silent for a moment, then answered:

"He shot a man before."

AUTO SPEEDERS ARE FINED.

Dr. L. Blake Baldwin Admits He Exceeded the Limit While on His Way to a Hospital.

Dr. L. Blake Baldwin was fined $5 and the Coey Automobile Livery company $10 by Judge Cottrell for speeding their automobiles.

A. Wilcox, employed by the Coey Automobile Livery company was charged with driving too rapidly an automobile at Jackson street and Wabash avenue at 12:30 o'clock the morning of July 28. Dr. Baldwin explained that he was going to a hospital and that he knew he was exceeding the speed limit.

Arthur Johnson, said to be employed by N. B. Farwell, 2219 Clarendon avenue, and James McDonald, said to be employed by J. B. Carter, who lives at the Auditorium Annex hotel, were fined $10 and costs each by Judge Gemmill for speeding.

AUTOS PURSUE NEGRO THIEF

Exciting Man Hunt Follows Robber's Attack on Two Women.

POLICE SLOW TO RESPOND.

Marauder Escapes by Boarding Interurban Car for Glencoe.

All Highland Park, except the police department, is deeply stirred by a daring robbery committed yesterday by a man supposed to be a negro refugee from Springfield. The woods in the vicinity of the village were searched and an automobile party warned all the north shore villages to be on the lookout for the man.

Mrs. E. H. Purdy, who lives at 321 Linden avenue, Highland Park, and her guest, Mrs. Charles Roovaart of Chicago, were the victims of the noonday marauder.

The women made a strenuous fight to hold him until the police came, but as the police force took its dinner before answering the call their assailant escaped. He ran down a ravine in the rear of the house and later was reported to have been seen boarding an interurban car at Ravinia and leaving it at Glencoe.

Up to a late hour last night no further trace of him had been obtained.

Negro Attacks Woman Guest.

Mrs. Roovaart went upstairs in the Purdy residence at about 11:30 o'clock in the morning and found the negro helping himself to the contents of a bureau in Mrs. Purdy's bedroom. She screamed and the man rushed toward her.

"What are you doing here?" she cried.

"I was sent here by Mrs. Mason to beat the rugs," he replied, evidently hoping to smooth matters over by a lie.

Just then Mrs. Purdy came running up the stairs, attracted by the scream. The negro saw her and rushed towards her. Instead of running, however, Mrs. Purdy grappled with him, and Mrs. Roovaart went to her aid. They screamed, but their cries were unheard, and the man broke away, ran out of the back door, and disappeared down a deep ravine in the rear of the house.

Mrs. Purdy immediately telephoned to the police and to her husband, who was at his hardware store in the village.

Town Marshal Slow to Respond.

John Nelson, marshal of the town of Highland Park, arrived one hour and a half later. He explained that he had stopped to have his dinner. Mr. Purdy, who had been too deeply engaged in attempting to quiet his hysterical wife to trail the robber, hinted that the marshal might have been a little more prompt.

"What could I do if two women couldn't hold him?" queried the representative of militant law in Highland Park.

The negro was about six feet tall and had a mustache. His clothes were dark and he wore a blue suit and slouch hat. Several residents of the town said he visited their houses begging and claiming that he was a refugee from Springfield. With the horrors of the race war in that city strongly impressed on their minds the hunt for the fleeing robber was taken up by many individuals in automobiles.

Soldiers Ready to Give Chase.

The soldiers at Fort Sheridan were on the point of joining in the search when word was received that a negro answering the description had ridden from Ravinia to Glencoe in an interurban car.

Mrs. Purdy is the daughter of M. W. Marvin of Waukegan, superintendent of schools of Lake county, and is one of the most popular of the younger set in Highland Park. When seen at night she showed no effects of her thrilling encounter with a big black robber, but seemed, on the contrary, to take it lightly. Neither she nor her husband, however, took lightly the indulgence of the town marshal in dinner before answering a call to capture a burglar. As far as could be learned, the only things that were taken were a gold watch and $15.

INFANT THROWN FROM AUTO?

Evanston Police Think Dead Baby Found on North Shore Was Hurled from a Speeding Vehicle.

A dead baby girl, about 2 weeks old, was found yesterday morning by Joseph Ester in what is known as "No Man's Land," west of Evanston and Wilmette. The Evanston police found there were three holes in the child's head, apparently made with a hatpin. The body was not identified.

The theory of the Evanston police is that the baby was thrown out of an automobile.

Deputy Coroner C. F. Kennedy continued the inquest to Aug. 27 after Coroner's Physician Henry G. W. Reinhardt had examined the body.

"A heavy blow upon the head caused acute meningitis and cerebral hemorrhage, which resulted in the death of the child," said Dr. Reinhardt. "I can see no evidence that a pin of any kind was used. The marks on the head might have been made by grains of sand on a stone surface coming in contact with the child's head."

BLACKS ORGANIZE TO WIPE OUT VICE

Led by the Rev. H. E. Stewart 200 Negroes Form Law and Order League.

DOORS SHUT TO WHITES.

War Will Be Declared on "Dope Fiends," "Crap Shooters," and Street Loafers.

Desiring to prevent the possibility of a race outbreak in Chicago now or at some future time, 200 negroes organized a law and order league at the Institutional African Methodist Episcopal church, 3825 Dearborn street, last night. They hope to clean the "black belt" of vice and crime.

It is the plan of the new organization's promoter, the Rev. H. E. Stewart of the church in which the meeting was held, to check the mob spirit in his race by cleaning out the dens of vice in the negro districts of the city, which he asserts have been the cause in every case of racial uprisings.

Before the meeting it was feared by the organizers of the new league that radical talks might be made on the Springfield rioting and arouse the blacks to excitement. Accordingly the doors were closed to whites, including reporters, and steam roller methods of conducting the meeting were introduced.

Chairman Curbs Wrath.

No speaker was allowed to let his wrath against the whites for the Springfield disorders boil over, and although several came dangerously near doing so Chairman Stewart succeeded in quieting them. Consequently little or no hard feeling was expressed.

Besides cleaning the "black belt" of vicious resorts the movers of the new league propose to drive from the city vagrant blacks, "dope fiends," "crap shooters," and habitual criminals. They also plan to see that no intoxicants or cigarets are sold to minor negroes, and that the law regulating nickelodeons is strictly enforced.

Even more progressive is the proposal of the new league to procure reductions in the rent charged negro families for houses and flats in the "black belt." By a leveling of rent rates it is believed that social conditions will be improved vastly and morals raised.

The league will conduct a lecture course in connection with the institutional church to enlighten negroes along the lines of "honest, law abiding, upright, and Christian citizenship."

Minister Reads Principles.

The Rev. Mr. Stewart, as chairman of the meeting, read the principles of the new organization, as follows:

"We believe that the time has come when an effort should be put forth by that class of negroes who stand for law and order to help bring about a better condition of affairs among us as a race.

"Like all races, we have a vicious and criminal element among us. We believe that the better class of negroes suffer to a greater extent because of this element than does the better class of whites suffer because of their criminal and vicious class.

"We have observed that dives and low dens of vice have been the cause of adding fuel to the fire in almost every case where the mob spirit has taken possession of low and vicious white men. The purpose of this organization is to join with the lovers of law and order to clean out all such places.

"A number of our people who have no desire to work are daily coming into certain sections of the city. This class loafs on the street, frequents low dens, and is easily influenced in political campaigns by designing politicians and bad whisky. In some sections of Chicago it is difficult for a woman of either race to walk in certain streets without being stared at and hearing insulting remarks. We believe much can be done to change this condition.

"Through this organization we intend to strike at evil wherever found among us, whether open and flagrant violations of law and order or whether under the guise of respectability and decency."

MAN HURLED FROM PLATFORM OF A STREET CAR IS KILLED.

George Griffin, Collector for Furniture House, Loses His Life When Trolley Vehicle Strikes an Open Switch.

George Griffin, 60 years old, a collector for the Hartman Furniture company, was thrown from the platform of a State street car when the car struck an open switch at Forty-third street and was killed. His skull was fractured. Griffin lived at 4233 Wabash avenue.

Attorney Walter M. Cowell, who lives at 1089 Evanston avenue, was run over by a Clark street car at South Water street. As he attempted to board the moving car his feet slipped under the wheels and both his ankles were crushed. Physicians at the county hospital, to which he was taken, said he was injured internally also. His feet probably will have to be amputated.

TWO REGIMENTS TO QUIT CAPITAL.

being is deserving of protection for himself and property, and we cannot afford to be wishy-washy on the subject."

Gen. Alfred Orendorff also objected to expunging the phrase.

"We must teach these people where we stand," he said, "and we must act with the same vigor and speed that they acted Friday and Saturday nights. All the people in this country are equal before the law and have rights to its protection."

Senator Hay then said: "I do not want to make a speech, but simply want to say that that phrase Dr. Scott objects to was inserted at my suggestion."

The Rev. Dr. de Rossett called for three cheers for Senator Hay and they were given with a will.

The audience then consented to hear Dr. Scott again. Dr. Scott withdrew his objection to the resolution, in accord with what he termed "deference to the misguided judgment of this body," and the resolution went through, to the accompaniment of yells that could be heard for a block outside the building.

State's Attorney Asks Aid.

State's Attorney Frank L. Hatch was heard immediately after the passage of the resolution. He asked every man to agree to bring him information concerning the names of the participants in the rioting and the names of witnesses.

"Now show that you mean what you say you mean in this resolution," he said, as he distributed blanks to be filled out with the names of rioters and witnesses. Then another resolution was passed putting every member of the chamber of commerce and the Business Men's association at the disposal of the officers.

Gov. Deneen received the report of the action of the business men with much satisfaction. "It was a grand action and a noble exhibition of civic pride and energy," was his comment.

Vicar Pleads for Peace.

A further contribution to the pacification of Springfield was made by the Rev. Father Timothy Hickey of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, who is vicar general of the Roman Catholic diocese of Alton. The distinguished clergyman preached at the funeral of Frank Delmore, who was shot Friday night.

"I appeal earnestly to all the people to remain indoors after nightfall," he said. "The presence of people in the streets is of assistance to any vicious person who may wish to continue the shameful riots. If all remain within doors the trouble will end immediately, as there will be nothing in sight to feed upon.

"It is my belief that the trouble is over and that if the people will cease talking and remain at home peace and quiet will be our portion."

Tells of New Threats.

Several speakers at the meeting gave evidence that the race hatred is far from ended in Springfield. W. J. Butler declared he had received notice to get rid of his negro help, and emphatically asserted that he will employ whom he pleases.

"I will go out on the streets to lead against the mob if necessary," he exclaimed. "This is the time when we men of Springfield should stand for law and order, no matter what the consequences may be to us. Let's go out and defy the mob. A few men could have stopped that mob last Friday night. Look what you and I have paid for this temporizing. Of the dead three are whites and 80 per cent of the wounded are whites.

"They say this is regulating the color question; that this is teaching the negro his place. See what we have paid for it in blood. See what we will have to pay for it in property; taxes to meet damages to property, our own city's fair name tarnished, and our property values depreciated. The next mob may get me or it may get you.

"I have received a threat that I must get rid of my colored servant on pain of trouble. I want to say that I will keep that man in my employ so long as I desire, and I will protect him to the last ditch."

George Richardson Indicted.

The grand jury began its work at 2:15 this afternoon. Three hours later it ended its first task, returning a formal indictment against George Richardson, the negro accused of the assault upon Mrs. Earl Hallam. It was this crime that precipitated the race war. The indictment was returned before Circuit Judge James A. Creighton, and State's Attorney Frank L. Hatch immediately announced that the case will be brought to trial in September.

The grand jury investigation will be lengthy and is to be helped materially by the military authorities. Judge Advocate Chiperfield already has heard forty witnesses and is turning over his information to the state's attorney.

When Judge Creighton instructed the grand jury, which includes some men who have done excellent service in other investigations, his words were taken as a reference to crookedness in Sangamon county grand juries in the past.

Demands Secrecy of Jurors.

"I call special attention to the rule of secrecy," he said, "because at a recent meeting of the grand jury what was transpiring in the grand juryroom was public property in the street. Precautions will be taken this time to see that there is no danger of this. If any secret gets out I will know some juror has leaked.

"Do your duty without fear or favor, and do it quietly. Do it in a businesslike manner, and don't go talking about the streets."

The first case to be taken up tomorrow probably will be the investigation of the murder of William K. Donnegan, the aged negro who was lynched Saturday night. Other murders to be investigated are those of Scott Burton, Louis Johnson, John Colwell, Frank Delamore, and J. W. Scott.

"Black Hand" letters are pouring in upon the authorities, but no serious attention is being paid to them.

What Did the Folks Say About Van Camp's Milk?

How did your people like the milk that we supplied you free? What did the children say? How did it seem to have pure milk once—milk with no germs in it? Are milk dishes better when made with whole, rich milk? May we be your milkmen now?

All of you, we hope, got the can of free milk, offered in Sunday's paper.

We bought it for you to let you know what pure milk means—what rich milk means.

And now you know.

It is now for you to decide what sort of milk you are going to have in the future.

Do You Want the Cows Inspected?

Do you want milk from dairies of which you know nothing at all? From dairies that may be uncleanly?

From cows that are not inspected—cows that may be infected—cows that may be tubercular?

Will you take such chances on a germ infection? Or will you use Van Camp's?

Our cows are inspected. So are the men who milk them. Our milk is guarded, in every way, from every chance of infection.

Our dairies are sanitary. We make a business of cleanliness. Our factories, where the milk is evaporated, are built without wood. They are cleaner than any kitchen.

Then every can is sterilized after the can is sealed. Not a germ of any kind can remain in it.

Two-thirds the mortality of children is caused by impure milk. A great deal of adult sickness is caused by it.

Which will you have in your home?

Do You Want Pure Milk or Condensed Milk?

Condensed milk is half sugar. You can't use it for cooking.

Van Camp's is nothing but milk—rich Holstein milk, with two-thirds the water evaporated.

Nothing is altered, nothing added—no sugar, no starch, no preservative.

Put back the water that we took out and you have what we started with—the whole rich milk.

On Van Camp's, the laws of the nation protect you, because the milk enters into interstate commerce.

It must contain all of the butter fat, all of the solids, that belong to the richest milk. It must omit all preservatives. Else it could not cross a state line.

You have no such protection on milkman's milk. Which do you prefer to use?

Will You Depend on the Milkman or Have a Cow at Home?

Van Camp's means a cow in your kitchen. Rich milk or cream—little or much—as you want it.

No waiting for the milkman, no shortage, no waste. You open a can when you want it, and it keeps till you use it up.

Please think what that means.

How often do you go without a milk dish because you haven't the milk? How often do you let some milk sour because you have too much?

We have shown you a way to prevent that—a way to be free of the milkman.

Will you continue to have your milk always on tap when wanted?

Will You Pay for Waste Milk, or Pay for What You Use?

Van Camp's comes to you as thick as thick cream. So thick that you add one part water for coffee. Yet it costs but half what you pay your milkman for cream.

Add two parts water and you have rich milk. The cost per quart is about what your milkman charges. The cost per week is far less.

There is no waste to Van Camp's. The saving in a year is enormous. This pure, rich, convenient milk is cheaper than the milk which you used before.

Will You Cook with Whole Milk, or with Half Milk?

The sort of milk that you get from your milkman depends on the part of the can. The butter fat rises, and the solids fall.

Milk from the top of the can lacks the solids. From the middle or bottom, it lacks the butter fat.

In Van Camp's you get the whole, rich milk, just as it comes from the cow.

That's the sole reason for that delicious flavor which Van Camp's gives to milk dishes.

That flavor surprised you, if you tried that free can in your cooking. You never knew milk was so good.

But you have not been accustomed to the whole milk. Such butter fat as your milkman gives you is often skimmed off before the milk goes into cooking.

Which milk will you use from now on in your cooking. Don't you want all of your milk dishes as good as those which you made with Van Camp's?

What Shall the Children Drink?

Will you take chances? Or shall your children have a milk which they can drink without a thought of germ infection?

All these questions are for you to answer now. Your grocer has Van Camp's, and will be kept supplied with it.

Will you use an impure milk when pure milk is obtainable, at even a lesser cost?

Will you use any milk half as good as Van Camp's, when you even lose money by doing so?

Will you use a milk that you know, or a milk that you don't know? Please let the question be decided by those who used the one free can.

BY I. E. SANBORN.

Like the historic old cat, Frank Sparks came back yesterday and trimmed the world's champs for the second time in four days, winning the final game of Philadelphia's series here this year by the wide margin of 8 to 3, while Manager Chance used two pitchers in futile effort to get a stronger hold on third spot.

Sparks was batted a lot harder than when he worked against Brown on the opening day of the setto, and all but one of the hits made off him were of the extra base variety. But all the Cubs could get out of a single, two doubles, a three sacker, and a home run was three runs, and these looked puny in size when stacked up against what the Phillies did to Carl Lundgren and "Chic" Fraser.

Twelve times the enemy hit where the Cubs weren't and the swats were divided exactly even between the martyrs on the Cub slab. Eight of these twelve hits were grouped in two innings and were accompanied by two errors, which helped things along merrily.

For a few minutes it looked as if the rooters would have to take back the things they said, unfit for publication, when the day's batteries were promulgated. A terrific drive into the left field pavilion by Tinker, following Steinfeldt's clean single in the second inning, put the Cubs in the lead comfortably and gave promise of more pounding to come, while Lundgren was pinching the lives out of the Phillies close to the plate.

Change Comes Quickly.

The fourth inning saw a sudden switch in the outlook and produced a resumption of the flow of decayed utterances from the spectators. For in that round the Phillies fell on Carl for three runs, which put them in the lead. A fortunate double play intervened to check the slaughter in the fifth, but only for one round. The sixth brought Lundgren's departure, after a pass and single had put two Phillies on bases with none out. Fraser stalked bravely to the rescue, but the first thing that happened to him was a throwdown by Sheckard, who muffed a fly that proved costly. And before "Chic" could retire three of the enemy's swatters they had batted more than once around and had rushed five tallies across the pan, which locked the game up in Philadelphia's ice box.

Fraser shut the visitors out after that and the Cubs pounded Mr. Sparks' lopsey loos pretty hard in the last four rounds, but not hard enough to accomplish much. What looked like a promising rally in the ninth was cut off short by a snappy double play engineered by Grant.

With the game lost irrevocably Manager Chance let Schulte try out his arms and legs in a regular battle by putting him in right garden in the seventh and the convalescent was given a merry welcome, despite the general depression which prevailed.

Both teams had opportunities to score in the opener. Grant started the game with a safe blow to center and was sacrificed ahead, but Lundgren denied the hit which would send in the run. In Chicago's half Sheckard singled with one out, and immediately neutralized the advantage gained by getting caught napping off first base. Chance was passed and Evers popped out. An alarm clock might have helped some.

Looks So Nice and Easy.

Steinfeldt pried open Chicago's second with a single to right center. Howard scorned bunting and tried to hit into the stands, but Titus got the fly half way in its flight. Tinker followed with a wallop which landed three or four rows up in the pavilion back of Magee and rebounded into the field, giving Tinker a soft journey around the bases, with Steinfeldt scoring ahead of him.

For one round it looked salubrious with a two run lead and Lundgren working well. Titus destroyed the illusion by opening the fourth with a single. Magee flied, but Bransfield and Osborne both hit singles past Steinfeldt into left and Titus romped home with the first run. Doolin flied out, but Dooin rapped a timely hit through to center, scoring Branseld from second. Hofman fired the ball home to stop "Kit" and it got away from Kling, rolling to the stand. Osborne followed across the plate and Dooin went to third before the hole was repaired. Sparks' grounder ended that round.

Although Grant led in the fifth with a walk and was bunted to second, Titus slugged a liner straight to Evers, who easily doubled up Grant before he could get back to second. When Lundgren opened the sixth by passing Magee and allowing Bransfield to hit to left so far that Magee romped to third and "Kit" to second, Manager Chance guessed it was time for a change. It was, but not that change. With Fraser on the job Osborne raised a fly to left and Sheckard, trying to throw home before he caught the ball, dropped it, letting Magee score. Doolin was passed, filling the bases. Dooin and Sparks singled, putting two more runs over. Grant struck out, but Knabe came along with another single, putting over two more runs. Then Titus and Magee grounded out.

Rally Soon Peters Out.

The Cubs rallied a bit in their half, despite the long handicap. Two were out when Chance lifted a triple through right center against the bleacher fence. Evers duplicated it as nearly as ever two peas in a pod were alike, scoring the manager; but Steinfeldt's fly closed the door.

Neither team scored after the sixth. The Phillies made three more hits off Fraser, but all of them came after two were out and made nothing in the way of runs. Chance tried to stir things up in the last half inning by stinging a two bagger into left as leader of a forlorn hope. When Evers followed with a pass the fans rooted for a long climb and a strong one, as there was no one out. But Steinfeldt cracked a hot one to Grant, who came up with it, touched third, forcing Chance, and whipped a throw to first which doubled up Steiny. That put a crimp in the forlorn hope which faded into thin air as Schulte fouled out. Score:

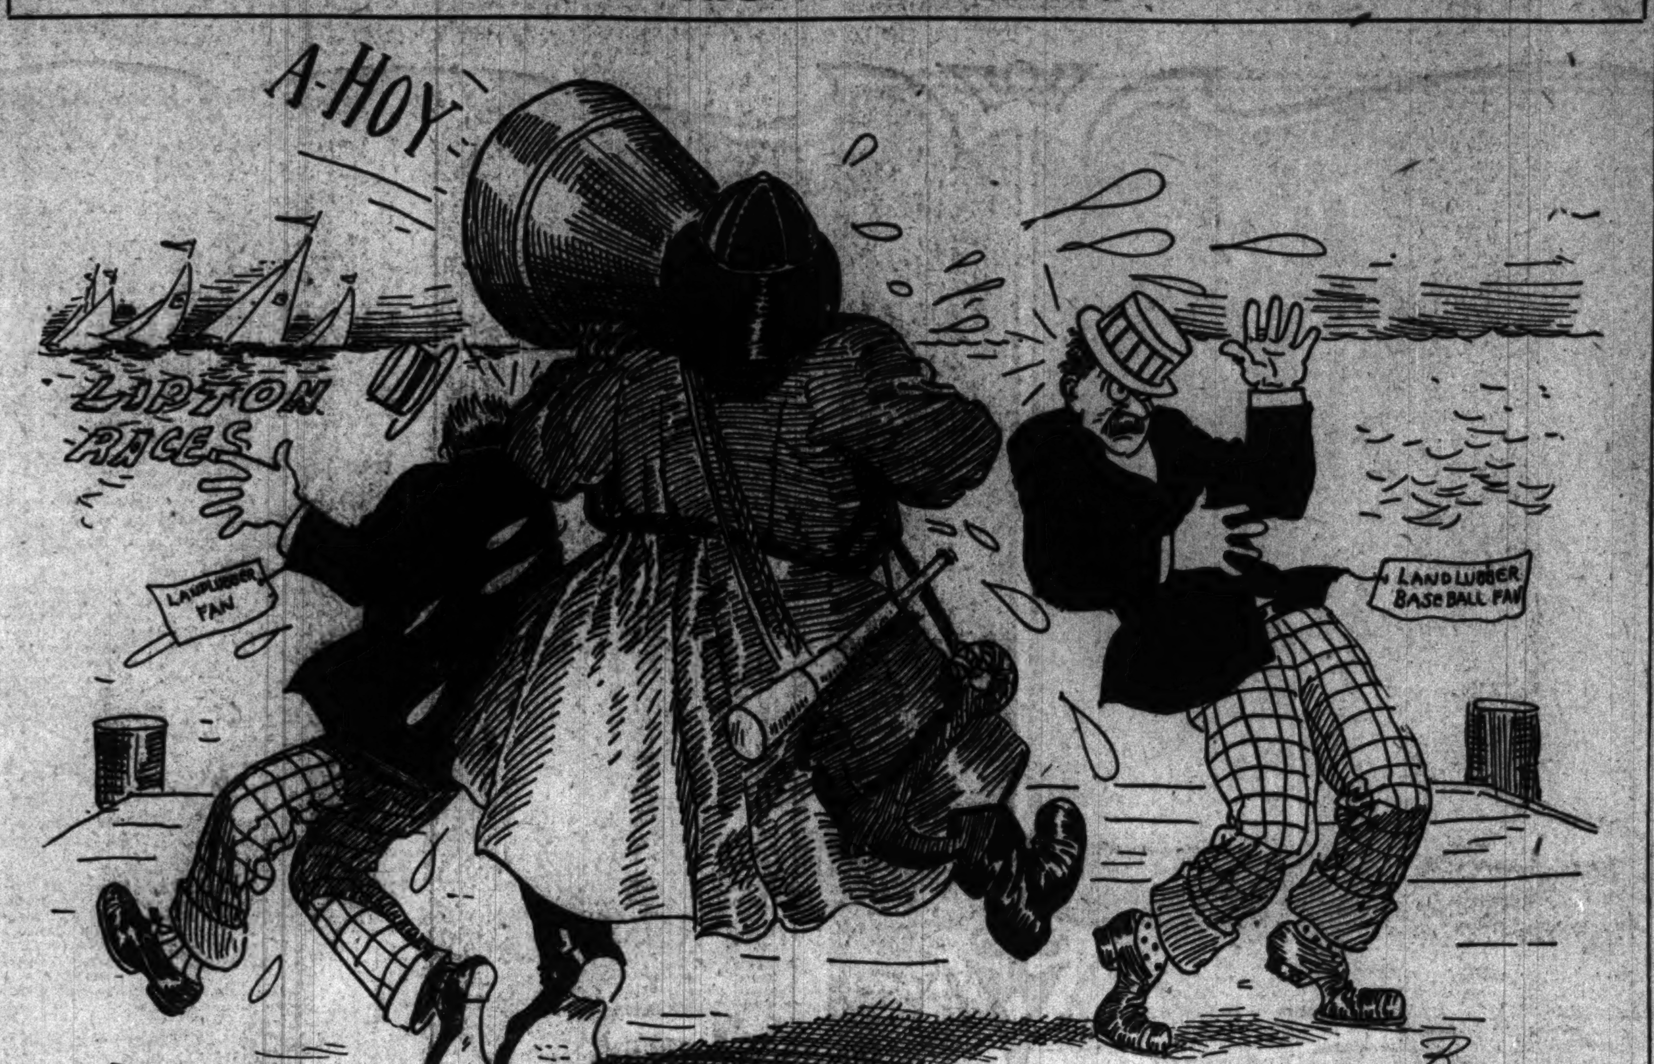
THE RIGHT OF WAY.



NOTES OF THE CUBS.

Boston is next in line.

The gap between first and third still is five and a half games wide.

The Phillies have finished their season's work in Chicago and have lost only three out of eleven games here.

Titus robbed Hofman of a safe hit in the eighth by a good running catch, but for the most part the Phillies' chances were easy.

Boston has four games to play this trip, including a hangover tie from the previous series. That will be played off on the open date Friday.

Hundreds of fans wondered why Tinker loafed around the bases on his home run. They did not see it go into the stand and thought it had hit the fence and bounded back.

Grant was the whole defensive works in the last half of the ninth. He retired Chance on a force out and pegged Steinfeldt out for a double play, then caught Schulte's foul, ending the game.

Yesterday's victory gave Philadelphia a cinch on the season's series with Chance's men, as it was their twelfth victory. The Cubs have won six games from the Phillies and have four more to play in Quakertown.

To everybody except Rigler it looked as if Lundgren had Bransfield struck out before "Kit" made his single in the disastrous fourth. A little closer attention by the ump might have averted some of the disgrace.

Magee was credited with an undeserved hit in the ninth. He ducked away from one of Fraser's curves which hit his bat and rebounded into short center out of all reach. Magee got wise in time to chase himself to first.

It looked decidedly as if the Phillies had quit when Dooin refused to run out a grounder to Evers in the third right after Tinker's home run had put the Cubs two runs to the good. But if Dooin's head was down there were others on the team that were up.

With Overall to call upon for yesterday's slab work, the verdict probably would have been different, but as the big California pitcher's wife had just undergone an operation and was not entirely out of danger he was wholly unfit for duty and was given leave of absence to remain at the hospital.

Pitcher Chappelle, who is claimed by both the New Orleans Southern league and Boston National league clubs, was at the game yesterday and will report to Manager Kelley here in the morning. Chappelle was given his release by Memphis, but is claimed under the waiver process by New Orleans. Boston also claims him and the pitcher has asked the national commission to decide where he's at.

BY CHARLES DRYDEN.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 18.—[Special.]—In a grand carnival of errors versus bases on balls, exploited here today, the latter commodity triumphed by a large majority. It was fierce and then some. The Athletics mangled our tired Sox by a tally of 7 to 2 and were a long time on the job, too.

If ever a team had an incentive to win it was our pilgrims. They compiled ten swats for a total of fourteen bases. The hostiles tossed in five boots for good measure and Mr. Vickers issued three highly ornamental passes. All the Sox could squeeze out of that combination was two miserable tallies and they were in luck to get those two.

On the other hand, a trio of Sox pitchers stalled the locals with six hits, but four of them were applied to the business in hand. That made a difference. Four of the five passes bestowed upon the locals were honored at the home office and that made some more difference. Our side contributed four errors, only one of which came back to haunt them.

"Invalid" Smith Effective.

Invalid Smith, who was so sick that he expected to die any minute, paused the locals with one single in five rounds. In the sixth with the Sox leading by one run the dying man made the fatal mistake of passing Vickers. Then with two out Tannehill juggled a grounder and Collins exploded a double, counting two runs. Murphy poled a third tally across before the stanza ended. Still fighting for life the Sox grabbed one in the eighth on a couple of scratch hits and the ever ready error.

Then Moxey Manuel had a bad spell. The young fellow hadn't pitched for so long he had lost the location of the plate. In the eighth he walked Vickers and Hartsel and so Brig. Gen. Jones yanked him and sent Owen to the slab. The soldier boy marched Oldring and struck out the next gent, but Murphy was there with a loud wallop that tallied three runs. The combat was lost without these extra touches as the Sox failed do anything in the ninth. They hit the ball plenty and the home team did all it could in the way of ragged work, but all the luck broke against our pilgrims.

The Sox mixed some war medicine in the first inning, but the dope was not strong enough. With one out Jones beat out a bunt. After much fiddling Isbell fouled to the catcher. Jones stole second and made an extra base on Schreck's throw. Dougherty walked and purloined second. Jakey Atz watched his chance and fouled to Mr. Schreck. For the locals Hartsel drew a pass and Oldring bunted him along, but E. Collins lined to Atz for a double play.

Jones Repeats Safe Bunt.

Jones negotiated another safe bunt after two were down in the third and Isbell popped to Jim Collins. Nichols opened the local third with the first hit off Smith and went to second on Isbell's muff of a throw to catch him napping. The out of Vickers put Nick on third. Hartsel grounded to second.

In the fourth round the Sox wasted a couple of swats, but did some real business in the fifth. After Smith fanned Hahn tripled to center and completed the circuit when Oldring made a bum relay to Murphy. Jones skied to right. Isbell was safe on Nichols' fumble. Schreck threw wild when Isbell stole and the old scout took an extra base. Dougherty walked. They tried a double steal and Isbell was massacred at the plate.

A bush league play spoiled a run for the Sox in the sixth. Jakey Atz got away to a double and was sacrificed to third by Parent. Much against his better nature B. Sullivan struck out. Tannehill walked. When he and Jakey started a twin steal Schreck made a bluff throw to second and Jakey galloped into the jaws of death when Jim Collins returned the ball from third.

Invalid Smith enjoyed great luck with the hostiles, holding them to one hit in five rounds. But in the sixth Mack's men woke up and performed in brutal fashion. Schreck flied out and Vickers drew a pass. Hartsel popped to Sullivan. Oldring was safe on a fumble by Tannehill. E. Collins banged a double to right, scoring Vickers and Oldring. Before Smithy could get his breath Murphy sawed off a single and Collins crossed the rubber with the third run. Murphy stole and Davis flied to Atz.

Manuel Relieves Sick Man.

Manuel relieved Smith and toiled through one inning all right. The Sox captured one run in the eighth on another of the Athletics' justly celebrated errors. After Isbell skied Dougherty made a safety and went to second on the infield out of Atz. Parent's scratch hit the pitcher knocked down. When Parent tried to steal E. Collins muffed the throw and Dougherty trotted home. George Davis batted for Sullivan and killed off Parent on a tap to Jim Collins.

Manuel went to the bad in the eighth. He walked Vickers and Hartsel. Then Owen took the hill and issued a pass to Oldring, filling the bases. E. Collins struck out. Murphy cleared the bases with a double to the back fence. Harry Davis went out, short to first. Jim Collins soaked a single, counting Murphy. Nichols grounded to Isbell for the last out. There were two gone in the ninth when Hahn tore off his third hit, a double to left. He went to third on a wild pitch and Jones popped out. Score:

NOTES OF THE SOX GAME.

Two more games with the high kicking Athletics.

Up to the hour of going to press Invalid Smith had not made his last will and testament.

Walsh was not sent to the rescue of Smith, as he is being saved for the job tomorrow. Smith was taken out to let Anderson bat for him.

Tannehill and Atz made dandy one hand stops on Jim Collins and Oldring in the fifth. The hostile bugs cheered the plays.

After Anderson struck out for Smith in the seventh Hahn chipped off a single, and Jones had the misfortune to hit into a double play.

Copious zest was imparted to the pastime by a gang of Indians and cowboys from a hot melodrama playing at a local theater. The cowboys fired pistols at exciting epochs.

They always did disperse queer food at ball games in Philadelphia, but it was left for the caterer at the Athletics' park to put on the latest wrinkle in delicate viands. The agents peddle honey coated pigs' knuckles.

George Davis suffered a shock at the sight of Tommy Greenwood scampering around the ball lot at practice with the players. Tommy is the fellow who was put to bed in Davis' pajamas at the hotel here some years ago. George burned the pajamas and since has entertained a feeling of coldness for Tommy.

BREAKS TWO RIFLE RECORDS.

Delaware Militia Captain Makes Almost Perfect Score at Long Ranges in Cup Matches.

Camp Perry, O., Aug. 18.—What is said to have been the most extraordinary long range rifle shooting ever seen in America was accomplished today by Capt. K. K. V. Casey of the First Delaware in the Leech and Wimbledon cup matches, both of which he won by record breaking scores. In the Leech cup match at 800, 900, and 1,000 yards Casey scored 104 out of a possible 105. In the Wimbledon 1,000 yard match he scored 97, beating the match record of 91 made by Capt. Richard of Ohio in 1903. The conditions were perfect.

The leading scores in the Leech cup match follow:

TENNIS STARS RETAIN TITLE

Hackett and Alexander Easily Beat Wright and Little.

WON IN STRAIGHT SETS.

National Championships Open on th Casino Courts at Newport.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 18.—The superiority of teamwork over brilliant individual play was shown on the opening day of the twenty-eighth annual national championship tennis tournament on the Casino courts today when H. H. Hackett and F. B. Alexander of New York successfully defended their title against B. C. Wright of Boston and R. D. Little of New York, 6—1, 7—5, 6—0.

Out of the twenty-five games played only nine went to deuce, while in the first and third sets the challengers took only 21 out of the 75 points which were scored by both teams.

Match Decided at Net.

Little's errors lost the first set and Wright's the second, while the quality of Hackett's play was the feature of the third. Alexander bore the brunt of the work in the first and second sets, and did it so well that although he drove repeatedly at Wright the latter could not stand the pace. The match was won at the net, for every time Hackett and Alexander drew their opponents up they were able to pass them.

Hackett and Alexander now have two legs in the championship cups and will win permanent possession if they defend their title successfully next year.

Summary of the Play.

Good progress was made in the singles. Among the twelve defaults the most prominent was that of L. H. Waidner of Chicago, one of the western champions in doubles. Summaries:

JUNIOR GOLFERS DOWN TO FINAL.

Albert Seckel and Charles Evans Survive in Westward Ho Tournament.

MEET TODAY AT 36 HOLES.

Interscholastic Champion Beats Donald Edwards in Hard Match, 1 Up.

BY J. G. DAVIS.

Albert Seckel of Riverside and Charles Evans of Edgewater came through to the final of the open junior championship at Westward Ho yesterday and today will go the thirty-six hole route for permanent possession of the championship cup, the holder of which can rightfully lay claim to the junior honors of the west. It would be hard to pick a better matched pair and it looks as if the boy with the most nerve would win.

The interscholastic champion, who has a pronounced liking for the Westward Ho course, had fairly easy sailing in the beautiful golfing weather of yesterday, beating G. W. Bunn of Springfield in the morning, 4 and 3, and putting the little Scotchman, Dave Jolly of St. Andrews, out of the running in the afternoon by the comfortable margin of 4 and 2. Seckel's after breakfast opponent was his clubmate, G. C. Smith, who went down, 6 and 4.

Seckel Beats Edwards.

In the afternoon the long driving Riverside youngster had a far different proposition when he faced Don Edwards of Midlothian, the gold medalist of the tournament, but he caught the Blue Island boy a little off his play in the out journey and was 2 up at the turn. This paved the way for a "ripping" finish, as Donald, after losing the tenth hole, copped the next three in succession and was all square. From this point on it was a nerve racking struggle in which Seckel finished in fours, while Edwards did the same except for a five on the fifteenth, which cost him the match. The cards:

Evans Wins from Jolly.

Evans went out in 39 against Jolly and was 2 up at the turn. Then he took three straight and had the match cinched. Cards:

The special handicap for players put out in the morning was won by G. Blossom of Hinsdale with a score of 78—11—67. R. Markley and Ralph Gates won the two ball foursome with a total of 174. The approaching and putting contest was won by R. Markley of Amherst with a total of 5. T. Williams won second prize after the play off of a tie with Dave Jolly.

KETCHEL DEFEATS THOMAS IN SECOND

Middleweight Champion Is Far Superior to Coast Fighter.

POLICE STOP THE CONTEST

Title Holder Carries Battle to Opponent with Two Knockdowns in First Session.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 18.—[Special.]—Joe Thomas is down and out. With lightning speed in his action, with the same force behind his punches that has characterized all his other fights, Champion Stanley Ketchel tonight beat down the Californian in the first round, scoring two clean knockdowns, and finished his work before more than one minute of the second round has elapsed. The police came to the relief of the fallen Thomas as Referee Eddie Smith was tolling off the seventh second, but Joe was completely out.

Hard rights to the body and left uppercuts in the clinches had been most effective and Thomas had fairly wilted before the damaging blows Ketchel gave. He could not stand the beating, and as a left thundered into his ribs he dropped like a log and had to be carried unconscious to his corner.

It was a short victory for the Michigan middleweight champion, but none the less a brilliant one. Thomas was less effective as a fighter than he was when they met before, but Ketchell was certainly an improved man. With a viciousness that comes of his strength, he started for Thomas from the gong, never dallying with him and never wasting a punch. The latter, always on the defensive,

First Punch Hurts Thomas.

Quickly, even as they toed the mark, Thomas seemed to lose the confidence that has characterized his training. He did no execution, satisfying himself with blocking, but there was no withstanding Ketchel, who crushed in with his punches and took the heart out of his opponent. Ketchel's first right punch to the body took the life out of Joe.

Twice in the first round Thomas dropped to the carpet for the count, with his right eye cut open from straight lefts, and he went to his corner a sorry sight.

The second round was a repetition. Ketchel forced his man to the ropes with a series of rights to the body, almost dropped him with a couple of left hooks to the jaw, and finally sent him down for good with a left uppercut to the body as the men were fighting at close range. Thomas, who had been fighting wildly and with a desperation born of almost certain defeat, sank down slowly, but with no chance to stand. As the referee was calling off the seconds the police stopped the fight, but it would have closed even without their assistance, and the referee waved his hand toward the unharmed Ketchel as victor.

Champion Is Unmarked.

There was not a mark on the champion and he was hardly warmed up with the exercise. Thomas, save for one left to the body that went with too little force to more than annoy, failed to touch Stanley. It was a victcory won with little effort and proved conclusively what Ketchel has maintained—that he could beat Thomas at any weight.

The result came as a surprise even to the most enthusiastic of Ketchel's admirers. They had figured him to win, and to win in quick order, but not so easily as he did. Evidently the Michigander wanted to show what he could do, and he proved it. There is no question that he is a greatly improved fighter. He missed on few occasions and hit straight for the mark. His right hand punches to the body and left uppercuts in the clinches were most effective.

PAPKE BESTS "SAILOR" BURKE.

Billy Madden's Protege Stays Limit of Six Rounds by Holding—Doors Closed on Police.

New York, Aug. 18.—[Special.]—"Sailor" Burke, the pugilist recently taken up by Billy Madden, saved himself from a sure knockout at the hands of Bill Papke, the Illinois middleweight, tonight by holding in clinches with a vise like grip.

The fight, a six round affair, took place at the National Athletic club, in the presence of 2,500 spectators, while a squad of bluecoats, under Acting Capt. Ivory, stood outside the locked doors clamoring in vain for admission. At one time it looked as if the big fight would be stopped by the police, who arrested Willie Gibbs and "Kid" Rose, principals in one of the preliminary bouts together with Referee Charles White. The fighters and White were taken to the police station, where they were bailed out, and White hurrried back to the club to referee the Papke-Burke go.

The general verdict was that, if Burke had been willing to fight without indulging in constant hugging and clinching tactics, he would have been put away in short order. The men agreed to fight with a clean break, but Burke repeatedly broke this rule. At one time, when he was battered, bleeding, and groggy, he had his arms around Papke's neck and was clutching the ropes behind the latter's back.

Referee White was compelled literally to tear the men apart in all the rounds, until his shirt was saturated with gore which flowed from Burke's nose and left eye, the latter being closed in the fifth round.

PAPKE MAKING NEW DEMANDS.

Now Asks Ketchel to Make 154 Pounds—Match May Be Called Off as Result.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 18.—[Special.]—According to a dispatch received from Billy Papke, there is a possibility the Papke-Ketchel fight will be called off if Papke persists in demanding 154 pounds, weigh in at 9 a. m. When the match was made the weight was to be 158 pounds at 9 o'clock in the morning. Now comes the story that Papke says it must be 154 pounds or no fight. If he sticks to that there will be no fight, as Ketchel declares he will refuse to do better than 158 pounds.

In the meantime the Los Angeles club is in the jamb of the door. It sent a check for $1,000 to Stakeholder John T. Clark the first of the week as a guaranty to O'Connor that the fight would take place under the conditions named. If Papke backs out O'Connor will claim the forfeit.

Batling Nelson arrived today from Los Angeles and tomorrow will go into training at Colma, near where he will fight Gans. With him will be Willis Britt, his manager; Jack Grace, his trainer, and two sparring partners. Nelson Sr. will also be present to keep an eye on his son.

Joe Gans got in from Harbin Springs tonight. Tomorrow he will take up active training at Alameda. "Molly" McDonald will be in charge.

Abe Attel, who is to meet Owen Moran at Coffroth's arena on Labor day, has decided to do his preliminary work with Gans. Fred Landers also will act as sparring partner to the Baltimorean.

PACKEY M'FARLAND AT DENVER.

Chicago Lightweight and His Manager and Trainer Homeward Bound—All Deny Story of Friction.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 18.—[Special.]—"Packey" McFarland, with Manager Harry Gilmore Jr. and Trainer Pat Kenneally, arrived tonight over the Denver and Rio Grande and after a few hours' stay departed for Chicago, where they are scheduled to arrive Thursday morning at 7 o'clock.

The trio emphatically denied the story of another split between the fighter and manager. McFarland said:

"Nolan wanted to grab me and tried hard, but I am satisfied. Gilmore has made me big money and the matches have been the best. I made one big mistake when I broke just for a short while. I lost a couple of good matches by it, so just say for me that I will stick."

Novel Boxing Card at Fort.

An unusual card has been arranged for the weekly fight show at Fort Sheridan. The preliminary bouts will include three four round bouts in which soldiers will appear, followed by a "battle royal." The windup affairs will be three six rounds bouts. Peter Savery will meet Johnny Conners at 122 pounds. Kid Brown will fight Young Wallace at 130 pounds and Walter Parker will engage in battle with Jack Fitzgerald at 135 pounds.

Galligan Outpoints Slinger.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 18.—[Special.]—Joe Galligan of Chicago severely punished "Kid" Slinger in their six round bout here tonight.

BY JOHN G. DE LONG.

What was to have been the third and final race for the Lipton cup turned out to be no race at all, for lack of wind prevented the first boat from finishing within the time limit of three hours. The race will be sailed over today.

It was hard luck for Fred Price and also for the Chicago Athletic association, as Spray literally ran away from the rest of the fleet, and toward the finish figuratively had its nearest competitor at the other end of a mile long towline. The great centerboarder was sailed a remarkable race by Price and his crack quartet, and the yacht easily sustained its reputation of being invincible in the kind of weather such as prevailed yesterday afternoon.

Spray assumed the lead at the start and not only maintained it but widened the gap on every leg of the quadrangle. Spray had an excellent chance to win the trophy of the Irish baronet and no doubt would have turned the trick with a little more time in which to sail the remaining distance to the finishing stake boats. To be exact, Spray sneaked in between the buoys six minutes and forty-eight seconds after the judges had fired the cannon announcing the time limit.

Hard Luck for Spray.

Price and the C. A. A. had the cup cinched, as the leaders in the percentage column had been effectually disposed of. The dope figured out this way. Spray went into yesterday's race with a percentage of 133.4 won with a fifth on Saturday and a third on Monday. A victory yesterday would have boosted the standing of the Price racer to 233.4. Chicago and La Rita II. were tied for first at 155.6, but yesterday both fell by the wayside, and the best total Chicago could have rolled up would have been 211.2, while La Rita II. could have mustered but 177.8. Cleveland had 144.4 up to yesterday, and second place would have tied it with Spray for first.

At the start there was a breeze from northeast of not more than four or five miles an hour. The first leg of the square was a close haul. Cleveland crossed the line first, followed in order by Spray, Chicago, I. A. C., Quien Sabe, Columbia, La Rita II., Jackson Park, and Cherry Circle. Spray at once walked away from Cleveland, though the C. A. A. entry was to leeward of the Buckeye yacht.

Quien Sabe, sailed by Skipper Vastine and a crew of two, surprised everybody by the manner in which it held Chicago and I. A. C., both new boats. It was not for long, however, as I. A. C. started out like a winner, and, working out to windward, began gaining on the three leaders. Skipper Bailey took I. A. C. past Chicago and went after Cleveland, which he caught within ten minutes. Spray was not so easy, and could not be overtaken, though I. A. C. picked up some on the Price racer.

Sail in Detachments.

The second leg lay northeast and was a beat. After rounding all took the starboard tack, on which they made a long leg. Chicago was the first to come about and soon after the rest followed suit. They were soon split up on various tacks and the relative positions were hard to determine, but Spray was gaining every minute. When they reached the mark it was seen that the order was Spray, I. A. C., Cleveland, Quien Sabe, Jackson Park, Chicago, Columbia, La Rita II., and Cherry Circle.

The next side of the quadrangle was a spinnaker run and "Babe" Cowan had Spray's light canvas on and drawing in record time. Spray made a fine run down the wind and increased its already good lead, with the others making vain efforts to catch up. On the run Cleveland nipped I. A. C. and led the athletic club boat around the stake by nearly a minute. The order at the third turn was Spray, Cleveland, I. A. C., Jackson Park, Chicago, Columbia, La Rita II., Cherry Circle, and Quien Sabe.

Spray Increases the Lead.

Spray was running away on the final leg. That is to say, the lead was being increased, but the light wind was not conducive to much speed. In fact, when the distance was half covered it was a foregone conclusion that Spray could not make it before 5:15 o'clock, when the time limit would expire. Summaries:

Another match race has been added to the series to be sailed between Vencedor and Valmore as one of the chief features of the present yachting carnival week. The additional match will be sailed on Friday afternoon under the auspices of the Chicago yacht club, which has offered a cup to the winner of the race, which is to be sailed over a triangle of seven miles to the leg.

The spectacular feature of carnival week will take place tonight when the Venetian celebration will be held on the lake front. There will be fireworks, diving contests, and other attractions galore. The proceedings are to begin at 8:30.

Jack Leyburn Takes 2:09 Trotting Purse with Little Effort.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 18.—The feature of the opening of the grand circuit meeting at the Hudson River Driving park today was the 2:16 pace, in the first heat of which The Eel went in 2:02½. This beat the track race record, his own record, and is the fastest mile paced in the grand circuit this year. The Eel's chief competitor was George Gano.

The first heat was a great race between these two, the first quarter being made in :29¾, the half in :59½, and the three-quarters in 1:31¼. The Gano horse then began to slacken speed and The Eel won eased up. The Eel won the second and third heats more easily.

Although no pools were sold, the attendance was equal to the average of previous years for the first day. Summaries:

FINISH WORK ON THE BIG TROT.

Handicappers Devote Day and Evening to Allotments for the American Trotting Derby.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 18.—Handicappers Budd Doble, the great reinsman from California; J. Z. Zimmerman of Lima, O., and George Hicks of Boston devoted the entire day and evening to the task of penalizing the seventy-three trotters entered in the $50,000 American trotting Derby, to be decided at Readville on Tuesday, Aug. 25, and the result of their work was announced tonight.

The race is for one mile and a quarter, one dash, but in case of too big a field of starters, the track reserves the privilege of having preliminary trials, the six leading horses in each to contest in the final. Of the big purse $30,000 will go to the winner.

In handicapping the horses, records did not necessarily govern, as trotters known not to be up to their record were treated accordingly. Horses without records were not necessarily placed on the scratch mark. At the one and one-quarter mile mark were placed those considered up to racing a mile in 2:15, and no horse was handicapped to be slower than that time. At intervals of fifty feet are set the different marks back from the one and one-quarter mile post. In the opinion of the handicappers each fifty feet represents one second of time in placing the faster trotters in the rear of the slower ones.

Highball, Sonoma Girl, and Sweet Marie were given the biggest penalty by the handicappers, each starting back at the 2:05 mark.

WILL NOT LOSE ITS "FARMERS."

Cleveland Club Buys Four Players on Whom Commission Declared "Options" Were Obtained Illegally.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 18.—[Special.]—The Cleveland club will not lose the services of the players declared to be "farmed" illegally by the national commission. The owners hit upon a scheme today which is bound to meet with success. The commission declared Cleveland had no option on several men sent to the minors and that any club could purchase them. Today Cleveland bought Homer Davidson, Jake Daubert, Gladstone Graney, and Otto Hess. For good measure they acquired Pitcher Sitton of Nashville and Jacksonville. The club will file purchase agreements for the men desired in the regular manner and no doubt will obtain their services for next year.

NIMBUS RUNS TO WORLD'S RECORD.

Travels Six Furlongs at Empire City in Remarkable Time of 1:11 1-5.

CLIPS MARK OF ROSEBEN.

Famous Old Sprinter's Performance, However, Is the Better of the Two.

Yonkers, N. Y., Aug. 18.—A new world's record for six furlongs for circular tracks was made at Empire City track today when Nimbus, carrying 109 pounds, won the first race in 1:11 1-5.

The time clips two-fifths of a second off the old mark, made by Roseben, carrying 147 pounds, at Belmont Park a couple of years ago.

Nimbus' performance today was not as good as that of Roseben, for he had considerable weight off, but the track and weather conditions were ideal for record breaking.

The start of the six furlong race was down a slight hill and as they swung into the stretch another gradual descent follows, over which it is easy for good horses to make fast time.

Tom McGrath Is Pacemaker.

Tom McGrath broke in front and ran the first furlong in 11 seconds. He led at the quarter by one and one-half lengths in 21 4-5 seconds. The third furlong was covered in 33 2-5 seconds. Here he began to stop.

Nimbus then took up the running, coming to the half mile in 45 3-5 seconds. He swung into the stretch with a lead of one and one-half lengths, passed the five furlongs in 57 3-5, and finished out the full distance in 1:11 1-5. He was nicely in hand at the end.

Tom McGrath tired badly from the early pace and finished outside of the money.

Spooner, at 6 to 1, won the Dunwoodie stakes.

OFFICERS OF LAW AT EMPIRE.

Believed to Be After Evidence of Violation of Laws Against Racetrack Gambling.

New York, Aug. 18.—[Special.]—District Attorney Francis A. Winslow of Westchester county was at the Empire City racetrack today looking over the betting situation. He was accompanied by Assistant District Attorney Weeks and had a long confab with Detective Lanyan, who was engaged by Acting District Attorney Elder during the recent meeting at Brighton Beach.

It is said Lanyan has been secured to get evidence against professional layers of odds, against whom there will be an immediate crusade, according to reports in circulation tonight. District Attorney Winslow was called back from his vacation in Maine to take personal charge of affairs at the track.

In discussing the situation he made the following statement: "I intend to conduct a rigid investigation of affairs at the track and you can say for me that the law as it is will be enforced to the letter. If we can get evidence against any bookmakers or professional gamblers they will be arrested and rigorously prosecuted."

HIGH MARK SET BY BOW EXPERT.

Col. Williams of Washington Is First in the American Round.

H. S. TAYLOR IS SECOND.

Archers' Tourney Opened Under Favorable Conditions at Washington Park.

Shooting under the best possible conditions, visiting archers led the large field of competitors in the first day's shoot of the National Archers' association championships, which were held yesterday afternoon at Washington park.

The low wind which prevailed during the day allowed the bowmen to run unusual scores, and the high run made by Col. Robert Williams of Washington, D. C., in the first American round proved to be the best of several national tournaments. The veteran, who was last year's American round champion and who has competed in national tournaments since 1879, had a high total of 544 points out of 86 hits in the American round during the morning, which was a good margin over the 485 scored by H. S. Taylor of Chicago in 86 hits. Although the latter found the target more often than Col. Williams, he failed to reach the gold bull's eye as regularly. C. C. Beach of Battle Creek, a holder of several records, came in for third with 467.

Western Man Earns Honors.

In the afternoon session William H. Thompson of Seattle assumed the leading position and carried off the honors in the first York flight with a grand total of 427 points in 108 hits. His nearest rival was H. S. Taylor, who had 93 hits to his credit, which netted him a score of 400. Third in the list for the afternoon was veteran Col. Williams, who fell off in form and counted but [illegible] points.

In the women's division Miss Harriet Case of Chicago held a commanding lead all the way, as Mrs. Howell of Cincinnati, who has held the national championship for seventeen years, was unable to take part, owing to sickness in her family.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 19, 1908.

After all those magazine articles on the race problem, too!

It is hard to suppress the mob spirit at Springfield. The rear entrances, perhaps, are open.

Fifty years ago an event like that would not have seemed so strange in the capital of Illinois.

Six thousand votes were recorded against the free bridge proposition at the recent election in St. Louis. They still need a lot of funerals down there.

Candidate Sherman did not pretend to be surprised. He frankly acknowledged that he had had an inkling of it.

Mr. Angell is unduly sensitive as to the sufferings of Mr. Taft's riding horse. Let him sympathize, rather, with Bryan's mule. That poor animal broke its leg the other day.

Suspicion has been cast upon that wonderful Alaska wheat. Some of the millers say it doesn't make good flour. The wheat problem is still up to Wizard Burbank.

Champ Clark says Bryan will carry not only Illinois but Ohio and New York as well. In spite of the circumstance that his presidential predictions almost invariably go wrong he comes up smiling every four years with a few more. Age cannot wither nor custom stale the infinite optimism of the Hon. Champ.

It is disrespectful to that elderly cow of Mr. Bryan's to speak of her as a "heifer" nowadays.

The water at the various lake beaches has been warm enough for bathing purposes this summer. There is no gain without some loss.

Mr. Kern, also, probably will confess that he suspected what was coming. Some men just love to be killjoys, spoilsports, and marplots.

The Cincinnati Enquirer's virtual acknowledgment that Mr. Bryan is doomed to defeat is the biggest newspaper straw, measured as to its length and width, that the political wind has toyed with this year.

Up in Evanston the temperance children are drawing the color line, thus practically nullifying the good work done by Candidate Chafin at Springfield.

In the meantime Mr. Loper has an exceedingly strong case against the municipality of Springfield for damages sustained in a riot—to-wit: one wrecked automobile, one ruined restaurant.

Expert Herely has discovered that the elevated loop platforms are not living up to their seating capacity. Patrons of the lines using the loop have been suspecting something of the kind for a long time.

Rather than hurt anybody's feelings by riding his horse during the hot days, Mr. Taft has procured an extra strong boat and will go fishing.

Springfield will be due for a bad headache after its prolonged spree is over.

Gov. Folk's automobile broke down while he was taking a ride a few days ago. This, however, is not the first time the governor's attention has been called to the condition of Missouri's public roads.

The voice of the katydid has been heard in the land, monotonously reiterating the same old lie.

A Seattle man promptly accepted an offer of $2,000 for a meteorite in his possession. It seemed like reaching out in the air and pulling in the money.

THE NEW "ALASKA" WHEAT.

The threat of 6 cent bread will have no terrors if Abraham Adams makes good. Mr. Adams has a 700 acre farm in Juliaetta, Idaho. On his broad acres he is raising a wheat crop reported to be a wonder. Visitors tell of a single stalk bearing 250 kernels. The average yield will be 100 kernels to the head if no misfortune comes.

The chemist at the Idaho experiment station says the wheat is equal to if not superior to the best there is in bread making qualities. The mill test must be awaited before judgment is definite. If the new wheat comes up to expectations, great things may be in store for the farmers in the wheat belt.

Mr. Adams started with a single stalk of wheat he found growing in a fertile valley in Alaska in 1904. He wants $20 a bushel for his crop of 1908. If he raises 100 bushels to the acre on his 700 acre farm he will have a fat bank account as the result of his venture. He will add to the glory of Idaho. His great yield, used as seed by other growers, will be reproduced many fold. The grain production of the world will be revolutionized if 222 bushels can be grown to the acre instead of an insignificant average of less than thirteen.

The chemical tests already have shown that seed planted in the spring or in the fall makes a yield in no respect below that of the best No. 1 wheat known to the mills. If the mill tests give as favorable results the obscure village of Juliaetta will be immortalized, the Adams family will have another accomplishment in their long list of honors, and, incidentally, another credit will be given William H. Seward in connection with his real estate transaction in the Alaska country some forty years ago.

WHO WILL PAY THE COST?

Lives were taken and property destroyed by the Springfield mob. There was a time when the owners of property thus destroyed had to pocket their losses and when those dependent on the murdered men for support could get no damages. All that has been changed. The owners of property destroyed by rioters can recover from the city or county which did not give them the protection which was their due three-fourths of their loss. The dependent heirs of a man killed by a mob can recover $5,000.

So the taxpayers of Springfield will have a heavy riot bill to pay. Along with the other taxpayers of Sangamon county they will have to stand the incidental expenses entailed by several hours of mob rule. There will be special grand jury bills and the cost of the prosecution of the rioters who have been and are to be arrested. Add to this the interference with trade and other items of loss and the total riot bill will rise to formidable proportions. The taxpayers may grumble, but they will have to foot it.

It is not enough, however, that those who suffered by the mob should get some compensation for their losses. The men guilty of murder and arson should be punished to the limit. This must be done in the interests of law and order, to protect the good name of the state, and to prevent the recurrence of such crimes as those committed last week. Every person who participates in a riot which results in a murder is punishable as a murderer. Every member of a gang of incendiaries is guilty of arson, though he may not have applied the torch with his own hands.

Such men should not get off with the slight degree of punishment meted out to comparatively harmless rioters. Nor do the state and county officials mean they shall. Where a man has been guilty of murder they believe he should be dealt with as a murderer. The grand jury should feel the same way. It should do its duty without fear or favor, finding true bills wherever the evidence justifies it.

Gov. Deneen has called on all "good citizens" of Springfield to present to the state's attorney such evidence or information as they may have regarding any of the crimes recently committed. Now is the time for them to show their good citizenship, their regard for law, and their abhorrence of crime.

THE MESSAGE OF THE BUYERS.

The buyers are here. Many more are on their way. They have come to the "great central market" to lay in their supplies for the fall and winter trade. Some of them have been accustomed to come to Chicago wholesale houses for years. Others have been encouraged through the special rates arranged by the Chicago Association of Commerce in coöperation with the railroads. They are visiting the city for the first time. In many instances the merchant is accompanied by wife and children.

A large number of buyers are registered from the south. The trade relationships between Chicago and that part of the country are steadily developing. Several lines of railroad connect the states south of the Ohio river with this city. Shipments are made promptly and goods are delivered quickly. The market facilities themselves are unsurpassed. The inevitable result of such conditions is a satisfactory trade which pleases buyer and seller alike.

The interesting thing about the visits of these buyers is the message they bring. They know the situation in their home community. They know how the people feel regarding the future. The aggregate of their orders is largely dependent upon such a study antecedent to their departure for the market place.

There is occasion for gratification, therefore, because of the optimistic spirit the merchants show. They are laying in large stocks of goods. Whether from the south, the north, or the west, they seem to believe that there is nothing but prosperity ahead. Their hopeful reports lend added strength to the growing conviction that the situation is improving all along the line.

MR. TAFT'S RECREATION.

Mr. Taft is entitled to a little more consideration than he is getting from some of his fellow countrymen. It is unfair to ask him to take his exercise on an elephant or to abandon golf, but both these unreasonable requests have been made. Elephant riding is in its infancy here and is a rich man's sport. It is one not generally enjoyed even in India, where elephants are less expensive. Even where they can be obtained in the home market the plain people do not use them to any great extent, and it would be difficult to name offhand in this country a wealthy man who has many of them for his personal use.

It will appear to men of all parties that George T. Angell, president of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, makes an unfair demand when he insists that Mr. Taft take his horseback riding on an elephant. There is no doubt that the candidate is careful in his selection of a mount and bears in mind his own avoirdupois. It is pleasing to find such tender-hearted men as the president of the Massachusetts S. P. C. A., but they must be reasonable as to elephants.

Even if Mr. Taft were able and willing to comply with the demand the country is not ready for this sport. There would be more or less talk if a presidential candidate were to be found daily careering around our pleasant country highways in such a fashion, and a candidate, in justice to himself, must not attract attention by anything which could be regarded as an eccentricity.

Furthermore, it is unjust to ask that Mr. Taft abandon golf. Mr. Angell has not done so, but timorous persons wishful of the candidate's success and fearful that a popular prejudice exists against golf have counseled that he give it up. It is to be doubted if Mr. Taft would make much of a success at baseball or tennis. He undoubtedly would make a formidable wrestler, but if he engaged in this sport he would be thought undignified. Sparring must be barred for the same reason. In automobiling one may get plenty of fresh air, but Mr. Taft could get no exercise at it, it being apparent that he could not get under the car and that being the locality in which most of the exercise in automobiling is obtained.

One may run over the branches of sport and find none so well adapted to the purposes of heavy presidential candidates as horseback riding and golf. It is not asking too much to request that critical persons be a little considerate and not seek to deprive Mr. Taft of his daily exercise. It is unfair.

RECALLING THE GREAT DEBATE.

At Ottawa on Friday, Aug. 21, Lincoln and Douglas will meet in a debate on the issues of the day. Not in person, but in memory. The "Little Giant" has been in his grave for forty-seven years. His lank opponent survived him. But it has been forty-three years and more since Lincoln died. The citizen of Chicago can see both men as they appeared half a century ago. The dignified figure of Douglas surmounts a noble shaft standing in a little park near Thirty-sixth street and the lake. At the entrance of Lincoln park St. Gaudens has left one of his most notable works—a faithful representation of the great emancipator.

The art of the sculptor has been aided by the descriptive skill of the writer. As Winston Churchill's "The Crisis" is read, no one fails to catch the spirit of the time. The debate becomes a living fact—not a memory. The power of the novelist is nowhere better shown than in the story of the famous meeting. In Clark Carr's "The Illini" the figures again stand out clearly in the foreground. The eyewitness is not behind the novelist in the attempt to turn past into present. The speaking statues and the living words have preserved to all time two great sons of Illinois.

Between Aug. 21 at Ottawa and Oct. 15 at Alton the Illinois Historical society will hold celebrations at the seven places where the two champions met in their famous forensic contest. There will be the songs of the olden time sung by the olden time singers. There will be reunions of those who heard the debaters half a century ago. There will be many a reminiscence of an autumn when people looked beyond the struggle for a seat in the United States senate to a greater contest of two giants for the presidency.

The commemoration of these meetings is a praiseworthy enterprise. Illinois has no Bunker Hill, or Saratoga, or Yorktown. Its historic past touches but lightly the "times that tried men's souls." It had a part in a greater struggle. On its soil was fought the preliminary battle in one of the world's severest contests. "Independence" was the boast of the fathers. "Freedom" was the slogan of the sons.

It is a time for the revival of patriotic spirit. "Not without thy wondrous story, Illinois," is a favorite song phrase. The Lincoln-Douglas debate of the summer and autumn of 1858 added an important chapter to that story. It was one of the events that made Illinois great in the sisterhood of states.

IN A MINOR KEY.

Those Dear Friends.

Esmeralda—"The spiteful thing! She says I artfully conceal my age."

Gwendolen—"How unjust! You don't conceal it a bit, you know."

Adding to His Sufferings.

The Doctor—"I expected to go out of town next Saturday, as usual, to spend Sunday with my family in the country, but professional duties forbid. The fates are against me."

The Professor—"The fates are to blame, are they? Well, it's natural for a week ender to come to a lame conclusion."

Forebodings.

The tortoise, having won the race with the hare, was boasting of the exploit.

"Some day, young fellow," said an old tortoise, eying the braggart with disfavor, "that speed madness of yours will be the death of you."

In the Sweat of His Brow.

"Paw, I heard you say something that sounded a good deal like swearing while you were hoeing the weeds in the garden a little while ago."

"Did you, Bobby? Well, that must have been a part of the original curse."

As a Safety Valve.

"Scorchley doesn't have any more of those terrible epileptic fits he used to have, does he?"

"No; whenever he feels one of them coming on he goes and takes a spin in his automobile."

Circular Ambition.

Slocum—"Curious fad that Boxley, the baseball pitcher, has taken up, isn't it? He's building an airship."

Gofast—"No; it's perfectly natural. He thinks he can make one that will describe a shorter curve than anybody else's machine."

Not Hard to Do.

"George," asked Mrs. Ferguson, "if I should want to put some money in the bank while you are away how will I go about it?"

"That's easy, Laura," said Mr. Ferguson. "All you have to do is to go to the bank, make a noise like a depositor, and there will be somebody to see that you don't get away till you have got rid of your money."

Gen. Corbin Likes Old Clothes.

Ever see Gen. Corbin's old shoes? He had them made four years ago when he went to the Philippines, and he's wearing 'em yet. They're great. The general detests a new pair of shoes or a new suit of clothes. A young fellow came along to his place near Washington recently and said:

"Sir, I don't want to ask for money, but I would be grateful if you would give me an old suit of clothes."

"Not by a damn sight," said the general, "but there is a new suit inside you can have."—New York Sun.

Winston Spencer Churchill's fiancée, Miss Clementine Hozier, is a remarkably fascinating and clever girl, having inherited her good looks and her charm from her mother, Lady Blanche Hozier, to whom several men have lost their hearts in the past and who has been the heroine of more than one romance. Fair haired, slim, graceful, and with classic features, she has been to a great extent brought up by her wonderful old great-grandmother, the wife of the second Lord Stanley of Alderley, and afterwards by her aunts, Lady St. Helier (formerly known as Lady Jeune), and by Lady Redesdale, who is not only her aunt but also her godmother.

She has likewise been around a good deal in society with a third aunt, the widowed countess of Airlie, who lost her husband in the Boer war and who is lady in waiting to the princess of Wales.

Her father, Col. Sir Henry Hozier, who died suddenly in Panama a year ago, was for many years secretary and permanent chief of that wonderful London institution known as Lloyd's, which are ready to underwrite anything save a horse race. He had an eventful career, having served as an officer of royal artillery in the China and Abyssinian campaigns and having acted as military attaché at old Emperor William's headquarters during the war of 1866 between Prussia and Austria, and four years later in the Franco-German struggle. The old kaiser was extremely fond of him and took advantage of a feat of bravery on the part of the colonel in rescuing a wounded soldier under heavy fire to bestow upon him the iron cross during the siege of Paris.

The Hoziers are an old Scottish family who have been territorial magnates in Lanarkshire for a couple of hundred years or more, the present head of the house being the second Lord Newlands, nephew of Sir Henry, and a first cousin, therefore, of Winston Churchill's fiancée. Lord Newlands formerly served in the foreign office, for a number of years was private secretary to the late Lord Salisbury, is grand master of the Freemasons of Scotland, and is married to a daughter of the third marquis of Exeter.

His principal home, and, indeed, the ancestral seat of the Hoziers, is Mauldslie castle, Lanarkshire, which was formerly a royal domain, and in 1325, on the occasion of the marriage of the son of King John Baliol to a niece of Philip of France, was assigned as part of the security for her dowry.

To readers of Sir Walter Scott Mauldslie castle and the surrounding country will be interesting, owing to its being portrayed by him in a particularly picturesque manner in "Old Mortality" as the scene of the struggle of the Covenanters and of the battle of Bothwell bridge. Built from designs of Adam, the castle is magnificently situated on the banks of the Clyde, which flows along Lord Newlands' park for several miles.

Like her future husband, Miss Clementine Hozier has a number of relatives in this country. In fact, she ought, strictly speaking, to be in mourning for the death last May of her American aunt, Mrs. Lyulph Ogilvy, in a hospital at Denver after an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. Ogilvy was the daughter of a Colorado ranchman of the name of Boothroyd and failed to meet with the approval of her husband's relatives in England.

Indeed, the Hon. Lyulph, who is a brother of Lady Blanche Hozier, and, like her, one of the children of the ninth Lord Ogilvy, quarreled with his relatives to such an extent about his wife that they broke off relations with him and stopped the allowance which he had until then been receiving. This, in conjunction with the failure of crops and bad luck with his cattle, rendered him unable to pay the interest on the mortgages with which his big ranch in Weld county, Colo., was incumbered. In consequence thereof foreclosure ensued, and Lyulph Ogilvy, with his wife and two children, were obliged to abandon their home and to migrate to Denver, where at the time of his wife's death last spring they were occupying a workingman's cottage, dependent entirely on his earnings of $15 a week as night watchman of the Union Pacific freight depot.

Yet Lyulph Ogilvy is a member of the Marlborough and of other of the smartest clubs in London, and has been decorated by King Edward with the Distinguished Service order for conspicuous gallantry in the South African war. Two lives—namely: those of his nephews, the present Lord Airlie, and the latter's younger brother, both boys under the age of 15—lie between him and the earldom of Airlie, along with the possession of grand old Cortachy castle, in Forfarshire, and valuable estates extending over an area of near 100,000 acres in England and Scotland.

Sir Edward Goschen's transfer to the post of British ambassador at Berlin in succession to Sir Frank Lascelles must be as agreeable to him as to Lady Goschen. For although he owns a charming château in the Tyrol, yet he has never been altogether comfortable at Vienna, where the great world shows itself wholly indifferent to foreign diplomats, unless the latter are possessed of ancient lineage and blue blood. Thus Sir Henry Elliot, a member of the old Scotch house of which the earl of Minto is the chief; Sir Francis Plunkett, a son of the ninth earl of Fingall; Sir Edmund Monson, a son of the sixth Lord Monson, as well as other British ambassadors whom I could mention, have all been members of the old British aristocracy and were welcomed as such at Vienna, whereas Sir Edward Goschen, although a most charming and accomplished man and an able diplomat, owes his title to knighthood, is the son of a banker, the grandson of a German publisher, and belongs to a family of Hebraic origin.

Consequently he has failed to find in Viennese society, which is the most exclusive in the world, that cordiality which was accorded to his predecessor, and which he had always been favored with in his previous posts, notably at Copenhagen.

It may safely be taken for granted that he will be succeeded at Vienna by some ambassador who will possess those qualifications of ancestry and blue blood in which he was considered to be deficient by the Austrian grand monde. Emperor William readily consented to his appointment to succeed Sir Frank Lascelles as ambassador at Berlin. For, as I have often mentioned in these letters, he is singularly free from all prejudices against the Jewish race, and, moreover, has known Sir Edward for a number of years.

In Germany Sir Edward will be welcomed as the grandson of Joachim Goschen, the earliest friend and publisher of the poet Schiller, all of whose works were issued to the world through Goschen until he was finally weaned away by the publisher Cotta of Tubingen. Joachim Goschen had even worse luck with Goethe, the first edition of whose collected works he published in 1787. In this instance, however, there was no such friendship in the relations of the author and publisher as there had been in the case of Schiller.

Goethe was an exceedingly close fisted business man and manifested such distrust of Goschen that he declined to part with his manuscript, excepting against hard cash, paid on the nail. The connection between the two was brought to a close when Goschen, justly dubious as to the scientific attainments of so great a poet, declined with thanks Goethe's "Metamorphoses of Plants." Afterwards Goschen published the works of Wieland and ultimately his publishing house was absorbed by the rival firm of Cotta, at Tubingen, his son, William Henry Goschen, proceeding to England and founding the great banking house of Fruhling & Goschen in the city of London in the year of the battle of Waterloo.

William Goschen had all his sons brought up as Englishmen at Rugby and at Oxford. His eldest son was the late Viscount Goschen, chancellor of the exchequer, first lord of the admiralty, and one of the leading statesmen of the Victorian reign. Another son, Charles Goschen, is the head of the banking house of Fruhling & Goschen and a director of the Bank of England. The youngest son is Sir Edward Goschen, the new British ambassador at Berlin, who played in the Rugby cricket eleven and football team and who is married to the wealthy daughter of the late Darius Clarke.

"BOB" EVANS DROPS HIS FLAG

Veteran Rear Admiral, 62 Years Old, Retires from Navy.

FRIENDS GIVE LOVING CUP.

Event Celebrated at Lake Mohonk with Speeches and Reception to Veteran.

Lake Mohonk, N. Y., Aug. 18.—Far from grim warships and the sea, where he spent nearly half a century in the service of his country, Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans of the United States navy, who is at this quiet mountain resort, reached the age limit of 62 years today and passed from the ranks of the country's active sea fighters.

His has been the longest service, but two years short of half a century, of any man who has reached the rank of rear admiral in the United States navy.

All through the day the hotel was thronged with admirers of "Fighting Bob," as his hosts of friends delight to call him, eager to congratulate him on the sixty-second birthday and to wish him many more happy and useful years. Telegrams by the score reached him from all parts of the country, all expressing felicitation and affection for the man who has done so much to build up the American navy. Many of the messages brought delighted smiles to the admiral's face, while others brought just a suspicion of moisture to his eyes. The telegram in particular which caused "Fighting Bob" many smiles came from an old friend in Washington and said:

Expects to Reach a Hundred.

"For some of us, Skipper, your flag will always fly."

In reply to a friend who asked the admiral how he felt on his sixty-second birthday, he replied characteristically:

"Fit as a fiddle. I am 62 years young today and I expect to reach 100. I am taking on flesh at the rate of half a pound a day, and I haven't got a thing to do but loaf. Who wouldn't get well under such circumstances?"

The admiral said he expected to stay here until October, when he will go to Washington to be associated with the general navy board in an advisory capacity. He added that he expected to do some work before he left here, having arranged with a magazine to write twelve articles on naval subjects.

Questioned in regard to the war talk between the two countries, the admiral said that there never would be any war unless the United States forced it upon Japan. He said the Japanese are a sensitive people and the greatest little fighters in the world, and it is not a wise policy to annoy them too much.

Big Navy Best Guarantee.

The admiral strongly asserted that the United States is in duty bound to maintain a large navy. He declared that he has always held that our best guarantee of perpetual peace is to be so strong that other nations will be afraid of us.

The formal celebration in honor of the admiral took place this evening in the large parlor of the Mountain hotel. Albert K. Smiley introduced as presiding officer of the ceremonies J. Edward Simmons of New York. When Admiral Evans was brought into the room in a wheel chair the audience applauded him vigorously, keeping it up until the admiral silently raised his hand as a request for silence.

Mr. Simmons then delivered a eulogy of the admiral and read letters from President Roosevelt, Dr. J. M. Taylor, president of Vassar college, and Rear Admiral Pillsbury.

Among others who sent letters regretting their inability to be present were Gov. Hughes, Paul Morton, former secretary of the navy, and Gen. Anson G. McCook. Each letter voiced the writer's high appreciation of the admiral and his services to his country.

Present Gold Loving Cup.

Dr. Andrew S. Draper of New York made the address of presentation of the loving cup, which was a gift to Admiral Evans from the guests of the hotel. The cup is of silver, gold lined, with three handles, and beautifully engraved.

Cheering and applause followed Admiral Evans' speech. Just at the close of the exercises a huge birthday cake, covered with sixty-two lighted candles, was brought into the room. This gift seemed to please the admiral more than any other part of the ceremonies of the evening.

UNION GIRLS OF CHICAGO CALLED TO A CONFERENCE.

Rally Held in Connection with "One Convention in Three Cities" Will Hear Eight Hour Chorus.

Plans for a "rally" of all trades union girls in Chicago were made last night at a meeting of the rally committee of the Women's Trade Union league. The rally will be held at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium on Saturday evening, Sept. 26, in connection with the league's general conference, which will be held simultaneously in Chicago, New York, and Boston.

A feature of the meeting will be the singing of labor songs by the "eight hour chorus" of the league, the conference furnishing the chorus with its first opportunity to sing in public. The chorus has been trained under the direction of Miss Mary Sprague. The sessions of the conference, which will be presided over by Mrs. Raymond Robins, national president, will be held at the Garrick theater.

At least 500 women will take part in the Labor day parade, according to returns received by Secretary Emma Steghagen of the league. The women will ride in carriages and covered wagonets.

PRAISES HONEST LAND AGENT.

Deserves Credit for Building Up Waste Places, Says Secretary of Homeseekers' Association.

At a meeting of the Homeseekers' association last night in First Methodist church George Girling, secretary, delivered an address on "Land Frauds." Land agents of the present day were no worse than other classes of business men, he said, and honest land agents deserved credit for going into the waste places and building them up.

Mr. Girling said the object of the association was to get the people away from the congested city districts back to the land where they would be better off. He said millions of acres of land are at their disposal.

Dr. E. H. Maxon spoke on "Coöperation," setting forth the advantages of that system, and telling his audience that the association was ready to aid persons who could form an organization and settle on a location.

TRAIN PASSENGERS PROTECTED

Railway Officials Decide to Force Rigid Physical Examination of All Operating Employes.

Paulsmiths, N. Y., Aug. 18.—A protective measure of far reaching importance was adopted by a conference of railroad officials. The measure makes it compulsory for all railroad employés engaged in the operation of trains on the New York Central lines to undergo a physical examination, and to have their eyes tested. This ruling affects the men in the service today, as well as those who may be candidates for positions.

EVA BOOTH GOES TO HER HOME.

Commander of Salvation Army in the United States Recovers from the Effects of Hot Weather.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 18.—The condition of Miss Eva Booth, commander of the Salvation Army of the United States, who was overcome by the heat at Winona lake following her address last night, was improved today. The patient, in charge of friends, started for New York.

FEAR FOR MOUNTAIN CLIMBER

No Word of Annie S. Peck After Her Ascent of Peruvian Peak.

SURROUNDED BY CREVASSES.

Famous Woman Traveler May Be Lost in Snows at 25,000 Feet Altitude.

LIMA, Peru, Aug. 18.—Alarm is felt here for the safety of Miss Annie S. Peck of Providence, R. I., the noted mountain climber, who Friday afternoon signaled her arrival at an altitude of 25,000 feet on Mount Huascaran, the summit of which is covered with perpetual snow.

Since that time no word has been had from Miss Peck, or the two Alpine climbers who accompanied her.

Miss Peck's feat in reaching an altitude higher than that attained by any other woman or man in the world was learned here with astonishment and admiration, and her return from the mountain was eagerly looked forward to.

Her failure to return, or communicate in any way, since Friday soon caused grave anxiety, and various expeditions were organized and have started to her assistance.

HOLDS MOUNTAIN RECORDS.

Miss Peck is the most famous of women mountain climbers in America. She has an unequaled record for conquering the heights of the world and has journeyed to the summits of mountains that have daunted the courage of many a man.

Her present trip was her third attempt to scale the snow and ice covered summit of Mount Huascaran. In 1904 she ascended the mountain to an altitude of 21,000 feet, where she was stopped by impassable crevasses and deep snow. In 1906 Miss Peck spent six months in the Peruvian Andes and made two partially successful trips up the mountain.

Climbed the Matterhorn.

Miss Peck climbed the Matterhorn in the Swiss Alps during one of her first experiences at scaling lofty peaks. Since then she established a record for the ascent of Mount Sorata, 21,000 feet, in Bolivia, attaining a point within 600 or 800 feet of the summit, a feat never accomplished by any man.

Other mountains this adventurous woman has climbed are Orizaba, Mexico, 18,600 feet; Shasta, California, 14,440 feet; and Popocatapetl, Mexico, 17,800 feet. She also established a record for the ascent of the Presidents, in the White mountains, all in one day.

In writing of her ascent of the Matterhorn Miss Peck once speculated on the risks she ran.

"I wonder," she said, "if I am destined to meet an untimely end, if I shall slip or if a falling stone shall hit me on the head, or, still worse, if one of my guides shall fall and drag me down."

Miss Peck, a graduate of the University of Michigan, was at one time professor of Greek at Smith college and a lecturer at the American School of Archæology at Athens.

VENEZUELA REFUSES FRANCE REPRESENTATION AT CAPITAL.

Castro Declines to Permit Brazil to Act as Agent Because Friendly Relations Might Suffer.

CARACAS, Aug. 17, via Willemstad, Aug. 18.—A sensation has been caused in diplomatic circles by the refusal of President Castro to permit the Brazilian minister to take charge of French interests in Venezuela, although Dr. José Paul, the Venezuelan minister of foreign affairs, originally agreed to this arrangement.

As a consequence of the attitude of President Castro the foreign minister has indited a second note to the effect that the government now refuses to accede to this arrangement because the dispute between Venezuela and France bears a close relation to Venezuela's dispute with the United States and the proposed arrangement would therefore endanger the continuance of friendly relations with Brazil.

The French interests necessarily are being neglected and many monthly installments due to French claimants are still uncollected. It is unlikely, in view of the present state of affairs, that President Castro will permit the representative of any of the foreign countries to take the French interests in hand.

HEALTH OF RUSSIAN EMPRESS CAUSE OF RENEWED ANXIETY.

Recurrence of Hysteria, Mental Depression, and Other Symptoms Arouses More Apprehension in Court Circles.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 18.—The health of the empress is again arousing anxiety at the Russian court. She appeared to be greatly benefited by the cruise in the Finnish archipelago, but since her return there has been a recurrence of hysteria, general weakness, preventing her from walking and sometimes even from standing. It is said also that she is mentally depressed.

The empress was unable to attend the dinner and reception given in honor of Emperor Francis Joseph's birthday by Emperor Nicholas tonight at the imperial pavilion at Krasnoye-Selo, where the guard maneuvers are being held.

The anniversary of the birthday of the Austrian emperor was celebrated impressively in St. Petersburg, where Francis Joseph is popular because of his age and the friendship he has shown to Russia.

SEVENTY WORKERS BURIED IN RUINED ENGLISH MINE.

Little Hope of Rescue Held Because of Breaking of the Ventilating Apparatus.

WIGAN, England, Aug. 18.—Seventy miners were entombed as the result of an explosion today in the Maypole mine. The ventilating apparatus of the mine was destroyed. It is feared many have been killed.

Only small hope is entertained of saving the entombed miners. Temporary repairs to the machinery enabled rescue parties to descend into the adjacent workings, only to find their way blocked by wreckage and gases. Three dead miners were found and one terribly mutilated but still alive.

A number of the rescuers were overcome by the fumes and brought to the surface unconscious.

POET UPSON DROWNS HIMSELF.

Talented Minneapolis Author Is Found Dead in Lake Bemidji, Resort in Minnesota.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 18.—[Special.]—Arthur W. Upson, an author and former professor of English at the University of Minnesota, committed suicide by drowning himself in Lake Bemidji, Minn. Upson was but 31 years of age and unmarried. He had published several books of poems and had distinguished himself in the literary field. Among his works are "The Sign of the Harp," "Octaves in an Oxford Garden," "The City," and other poems. The young man was a graduate of the state university and had spent some time at Oxford. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Beta Theta Pi fraternities.

Seeks Damages from Hotel.

Suit was brought in the Circuit court yesterday by William H. Orr against the Saratoga European Hotel company for $25,000 damages. J. K. Sebree, president of the company, said he did not know why the suit was brought unless it was because Orr was put out of the hotel two years ago for being disorderly.

Disease Germs in Farm Wells Contaminate City's Milk Supply.

TESTS REVEAL THE BACILLI.

Health Department Orders an Inspection to Check the Evil.

What is believed to be the real cause of the tainted milk problem which has confronted the Chicago health department for years and has caused thousands of deaths, has been found by investigators for the department.

After weeks of search, many of the country wells in the territory from which the city's milk supply is drawn have been found to be swarming with typhoid germs. As a result Dr. J. F. Biehn, head of the city laboratories, has ordered an inspection of all wells in northern Illinois and Indiana and southern Wisconsin. If the well of a farmer who is known to be shipping milk to Chicago is found tainted, the farmer will be ordered to make other arrangements for his water supply. Should he fail in this, the first shipment of milk made, after a given time, to the city will be sent back and all subsequent shipments will be poured into the gutter until evidence is forthcoming that his well is "safe."

Pollution Shown by Tests.

Tests of samples from 369 wells were completed and tabulated yesterday by Dr. Biehn. Of this number, eighty-one "passed" the examination. In 102 other samples there was a high bacterial count, and chemical evidences of pollution. Colon bacilli were found in 186, showing that the wells from which they were taken were contaminated by sewage.

It is not insinuated that this water is used to adulterate the milk, that phase of the situation being well in hand. It is used, generally, for washing the milk cans. An insignificant number of germs when they get into milk multiply with great rapidity and when the milk can reaches town its contents are thoroughly contaminated. Although milk dealers have coöperated with the city in eliminating so far as possible all impure milk, it is believed that the real preventive measures have not been taken until now.

Poison in "Old Oaken Bucket."

Of all the wells, the surface well, with its corollary, the "old oaken bucket," is the worst, according to Dr. Biehn. Some of these wells in old homesteads are swarming with typhoid germs. The only reason the farmers do not die from using the water, according to Dr. Biehn, is that they and their fathers, and perhaps even more remote ancestors have become immune to the germs.

"More than three wells out of five are bad," said Dr. Biehn. "Contrary to belief, all the springs we found were bad. Cowyards, ground water, and defective well casings are among the principal causes of pollution, in the order named.

WOMEN TANGLE UP L SERVICE WHEN THEY ENTER 'SMOKERS'

City Traction Expert Hereley Finds One of the Causes for the Delays on the Loop.

Why does a woman go into the smoking car?

City Traction Expert Millard B. Hereley, who has been trying for months to find a way to reduce the running time of elevated trains, took up this problem yesterday in hopes of cutting off some valuable minutes from schedules now in vogue. Mr. Hereley made it plain, however, that he is not particularly interested in the psychology of womankind, and admitted that he had no hopes of finding out why, in general, they will or will not do things that they ought to do.

"I would not, for instance, venture to inquire why a woman gets off a car backward," he said. "This is a different proposition, because, perhaps, it can be prevented.

How Women Delay Traffic.

"It has been reported to me that by running the smoking cars of the south side elevated road on the front end of the trains an increased number of women make a rush for them, and get tangled up, delaying traffic. Observers have reported that the women always try to line up near the front of the train, perhaps on the theory that there is more room in the forward cars. Since the smoking cars have been placed at the front of the trains, they have not seen fit to change this practice and a fair percentage of them rush into the smoker, although it is plainly labeled on the front and side. Then they back out, delaying the line of men who are trying to get in.

"In the meantime, the gates of the rear cars are idle, the entire crowd being occupied with getting in at the front end.

"If this crowd can be distributed by putting the smoker at the rear, I believe the officials of the road will be glad to make the change. In a few days, I expect to have this well in hand; I am only starting on it now."

Seats at Loop Stations.

Seats for patrons of the elevated roads who use the loop stations will be installed, beginning at 10 o'clock today, according to Mr. Hereley.

"I took the question up with F. J. Guernsey, manager of the loop," he said, "and Mr. Guernsey agreed to install the seats at once. He also assured me that the rubbish and structural supplies now piled at the Adams street station will be removed, and offered to coöperate in any way which will increase the efficiency of the service."

Mr. Hereley said that only about half of the accidents which occur on the street railways are reported to the authorities, and urged the enactment of a state law providing that public service corporations be required to report to municipalities all accidents.

MRS. ROE'S CONDITION SERIOUS

Assistant State's Attorney's Mother May Not Survive Injuries Sustained in Elgin Auto Accident.

Mrs. Henrietta Roe, mother of Assistant State's Attorney Clifford G. Roe, 5700 Drexel avenue, Chicago, who was run over by an automobile driven by Mr. O. A. Chappell in Elgin Monday evening, is in a critical condition in Sherman hospital, Elgin.

Informed when she called at the hospital to see the victim of her car that Mrs. Roe might not recover, Mrs. Chappell, who is the wife of a wealthy physician, became hysterical and had to be taken from the hospital by her husband and friends. She insists that she had the machine under control and that Mrs. Roe stepped directly in front of it, giving her no time to avoid the accident. Assistant State's Attorney Roe says the accident was unavoidable.

He had taken his mother to Elgin to spend two months at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. L. Black, intending to go out each night himself. They had just arrived in Elgin on a train from Chicago and were walking to the home of Mrs. Black when Mrs. Roe was run down by the automobile. Mr. Roe had turned to pick up a suit case and was powerless to aid his mother. All of the wheels passed over her.

TRACKS TO CROSS BOULEVARD.

West Park Board Grants Chicago and Illinois Western Permission to Build Elevated Structure.

An ordinance granting permission to the Chicago and Illinois Western railroad for maintaining an elevated double track over Marshall boulevard, at Thirty-first street, was acted upon favorably by the west park commissioners at their meeting yesterday afternoon at Union park.

The railroad company is given the right to operate cars over the tracks for fifty years in consideration of $15,000 to be paid the park commissioners.

Eighty-one bids for the purchase of vacant houses on the proposed site of small park No. 2, at Fourteenth and Union streets, have been received by the park board.

CHOIR BOYS ASK SPECIAL HEARING.

Attorney for St. Peter's Dismissed Singers Wants Court to Name Investigators.

IGNORED BY THE VESTRY.

Employers Discharge One of the Rev. Mr. Griffin's Accusers from His Position.

Demand that a committee be appointed by a judge of the Circuit, Superior, or Municipal courts to investigate charges brought by choir boys against the Rev. Alfred W. Griffin, rector of St. Peter's church, was made yesterday by Attorney Louis A. Helle in a letter to the church vestry.

Attorney Helle represents Walter Anderson, George Nicholas, Robert Powell, and T. W. Parsche, whom the vestry order dismissed from the choir after the charges against the rector had been made.

Powell, who was employed in a department store, on recommendation of Senior Warden W. J. Bryson, lost his position yesterday because of his connection with the scandal, he says.

Eleven reasons for reopening the case and for its hearing before a separate tribunal instead of the vestry are given in the letter. Charges made by Mr. Bryson that the whole affair was a plot are referred to, with the request that if the vestry wishes to take the case before the grand jury for an investigation of the alleged conspiracy it do so at once.

Claims to Have Evidence.

After outlining the history of the case as far as it has gone, Attorney Helle's letter says:

"I have in my possession evidence corroborating the original charges, and I now demand a full, fair, and impartial investigation, not only into the subject matter of the charges but also into the matter of the alleged conspiracy. But in view of the fact that my clients believe that you are so prejudiced against them that you are incapable of giving them a fair and impartial hearing, I believe that in justice to you and to them the matter should not be again passed upon by your body. I therefore offer the following suggestions:

"That any judge of the Circuit, Superior, or municipal court, mutually satisfactory to one of your members, appointed for that purpose, and to myself, appoint a committee of twelve disinterested men to hear all of the evidence in the matter and to make a majority and minority report to your body, the substance of the majority report to be made public; the parties concerned to be represented by an attorney of their own selection, the evidence taken in shorthand and a copy thereof to be delivered to you and one to be retained by me."

Why Clients Mistrust Vestry.

Some of the reasons given by Mr. Helle why his clients hesitate to submit their cause and their evidence to the vestry are:

"The resolution referred to was unanimously carried without any of the persons concerned, except Mr. Griffin, being afforded an opportunity of being heard in their own behalf.

"They have been openly characterized as liars, devils, and conspirators by members of your body.

"That the charges were passed upon, adjudged false, and the persons named in the resolution ordered disgraced, without the pretense of an investigation into the truth or falsity of the accusations, and no effort whatever made to ascertain whether or not additional evidence was obtainable.

"That they have been threatened with arrest, indictment, and criminal prosecution for conspiracy.

"That in spite of the fact that all of the additional evidence has been submitted by me to Members Chadwick, Thompson, Gregory, and Cornish, no action has been taken by your body to reopen the matter for further hearing."

Mr. Bryson, to whom the letter was sent, as senior warden and head of the vestry, said last night that it would be ignored by him and that no meeting of the vestry was called for last night, or would be called, to consider it. He said nothing will be done with the case until it comes before Bishop Anderson, who is out of the city. He asserted that the Rev. Mr. Griffin is not in Chicago.

LARGE INCREASE IN TAXES OF CHICAGO CITY RAILWAY.

Personal property valuation of the Chicago City Railway company was boosted $552,000 over last year's valuation by the board of review at its hearing yesterday. The present assessment of the company is fixed at $10,402,457, a figure arrived at after much explanation on the part of the company's attorneys.

The assessors' valuation of the property was $19,000,000, based upon a report of Bion J. Arnold that the company's properties are worth $21,000,000 all told. From this amount counsel for the company claimed reductions of $3,754,363 on franchise, $4,317,530 on land and buildings, and $1,525,650 on other properties, or a total reduction of $9,597,543.

These holdings, they said, were included in the real estate assessment of the properties. The board will begin holding night sessions this evening.

Plan for Campfire.

The Lake county soldiers and sailors' annual reunion and campfire will be held Thursday and Friday at Wauconda. The principal address will be made on Friday by Bishop Samuel Fallows.

IN THE SOCIETY WORLD.

Mrs. Potter Palmer and her party, including the members of her immediate family and Mrs. Edward Breitung of Marquette, Mich., returned on Sunday from the Sosawagaming club on Lake Superior, where they spent ten days. Within a day or two Mrs. Palmer plans to leave the city for a short trip and will not return again before sailing for Europe.

On Monday evening she attended the opening of the play, "The Servant in the House," the other members of the party including Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Aldis, Mr. H. H. Kohlsaat, and Judge Grosscup. Yesterday morning Mrs. Palmer divided her time between transacting business matters in the office of the Palmer estate in company with her brother, Mr. Adrian C. Honoré, and in shopping.

Mrs. Palmer is familiar to most Chicagoans and in the State street stores she attracted much quiet attention from the shoppers. She was wearing a natty street suit of Copenhagen blue broadcloth, the skirt short and plain, and the coat of three-quarters length, cut with the long, loose directoire lines. Trimming of a Persian pattern, a blue straw hat to match the gown, and a white blouse completed her costume. She has opened her town house at 100 Lake Shore drive for her short stay, but spent little of yesterday at home, driving in the afternoon.

The marriage of Miss Mary Adele Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurin H. Turner, 4915 Washington avenue, and Mr. Charles D. W. Halsey of New York will take place at the Turner home on Wednesday, Oct. 14.

Thursday, Oct. 22, has been chosen as the date for the marriage of Miss Jean Graham Troxel, daughter of Maj. and Mrs. Thomas G. Troxel of Highland Park, and Capt. Dwight W. Ryther of the Sixth infantry, U. S. A., now stationed at Fort Harrison, Mont.

Senator and Mrs. Albert J. Beveridge (Catherine Eddy) have the Gen. A. P. Rockwell cottage at Smith Point, Manchester, Mass., this summer and the swimmers of the resort have found a worthy competitor in the senator from Indiana. A few days ago he beat the record in long distance swimming, starting from the southern end of Singing beach and swimming to the raft, a distance of nearly half a mile, and this against a head wind and rough sea. He rarely fails to take a daily dip in the surf.

Mrs. Wirt Dexter of Boston, formerly of Chicago, has bought the house at 391 Commonwealth avenue, Boston, formerly owned and occupied by the late Mrs. John F. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Raymond Jenkins, 5463 Washington avenue, have gone to Yellowstone Park.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Parrier Horan of Philadelphia, the latter formerly Miss Kenneth O'Donnell, who were married in Vienna, Austria, last April, are visiting Dr. and Mrs. Will Walter, 1507 Hinman avenue, Evanston. Mr. and Mrs. James O'Donnell and Miss Kathleen O'Donnell, who have many friends in Chicago, although their home is in Jackson, Mich., are now at the Carlton, London, after having spent the winter in continental Europe.

Mrs. John D. Sherman has been spending the summer at Estes Park, Colo., where she took a cottage for the season. Mrs. Sherman is spending a portion of the time getting club matters over which she has control in readiness for the coming year's work, having been chosen second vice president of the National Federation of Women's Clubs at the recent Boston biennial.

The Misses Charlotte and Ancinette Gardiner of Evanston, who have been traveling with friends in Europe since the early summer, are expected to return the latter part of this month.

Mrs. Secor Cunningham and her children are expected home from Europe about the middle of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Gifford and son, Brooks, of 4908 Kimbark avenue are at Swampscott, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Niblack and Mr. and Mrs. James Ward Thorne (Narcissa Niblack), who were called to Indianapolis by the death of Mrs. W. E. Niblack, have returned home.

Mrs. George W. Duback, 139 Lincoln Park boulevard, left Sunday for the east and will spend the remainder of the summer at Marblehead, Mass.

Mrs. Albert Lowenstein and daughter, Miss Jeanette of Ardmore, Okla., are the guests of the Misses Klein, 4911 Calumet avenue.

Mrs. J. H. Mitchell, 5413 Cornell avenue, has left for a trip to the Massachusetts coast resorts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hadley and their two sons of 5222 Woodlawn avenue have returned to the city after having spent several weeks at Mackinac island.

Mrs. M. E. Ensign announces the engagement of her niece, Miss Edna Frances Anderson and Mr. George Lytrelle Sites Jr. The wedding will take place Sept. 1.

Mrs. Lydia J. Schwall, 1423 Benson avenue, Evanston, announces the engagement of her daughter, Martha Marion, and Mr. C. Miles McDonald of Oak Park. The wedding will take place early in the fall.

Mrs. Amos G. Allen, 5717 Madison avenue, has issued cards for a luncheon to be given on Wednesday, Aug. 26, for Miss Meise Vanderkloot, daughter of Mrs. Marinus Vanderkloot of Wilmette, who will be married on Sept. 16 to Albert Ebeling Shutz.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Carpenter gave a young people's dinner at the Hotel Moraine last night for their daughter, Miss Beatrice Carpenter. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter and Miss Carpenter will leave on Saturdaay for a short visit to Harbor Point, Mich., returning to New York on Sept. 7.

Mothers are interested in the contest for the prettiest babies of Du Page county which is to take place at the Wheaton county fair Aug. 25 to 29. The entry list is growing daily, and the committee in charge is busy. Twins, triplets, and quadruplets are among the entries, and as each mother will be sure her own little one is the prettiest, smartest, cutest, etc., the judges no doubt will have the task of their lives. The fair management has decided that the Gentility Derby, in which both men and women are to contest, shall be run on the opening day.

MEET TO DECIDE WALSH LINE PLAN

Conference Today Expected to Determine Question of Receivership for Railroads.

OWNER'S STAND UNKNOWN

Indiana Road Owes Two Months' Pay Roll, but Illinois Company Is Making Money.

The fate of the John R. Walsh railroad receiverships probably will be decided this afternoon at a conference between members of the Chicago Clearing House association and attorneys for the Hodenpyl-Fernald Bondholders' Protective association.

Opportunity will be given Mr. Walsh to choose between a friendly receivership, such as these bondholders have suggested, and one which might not be so favorable to his interests as to those of the eastern creditors of the road.

While nobody connected with the proposed transaction would discuss the situation yesterday, it became known that one or the other of these receiverships probably would be forced upon the roads within a few days.

Friction Among the Reorganizers.

Tentative plans for the reorganization of the roads, it was announced, have been under way for some time. These plans have gone so far as the appointment of various committees for the purposes of investigation and management of the details of this work. The work has not gone on absolutely without friction, however. This was indicated by the withdrawal of at least one member of these committees. Galen L. Stone of Hayden, Stone & Co. of Boston, according to an eastern dispatch last evening, had refused to act upon a committee appointed to reorganize the Southern Indiana railroad.

Mr. Stone's reason, as given by him, is that neither he nor his firm is interested in the property either directly or indirectly. He also said he had not been consulted before his name was used. According to the same dispatch other members of the committee were not consulted before they were announced as working for the reorganization.

Walsh's Plans Not Known.

Just what Mr. Walsh's stand will be has not been indicated either by him or his advisers. Unless strong pressure is brought to bear upon him it is believed he will refuse to consent to even what is called a "friendly" receivership.

A tight financial market, however, is declared to have been severely felt by the roads. At Terre Haute it was announced that two months' wages all over the Southern Indiana system were due. This big pay roll must be met today. This fact may be a factor influencing Mr. Walsh's actions.

Walsh's Illinois Southern now is declared to be on a sound paying basis, tapping, as it does, the rich coal fields of the southern extremity of the state. During the asylum investigation it was discovered by curious legislators that the road traversed a considerable section of property belonging to the southern Illinois penitentiary at Chester.

BLAMES CUPID FOR FORGERY.

Man Arrested for Trying to Cash Bogus Check Says He Needed Money for Approaching Wedding.

Frank Kelley, 29 years old, who lives at 4238 Princeton avenue, was captured yesterday after he had forged the signature of E. A. Barker of Melrose Park to a check for $50 which he tried to get cashed at the Oak Park Trust and Savings bank.

After being taken to the Oak Park police station Kelley confessed the forgery. He said he was out of work and money and was engaged to be married on Sept. 1. He broke into the office of Barker, a contractor, for whom he formerly had worked, and stole the check book. His lack of funds for the approaching marriage, he said, was the sole cause of the affair.

He will have a preliminary hearing today in Justice Kendall's court.

TIME OF DEATH SUIT'S ISSUE

Disposition of Percival Raisbeck Estate Depends on It.

SON OR STATE BENEFITS.

Question in Case Is: "Did Husband or the Wife Die First?"

Who died first? Was it the husband or the wife?

Upon the decision of the question will depend whether Percival Raisbeck or the state of Illinois will become beneficiary to an estate consisting of valuable lands in Chicago, New York, and New Jersey, as well as thousands of dollars in life and accident insurance companies.

About three weeks ago the bodies of George Raisbeck and his wife were found floating in Lake Sylvia, near Annandale, Minn. Mr. Raisbeck was the president of the Philip Lake Manufacturing company of New York and also was well known in Chicago, which was his place of residence. He had a summer cottage at the lake and every July would go there with his wife.

Mrs. Raisbeck was the second wife, having married her husband sixteen years ago, soon after his first wife had procured a divorce in New York.

Son Is Sole Survivor.

By his first marriage Raisbeck had only one son, Percival, who is the sole survivor.

Mr. Raisbeck, who had been well known as a man of affairs, arranged five years ago for the distribution of his estate after his death. He also had his wife make a will simultaneously. The wills were what the law terms "mutual reciprocal wills" and Raisbeck devised everything to his wife, appointing her sole executrix, while Mrs. Raisbeck bequeathed all to her husband and appointed him her executor.

Raisbeck's will was filed for probate yesterday by Lawyer Herman Frank of 100 Washington street and with it a petition in behalf of Percival Raisbeck asking that he be appointed executor of his father's estate, claiming to be his only heir.

Says Wife Died First.

Lawyer Frank said the case was a novel one as applied to the courts of Illinois, and resembles in every particular the celebrated case of the Fairs of California who were killed in an automobile accident while touring in Paris. Mr. Frank said he had proofs, however, that Mrs. Raisbeck was the first to die.

If it should be found that Mr. Raisbeck was the first to die, the son would lose the entire estate, and since there are no other heirs of either of the deceased, then the state of Illinois would be the beneficiary, as all the property would escheat.

BUSTER BROWN GETS NEW NAME

Attorney William H. Paulsen and His Wife Petition for a Decree of Adoption.

Little "Mickey" Clarence Crump—"Buster Brown"—will become John Buster Paulsen today when Judge Charles H. Walker signs a decree of adoption petitioned for yesterday by Attorney William H. Paulsen and his wife, Anna H. Paulsen. Mr. Paulsen has filed the written consent of the boy's parents to the adoption.

For the last few days the boy has been in the care of Mr. and Mrs. Paulsen. He was well satisfied with the treatment accorded him.

In the petition the court is asked to change the boy's name to John Buster Paulsen, in commemoration of his late experience while in the hands of the police after having been deserted.

Contest Sets Good Example.

Charles L. Hutchinson, president of the Art institute, one of the directors of the south park system, and a director of the Horticultural Society of Chicago, presided at the Fullerton hall meeting, and, before he announced the names of the prize winners, there were addresses by a number of speakers who are interested in the movement to enhance the artistic beauty of this city. All of them commended THE TRIBUNE warmly for it enterprise, and said the example would be far reaching—that the prize winning gardens would be a stimulus to the ambitions of hundreds of others.

The keynote of most of the speeches was the importance of individual effort in beautifying the city as a necessary preliminary to collective endeavor.

"The culture of flowers," said Mr. Hutchinson, in opening the meeting, "is not only a pleasure to the individual, but benefits all those who are about us. It is impossible to estimate the enjoyment and inspiration that comes from the cultivation of flowers. Nothing is more eloquent. They can speak when we are weary. They are a comfort to the sick, a solace in the shadow of death, no occasion of festivity is complete without them.

"Nothing gives such universal pleasure. Nothing is so democratic and at the same time so aristocratic. They are always suitable as a gift.

"I wish to heartily approve and commend the efforts of THE TRIBUNE which in this enterprise has rendered another great service to the community."

Good Old Days Returning.

F. W. Shephardson, speaking in behalf of THE TRIBUNE, expressed regret that Medill McCormick's absence from the city made it impossible for him to be present, and his appreciation over the coöperation of those present who had helped to make the garden contest so successful. He said there were indications that the good old days when Chicago really was a "garden city" were coming back, and emphasized the importance of individual effort.

"I wish," said Mr. Shepardson, "that every one here could have a prize, but I am sure that you all feel satisfied as individuals that you have bettered yourselves, your neighborhood, and the community by your efforts."

He Says "Live in Gardens."

Jens Jensen, superintendent of the west park system, emphasized the need of harmony in gardens.

"We must not be satisfied," said he, "to sit upon our porches and regard our gardens in a critical way, but should sit among the flowers, look upon them, love them, take your friends among them, take your coffee and tea there, and, in short, make of your garden a social retreat."

He advised against the planting of too many trees in a garden where there already was much shade and emphasized the good effects that could be obtained from the use of vines, giving those present a number of useful hints.

Mrs. Frederick K. Tracy of the Chicago Woman's Art league told the audience that the motto of that institution was "Leave the world more beautiful than you found it."

"Let us each make the most of our opportunities," said she. "One reason why THE TRIBUNE contest was so successful was every one helped."

In concluding Mrs. Tracy advised a campaign that would teach the public to avoid cutting across lots and hoped that all those who had seen the newly painted schoolhouses and thought the color too bright would write to the board of education about it.

Individual Work Important.

Edward C. Wentworth, president of the League of Improvement Associations of Cook county, told what was being done in the way of collective effort.

"It is such enthusiastic individual work as you have put in these gardens," said Mr. Wentworth, "that has made collective work a success.

"There is no known preventive of crime equal to a well developed park system, and if this is true in general, how much more true it must be along the lines of individual effort in gardening and the improvement of back yards and lawns.

"It really is a wonderful thing that one newspaper should have inspired a contest in which 400 gardens spread over the city in every direction were represented. The influence of children especially will be far-reaching.

May THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE be not weary. Its torch is the light which shows the way to civic virtue."

Eat Your Own Vegetables.

John Thorpe, who closed the speaking, talked upon "practical gardening," particularly in the cultivation of vegetables. When he told of the pleasures of going into your garden and gathering radishes, lettuce, and other table delicacies, which he said was a thousandfold greater than if you had been given the vegetables at some store, he was greeted with applause.

The prize winners, all but two or three of whom were present, came forward at the conclusion of the meeting and received their checks from a representative of THE TRIBUNE.

W. E. Knudson Wins $225.

First among all the gardens in Chicago, the judges concluded, and the one entitled to the sweepstake prize of $150 offered by the Pulverized Manure company, was that exhibited by W. E. Knudson at 576 Sacramento boulevard.

In addition to the sweepstakes prize, Mr. Knudson's garden was awarded, of course, the first prize in this district, so his garden won him $225, a sum well worth the many hours that he and his son Frank and other members of the family expended upon it. Mr. Knudson is employed in a large millinery house, and his son is an upholsterer. They are Norwegians.

Much artistic taste is displayed in this garden, which occupies a space 30x40 feet. It is planted in a systematic way, every foot of space being occupied to the best advantage without being overcrowded, and there probably isn't another garden in the city where the members of the family derive more pleasure from spending their time in it, under the trees. Shrubs fringe the well kept lawn, and perennial flowers are grown in front of the shrubbery. There is a weeping mulberry tree against the house, and two white birches in the rear of the garden space. A mountain ash screens the rear from the front. Hop vines have been trained artistically over the fences and climbing roses cover the porch.

Arranged Artistically.

On one side of the yard is a bed of perennial flowers. On the other side there is a border of cannas and petunias, and against the rear of the house is a bed of castor beans.

There is a small vegetable garden, covering not more than a space of 10x10, in the rear, being separated from the flowers in an orderly way, as were most of the other gardens visited by the judges where vegetables were grown. Radishes, lettuce, and other vegetables were growing in profusion in the garden when the judges called. The remainder of the space was given up to a splendid lawn, which even during the severe drought always appeared fresh and green.

The special merits of the garden were that the area had been utilized to the best advantage, and it was a garden to rest in and to enjoy. Nothing was overdone. Everything was well balanced. There was simplicity and a definite plan. Many of the gardens the judges visited were overdone.

"We spend all our time during the summer in the garden," Mr. Knudson said. "We consider it just as much a part of our house as the living room or the kitchen, although, of course, it is a great deal pleasanter during the summer. We all take a hand at pulling weeds. We have had all the vegetables we needed, and we have furnished the neighbors and distant friends with I don't know how many bouquets, and always have flowers on our table."

Porch Display Award.

The sweepstake prize for the best window box, or porch display, was awarded to Mrs. Mat. Ovington, 1292 Sheffield avenue, both on account of its merit and its situation on the rear porch of a top flat. Flower boxes were displayed all around the railing of the veranda, which was no roomier than the ordinary flat porch, and also on the railing of the first landing.

The boxes were filled with geraniums, petunias, and English ivy, which drooped over the railing of the porch in graceful fashion. From the boxes morning glories climb to the ceiling of the porch, and so close together as to form an impenetrable screen that shuts out the sun. In addition to the flower boxes there are hanging baskets containing ferns and English ivy, and flower pots in brackets extending from the walls. Altogether, it was the most interesting bower on a porch that the judges visited.

The Ovingtons were awarded the $50 general prize by the Pulverized Manure company, and $25 additional by THE TRIBUNE.

Woman Stenographer a Winner.

Miss E. Schultz, a stenographer, who says her health has been in perfect condition in consequence of her labors this year in her garden at 611 West Melrose street, was awarded first prize by THE TRIBUNE for the best garden in the large first district, a district containing more exquisite gardens than any of the five divisions in the city. This was one of several gardens that were favorably considered by the judges for sweepstakes. It is one of the most picturesque gardens, and has as much if not more individuality than any other in the city. Miss Schultz and her mother, a widow, deserve perhaps more credit than many other gardeners, for they not only planted and cultivated it without the aid of any men folks, but all the trees and shrubbery they brought with infinite labor from the woods to the north and west.

There are three Carolina poplars of good size, which give plenty of shade for many an hour's repose. There are lilies, common and Persian; golden bells, dogwoods, elders, wild cherries, and hydrangeas.

Hollyhocks are planted along the front of the cottage, with morning glories and moon flower vines, and larkspur, and lower growing perennials immediately between the hollyhocks and coreopsis, while in front of the latter are growing sweet alyssums, making a pleasing border for the bed. There are gladiolus and poppies, a beautiful specimen of poppy of the California variety with golden yellow petals. Gailliardeas are plentiful, and so are sunflowers.

The garden has eighteen inch walks made of crushed stone, and a teahouse of trellis work made in the shape of a wigwam and covered with wild cucumber vines.

Changes Barren Spot.

You should see the garden at 3118 Vernon avenue, which took the first prize in the second district, and which was entered by Mrs. Mabel A. Burnett, but to obtain an exact appreciation of what was accomplished there under adverse conditions you should have seen the same place a year ago, for then it was a neglected back yard, with ashes and sand and débris of all sorts covering it. The young married couple who occupy the premises cleaned the yard until there wasn't a vestige of disorder. Then they covered the surface with black soil and began their work of beautification. The fence has been covered with morning glories and wild cucumber vines, perennial flowers compose the borders on the sides of the yard, and sunflowers form a pretty background for the rear fence.

Garden Surprises Judges.

One of the surprises encountered by the judges was the garden of James Doyle at 4153 La Salle street, which was awarded first prize in the fourth district. It is alongside a railroad track, where smoke from the locomotives, one would think, would soon destroy its green and varicolored loveliness. A coal yard is on one side and a rubbish heap on the other.

Dust a couple of inches deep covered the road the day the garden was visited, but in the rear of the premises of Mr. Doyle, who is a machinist, everything was cool, green, and inviting. It was an oasis in a desert of smoke, grime, screaming locomotives, bawling teamsters, and coal dirt.

One side of the garden is screened from the coal yard by vines, which cover a fence twenty feet high, and the same screen does duty in the rear, shutting out the unsightly view of the railroad tracks. There is a trellised arbor covered with morning glories and a mixture of vegetables and flowers in this garden. Some of the tomatoes weigh half a pound. Geraniums, petunias, phlox, and other flowers are growing in profusion. Mr. Doyle said he had cut over sixty bouquets this season. All the children of the neighborhood come through the unpaved streets to enjoy the garden and its shade and to admire the shamrocks, for Mr. Doyle has some fine specimens of Erin's flowers growing in a pot.

Women Aid in Work.

Homer J. Kinney's garden at 6554 Ross avenue took first prize in the fifth district, and is another where women and children have done much of the work. It contains a well arranged combination of flowers and vegetables. There is a lawn fringed with shrubbery and perennial flowers and several well placed shade trees.

E. J. Vlasek, a 14 year old boy who won the silver medal offered by the Horticultural society of Chicago, has a garden so well planted that it was hard to believe he had done all the work himself, but all his relatives insisted that he had. He is naturally interested in botany and the garden is a botanical study, planted so young Vlasek might study the varieties of flowers. In the garden were noticed hollyhocks, sweet williams, poppies, nasturtiums, columbines, candytuft, geraniums, cannas, fuchsias, gladiolus, tiger lilies, dahlias, delphiniums, and many other varieties.

AVOIDS WEDDING BY SUICIDE

Charles Zak Kills Himself an Hour Before Time for Nuptials

BLOWS OUT BRAINS IN PARK.

Leaves Note Asking His Brother to Take Care of His Fiancee.

Charles Zak, 22 years old, committed suicide in Douglas park by shooting himself yesterday forenoon within an hour of the time appointed for his marriage to Miss Josie Wanek, 22 years old, who lives at 1203 Millard avenue, and is a sister of his brother Michael's wife.

Zak lived at 1146 Central Park avenue. He left the home of his brother, Michael, Saturday evening to purchase a wedding ring, and nothing was heard of his whereabouts until a policeman went to the house to deliver a note which he wrote apparently a few hours before he killed himself. The note said:

"Please forgive me for what I have done and take good care of Josie."

No motive for Zak's suicide could be given by his relatives or friends. He fired but one shot, which caused almost instant death. The shot startled hundreds of persons in the park, many of them small children at play. All ran to the secluded spot which Zak had selected to end his life and found the body.

Michael Zak attended the inquest and told the police that his brother's watch was missing. Whether the watch was lost or disposed of by Zak before entering the park will be investigated by the police. No money was found in Zak's clothing.

Henry Jansen, 57 years old, a janitor, 5708 Wentworth avenue, committed suicide by hanging himself from a gas pipe in the basement of the building. He had been in ill health for some time and was despondent.

Phillip Burdie, 43 years old, who lives at 15 Nineteenth street, attempted to commit suicide by turning on the gas in his room. He was found unconscious by John Patclish, 8957 Green Bay avenue, who forced the door open and summoned the police of the South Chicago station after turning off the gas. Burdie had been in ill health.

MRS. THAW FILES HER CLAIM ON SON FOR $209,674 LOANED.

Mother Is First Creditor to Appear in Harry's Bankruptcy Proceedings—Includes Interest on Unsecured Notes

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 18.—[Special.]—Mrs. Mary C. Thaw today filed her claim against Harry K. Thaw, amounting to $209,674. This is the first creditor's claim to be filed with the referee in bankruptcy. Mrs. Thaw's claim is based on twenty-five notes given her by Harry Thaw between June 28, 1906, and Aug. 1, 1907, for sums ranging from $1,000 to $20,000.

Thaw in his schedule of liabilities gives his mother credit for $191,500, but in the suit of Mrs. Thaw he is charged with interest. As her son's largest creditor Mrs. Thaw draws attention to the fact that her loans are all unsecured.

Additional claims have been filed by Daniel J. O'Reilly of New York for $1,000 for services rendered in 1907 and 1908; Frank J. Connolly for clerical services, $50; Stone & Stone, attorneys, for legal services, $1,000 for 1906; Charles Morschauser of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., for legal services, $100; Dr. John A. Card of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., for medical services, $30; H. N. Bain of Market street, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., for meals, $66.

The original schedule of claims, amounting to $458,140, is increased with the claims of additional creditors to $455,206.

ONE SIDE OF HEAD ENTIRELY BALD

Hair Began Falling Out After a Severe Illness—Consulted Several Barbers without Satisfaction—Friend Cured Same Trouble with Cuticura and Advised Its Use.

CUTICURA REMEDIES EFFECTED HIS CURE

"After a severe attack of sickness my hair fell out all over. One side of my head was completely bald. I was frightened, not knowing what to do for it. I was almost wild. I consulted several barbers with no satisfaction. A friend of mine told me that his hair fell out in patches all over. He had secured a set of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent which stopped his hair falling out and made it grow again as thick as ever. He induced me to try the Cuticura Remedies. I began using them and in forty days, more or less, I noticed my hair coming out all over the bald spots. I was so glad I did not know how to praise the greatness of Cuticura. I used three cakes of Cuticura Soap, three boxes of Ointment and two bottles of Resolvent Pills. I can prove by numbers of persons that I was bald before using the Cuticura Remedies, and you may use my name as a guarantee of their wonderful cure. George Simmons, 1630 So. Franklin St., New Orleans, La., October 10 and 22, 1907."

If you get the "busy" signal don't blame me

When you call for a telephone, the operator reaches directly to the line and tests it. If it is busy, a sharp, clicking sound warns her that she must not then make connection with it, as conversation will be interrupted and confusion ensue.

The operator who answers your call, completes the connection to the switchboard at which the line called for is located; the second operator at this switchboard tests the line, and, if it is busy, makes connection with the busy signal—that buzzing sound which declares the line engaged.

It is easier to complete a connection than to report a line busy, and there is no reason why the operator should not complete a connection at once, if possible. Many busy businesses fail to have lines enough to handle their calls; thus their customers get many busy signals.

WHEAT SHOWS FIRMER TONE

Market Rallies Moderately in Absence of Liquidation.

COARSE GRAINS ARE HIGHER.

Light Farm Offerings and Better Cash Demand Stimulate Buying.

Wheat showed a firmer tone yesterday, and prices scored moderate gains for the day. Liverpool did not respond to the sharp decline here on Monday, and reports of poor thrashing returns in the northwest inspired a little buying. Commission houses, while their trade was not large, had more buying than selling orders, and the local crowd did the bulk of the selling. Liquidation was apparently over for the present, and there was a disposition on the part of some of the bulls whose wheat went overboard the last few days, to reinstate their lines. Outside business was extremely light, the public being apathetic. Resting prices showed gains of ⅛c to ⅝@¾c.

Firmness Abroad Is Factor.

The comparatively firm Liverpool cable was unexpected, that market closing unchanged to ⅛d lower. Other European markets were not much disturbed by the break on this side, closing prices at Antwerp being unchanged to ⅝c lower; Berlin and Budapest, ⅛c lower. Receipts in the southwest were rather light and the falling off in the winter wheat movement was bullishly construed. Selling for long account, which has been a feature for several days, was not in evidence to any large extent, and while it was believed there were still good sized lines which the local crowd was still gunning for, there was no pressure to sell. Local professionals hammered prices on all the little upturns, but did not make much headway, and any moderate sized buying orders were influential in advancing quotations. Strength in the coarse grains was a bull help.

Light Acceptances Are Reported.

Acceptances of winter wheat bids in the country have been extremely small for several days, and this state has practically stopped selling at present prices. The offerings, even on the black rust scare bulge, were not large, and since values have receded the acceptances have dwindled to small proportions. In the northwest preparations are being made for a heavy run of new spring wheat, which is expected to start unusually early this season. Winnipeg had received its first car of new No. 1 northern wheat, the earliest on record, and the financial situation in Canada is such that the crop will be moved as soon as possible. On this side of the boundary a heavy movement is looked for, but there is also expected to be a big demand. At the same time there is no reason to believe the spring wheat farmers will be any more willing to sell their wheat except at good prices than have the winter wheat farmers. There will be a certain percentage of the crop to move, no matter what the price is, but all indications point to conservative merchandising by the growers.

Winnipeg receipts for three days were 47 cars, compared to 454 cars for the same time a year ago, suggesting the practical exhaustion of old wheat reserves on the farm. Cash business was fair with premiums for No. 2 red again raised to 1¾c over the September. Local cash sales were 300,000 bu. Primary receipts were 771,000 bu, against 852,000 bu a year ago. The visible showed a small increase—475,000 bu—and local stocks increased 341,000 bu. Total clearances for the day were 232,000 bu.

Country Corn Offerings Small.

Light offerings of old corn from the country with an improved cash demand, together with more speculative interest in the market, caused a sharp advance in corn. Final prices were 1⅛c to 1⅝c higher for the day. Acceptances were practically nothing in the country, and, with the hopes of a materially increased movement evidently dissipated, local bulls were again willing to take on the nearby as well as the new crop futures. Local receipts were 255 cars, with only 126 cars expected today. The visible showed a decrease of 116,000 bu. Primary receipts were 461,000 bu, against 538,000 bu a year ago. Several reports from this state were unfavorable, and it develops several good sized sections in the corn belt have not had the drought relieved. Cash prices were ½c to 1c higher, with sales of 170,000 bu.

Broad Trade in Oats.

Speculative trade in oats was active, there being heavy buying by commission houses on the light receipts, and advancing cash prices, and sharp competitive buying by shorts. The market was badly oversold, and little stuff was for sale until prices were substantially higher than the previous close. Thrashing reports generally were bullish, and farmers are adopting a holding tendency. Receipts were 280 cars, but only 96 cars are expected today, the sharp falling off stimulating additional buying and covering by the local crowd. Final prices were 1c to 1½c higher. Sample prices were ½c to 1c up, and shippers were active buyers. The visible increased 491,000 bu. Primary receipts were 673,000 bu, and shipments, 633,000 bu. Local cash sales, 125,000 bu.

Sharp Inquiry for Rye.

There was a good inquiry for carlots of rye, and prices were firmly held. Futures were neglected. September closed nominally at 77c. No. 2 sold free on board at 78c and Illinois proportional billed at 72½@78¾c. No. 3 was quoted 70@76c, and No. 4, 60@70c. Receipts were 5 cars.

Barley was strong and prices advanced fully 1c under a good demand from mixers. Malting was quoted 63@66c, mixing 61@63c, and screenings 45@63c. Receipts were 58 cars.

Flaxseed was unchanged. No. 1 northwestern closed at $1.31½, No. 1 from the northwest $1.30, and No. 1 southwestern $1.21½. Receipts, 1 car.

Timothy seed was neglected. September closed at $3.65 and October $3.55. Clover seed was steady at $11.75 for October.

INTERESTING TRADE GOSSIP ON 'CHANGE.

A moderate demand existed for cash wheat for export account here yesterday and sales were reported at 300,000 bu for export. Millers were still taking little interest in the market, presumably obtaining their supplies at nearby points. Premiums were again a shade higher. Country acceptances of winter wheat were small, and receivers are of the opinion that the heaviest run is over. This state has sold little wheat during the last ten days, and Missouri is also selling sparingly. New wheat is beginning to arrive at all the spring wheat markets and the present outlook is for a liberal movement, but a sharp demand is expected for the first run at least. Stocks are exceptionally low at all points, and millers will need a good deal of wheat to build up their stocks. The local and eastern demand for sample corn was more active and prices were ½c to 1c higher. Country offerings have dried up since the decline in futures, and the expected increase in arrivals has not materialized. Oats were strong and ½c to 1c higher, with shippers buying all the oats offered. Country acceptances were small and shorts are becoming anxious. Local sales were 125,000 bu wheat, 160,000 bu corn, and 125,000 bu oats.

Broomhall's weekly summary of foreign crop conditions follows: "United kingdom—Latest reports state that both the quality and condition of the crop is satisfactory. France—Low estimates of the crop are still being mentioned, indications that some imports will be necessary later. The quality, however, is improving. Germany—There are occasional complaints heard of rains affecting the quality, otherwise the outlook is favorable. Roumania—Supplies continue to arrive slowly. The condition of the corn crop is excellent. Russia—Supplies show a good increase, but they are mostly barley. In the southeast the harvest results are rather better as a result of the good weather. Bulgaria—Indications point to a fair crop, with the quality good. A good yield of corn is expected. Hungary—There are free offerings of new wheat. Italy—In the south there is a fair demand for foreign grain. Sweden—An official report states that the outlook for the wheat crop is good. Australia—Weather conditions continue favorable."

Trade in wheat was nervous and the local crowd was on the selling side the biggest part of the day, prices reacting every time the local pressure was removed. Commission houses appeared to have good buying orders around 92c for September, absorbing the comparatively light offerings. Outside trade was exceptionally dull. Barrell, Logan-Bryan, Armour, Chapin, Lake, and Daggett bought on the breaks. Selling was scattered. Bartlett-Patten, Comstock, Wagner, Geahart, and Barrell led the buying of corn. Comstock sold a little May on the advance, but bought again later. Offerings were light. Logan-Bryan and Ware-Leland were the big buyers of May oats early, giving the market its early start. Armour bought September and sold May. Bartlett-Patten were the big sellers. Schwarz led the selling of provisions and there was miscellaneous long liquidation. Buying was scattered.

The directors yesterday declared the Armour elevator C, situated on the south branch, irregular for the storage of grain and flaxseed, at the request of the Armour Grain company. The action of the Armour Grain company was taken as the result of the fire which destroyed part of its elevator capacity a few days ago and made the necessity for more private storage room imperative. The "C" house has a capacity of about 1,000,000 bu and has about 300,000 bu No. 2 red winter wheat and 300,000 bu other grades, and 24,827 bu corn stored in it at the present time.

The visible supply of wheat increased 475,000 bu last week. Corn decreased 116,000 bu, and oats gained 491,000 bu. Rye stocks increased 13,000 bu and barley decreased 92,000 bu. Comparative visible figures follow:

A Winnipeg wire to the Armour Grain company reported the first new car of new crop Manitoba wheat there Monday night. The wheat graded No. 1 northern and came from Bathwell. This is the earliest arrival of new wheat on record at Winnipeg.

A Minneapolis wire to Hulburd-Warren-Chandler said: "Some disappointing thrashing returns from Grand Forks. They are getting 10 bu where they expected to get 20."

A St. Louis wire said feeders in Missouri were bidding 60c in the fields for new corn in Montgomery and Pike counties.

Estimated receipts for today are: Wheat, 145 cars; corn, 126 cars; oats, 96 cars; rye, 2 cars; barley, 48 cars; hogs, 25,000.

Winnipeg had 47 cars of wheat for three days, compared to 454 cars for the same time a year ago.

The directors yesterday elected Charles J. Wolcott to membership on the board of trade.

Charters were made for 75,000 bu wheat and 75,000 bu corn to Buffalo at ¾c.

George W. Rose has applied for membership on the board of trade.

Minneapolis wheat stocks decreased 125,000 bu for three days.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK MARKET.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Receipts of hogs were light, and there was sufficient outside competition to afford strong to a shade higher prices, but the quality of the offerings was so common that early firmness could not be maintained, and closing transactions were at a level largely 5@10c lower than Monday's best prices. The large percentage of cheap hogs brought the average price for the day down to $6.61, against $6.70 the previous day, but there were more hogs sold at $6.90, the top figure for both days, than on the preceding session, and many loads of swine were sold at from $6.85@6.90, which would not have brought these figures the day before. While shippers were competing for supplies the trade was active, but after the bulk of the desirable offerings had found an outlet, and packers were the principal buyers, trading degenerated into a slow, draggy deal which resulted in an unsatisfactory clearance, it being estimated that there would be just as many hogs left unsold as on the previous day, although fresh supplies were reduced by half. Cattle arrivals consisted largely of range offerings, which sold at the reduced values established Monday, while the few loads of native steers offered for sale made strong prices. Native butcher stock was hard to move, owing to the liberal supplies of range cows, and prices held weak. Calves met with a brisk shipping demand early and sold up to $7.65, but eased off and finished 25c lower, grassy offerings being severely discriminated against. Native sheep held about steady, while western rangers were 10@15c lower. Lambs were pounded hard and finished largely 10@25c lower, although one lot of extra fine native offerings sold up to $6.60, and rangers reached $6.50.

CATTLE.

Receipts of 8,000 included 5,000 range cattle and the market retained many of the characteristics of the previous day. Salesmen acted as though they did not care to test the strength of the demand too severely and seemed satisfied to obtain steady values for all their native steers, although the buyers claimed they were compelled to pay a slight premium for the better grades of beeves, of which there was no perceptible superfluity. Shipping orders were not urgent, but this caused no hardship, as supplies of steers suitable for the outside trade were not of sufficient volume to cause any uneasiness. A spread of from $5.50@6.40 absorbed all of the better grades of steers, while the medium to good killing kinds were taken at from $4.85@5.40. Fair to good grassy offerings cleared at from $4.15@4.65, while the plain kinds sold at $4.00 and lower. Two lots of University yearling steers were offered for sale, and brought $6.60@7.15. Buyers tried hard to get the range steers at lower prices, and held up the trade for a long time, in the hope that salesmen would make them concessions. Their endeavors brought them little, however, as sellers felt secure in their position, and, when preliminary estimates on Wednesday's receipts indicated a moderate midweek run of live stock, packers opened up on the rangers and bought up the supply in good time at prices which were steady with Monday's closing level. Most of the medium to good rangers sold at from $4.25@4.55, with a few loads up to $4.85@5.05. Range cows made $2.75@3.75, while most heifers sold at $3.25. Native cows and heifers of good quality were in limited supply and sold mostly at from $3.85@4.25, with medium grades at from $3.10@3.75. Bulls ranged at from $3.25@4.25 for butcher grades, and $2.75@3.15 for the bolognas. Calves of choice quality made $7.25@7.50, with good grades at $7.00. Quotations:

Good to choice steers	$6.50@7.50

Cattle at six western markets 40,500, against 33,800 a week ago, 28,100 a year ago, and 39,300 two years ago. Total for 1908 to date 4,573,000, against 5,389,000 the same period in 1907.

HOGS.

Market had a good tone early, as arrivals were estimated at only 11,000 and there was a fair number of shipping orders to be filled. Shippers opened the trade, paying prices steady with Monday's best level, and buying nearly all the good hogs included in the receipts. During this period the trade was active, but the quality of the fresh hogs was poor, and shippers only wanted about 2,000 hogs, while packers absolutely refused to put up steady prices for the mixed packing droves. This resulted in a less satisfactory clearance than had been expected, as, although salesmen made concessions of 5@10c, packers filled their orders in a listless way and there was no snap to the late trade. The previous day's best price, $6.90, was reached by several loads of hogs, shippers paying $6.80@6.90 for all of the strongweight butchers, while they made up droves of choice light and lightweight butcher hogs at from $6.75@6.85. Packers insisted upon getting their good mixed hogs at from $6.50@6.70. Few hogs of any quality sold at under $6.60, which was considered a good price considering the large percentage of mixed swine of rather inferior quality included in the arrivals. Market for rough packing hogs showed little change, the better grades selling fairly well at from $6.20@6.40, while the grassy kinds were not wanted except at a sharp discount. Strongweight pigs were sustained at the advance made Monday, although they were not so actively traded in. The market closed in a weak condition, with about 6,500 hogs left unsold. Quotations:

Select butchers	6.80@6.90

Average price of hogs at Chicago, $6.61, against $6.70 Monday, $6.66 a week ago, $5.79 a year ago, and $6.25 two years ago.

Eleven markets received 58,000 hogs, against 55,000 a week ago, 65,900 a year ago, and 73,900 two years ago. Total for 1908 to date, 18,147,000, against 16,378,000 the same period in 1907.

SHEEP.

Live mutton trade was most irregular and it was difficult to get two traders to agree on prices. Receipts of 18,000 ran largely to lambs, most of which were westerns. These met with a good call when of desirable quality, but buyers used a great deal of discrimination, and when the offerings did not come up to their standard they insisted on concessions of 10@25c. Native lambs again showed uneven quality, and, although one packer paid up to $6.60 for some strictly choice offerings, most of the killers did not want to pay more than $6.00 for natives, and the second best price reached was $6.40, paid by an outside butcher. Western lambs sold up to $6.50, but they were of a grade seldom seen here, while most of the choice range offerings cleared at around $6.25. The trade was late in getting started, but little business having been transacted at noon and a clearance was not effected until late in the day. Sheep sold with more alacrity than the lambs, but concessions of 10@15c had to be made in the price of western offerings, although the receipts of native sheep were so small that salesmen succeeded in securing steady values for them. Native ewes of choice quality made $4.25@4.35, while breeders ranged at from $4.65 to $4.85, with yearling breeding ewes at from $5.00 to $5.50. Native wethers sold up to $4.50, while western offerings made $4.30 and feeders of good quality brought $4.15. Western yearlings which sold at $4.75 showed 10@15c decline. Native yearlings also sold lower, although two small lots reached $5.10. Bucks ranged at from $2.50 to $3.25. Quotations:

Fed native wethers	$4.00@4.65
Range wethers	4.00@4.50
Yearlings	4.00@5.10

Receipts for Aug. 19 were estimated at 14,000 cattle, 22,000 hogs, and 17,000 sheep, against actual arrivals of 17,319 cattle, 27,042 hogs, and 22,991 sheep for Wednesday, Aug. 21, 1907.

STOCKYARD GOSSIP.

Local receipts of hogs so far this week decreased 9,000, as compared with the arrivals for the same period a week ago, while at six western markets the falling off was 15,000. This decrease in supplies was attributed to the sharp reductions made in prices last Thursday, and indicated how bullish the producers were on the hog question. Cattle and sheep values show a sharp decline from the recent high levels, but hog prices are now within 20c of the best figure of the year, and recessions from this level are quickly followed by restricted marketings. It is evident that packers have lost control of the hog situation, and that producers are having their inning. How long this will continue is hard to tell, but commission men are advising their country customers not to overstay the market, but let the hogs come forward as soon as they are in good marketable condition. Present values are highest since 1902, and hogs sold now are making good money, both to the producer and country shipper.

Total local receipts of cattle so far this week increased 11,000, as compared with arrivals for the same period a week ago. Of this increase 9,000 were range cattle, leaving only 2,000 more native than the first two days last week. Heavier arrivals had been expected by most traders, and they did not have the depressing influence that might have resulted from such an influx of supplies. In fact their influence had been so far discounted that an advance of 10c was made in the price for nearly all native steers, and at the close of business there were orders which had been carried from the middle of last week, in anticipations of the liberal arrivals and lower prices, which had not yet been filled. This gives promise of a good outlet for the cattle to come on later days this week and traders said that it would not surprise them to see the native steers making further gains before the close.

Feeding steers, weighing 800@1,000 lbs, and obtainable at around $4.50, are wanted here, and country operators who can send a few loads this way will find a ready outlet for them.

One trader said that quality considered the market for the better grades of hogs was higher than on Monday. He said that loads of swine were sold at $6.85@6.90 which were not nearly so good as those which brought that price on the first day of the week.

Swift & Co. bought the $6.60 lambs. There were 63 head in the consignment, weighed an average of 70 lbs each, and were about as good as any seen here this season. They were sold by the Clay, Robinson & Co. commission house.

ON THE BOARD OF TRADE.

Renewed liquidation of long stuff by outside interests and free selling by large and small packers caused sharp declines in the provisions list. Buying of ribs by shippers and smaller packers early helped to hold the market, but the lack of support and free offerings eventually proved too heavy a weight and prices slumped off rapidly. A moderate investment demand for January product was encountered on the decline, and shorts bought the nearby futures. Receipts were 55,200 at western packing centers, compared to 58,500 a year ago. Local receipts were 13,000, as estimated, with 25,000 expected today. The local hog market was steady early, but weakened later, and closed lower. Cash demand was only fair. Shipments of product were fair—118 cars. Foreign markets were firm.

Groceries.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Greater activity prevailed in all lines of staple groceries, attendance of buyers was larger, and the number of mail orders and billets from road men was increased. Firm prices were noted, and the market generally was in a good healthy condition. Raisin values continued to advance, and an upward tendency was noted in the price for other dried fruits. Canned goods were being ordered in larger quantity, and holders of well known brands of all staple offerings were not pressing sales, as they looked for higher prices in the near future.

Sugar and Coffee.

SUGAR.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Market was stationary, the demand being active enough to maintain refined goods at a steady level, in spite of the weakness in the market for raw material. Following were the ruling prices in wholesale circles, quotations being on 100 lb lots: Standard granulated, beet and cane, $5.37@5.47; cut loaf, H. & E., $6.40; standard powdered, $5.70; canary, $4.75; extra C, $5.08; chemically pure milk sugar, 18c per lb in brl lots.

COFFEE.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Market was featureless. Demand for desirable offerings was of fair volume, and holders were inclined to await further developments in the new crop movement before making any change in values.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—COFFEE—Spot quiet; Rio No. 7, 6⅛c; Santos No. 4, 8½c. Mild coffee dull; Cordova, 9⅝@12½c. The market for futures opened steady at unchanged prices, and during the early session advanced a partial 5 points on scattered covering and bull support, which was inspired by better French cables and reports of frost in Brazil. The close was unchanged to 5 points lower. Sales were reported of 23,500 bags. Quotations:

Dry Goods.

CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Anticipations that this week would be the largest of the season in dry goods lines were being realized, and all jobbers reported active buying of all fall and winter merchandise. Merchants took advantage of the increased attendance of outside buyers to clean up job lots of wash goods and stocks of these on the shelves were being rapidly reduced. Dress and silk goods were in brisk demand from buyers of futures, and the fact that stocks in retailers' stores were sorely depleted led to large purchases of all new fabrics. Black taffeta silks came in for a broader demand than usual at this season and jobbers said that indications were that taffetas would be much more popular this year than last.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—There is a large influx of retail buyers in the dry goods market, and they are operating very generally, but are not taking as large lots as usual. The export markets are quiet. Cotton yarns are easier in price, with but little change noted in the volume of new business. There is considerable activity in narrow print cloths, handkerchief cottons, and a few convertibles. Heavy cottons rule dull. An auction sale of 4,500 pieces of silk piece goods has been scheduled for Aug. 26.

It lies in Jackson County, 100 miles from St. Louis near the Mississippi River and four railroads, thus insuring cheap transportation both by rail and water. Twelve hundred acres of this land is in a high state of cultivation. It will produce from four to five crops of Alfalfa each season equal to the best grown in the West. An average yield of corn on this land is 75 bushels to the acre—at present market values worth $40 to $60 per acre per annum. Money invested in this proposition

No risk and no trouble to the investor as the farm is managed by competent men. Every purchaser of stock has a voice in the management of the farm if he so desires.

FARM LANDS ARE THE VERY BEST AND SAFEST INVESTMENT and we regard this proposition as an exceptionally profitable one. This land is in the greatest Corn State in the Union where Corn is King and Alfalfa is Queen—where farming is diversified—where rainfall is ample—where land values are constantly on the rise.

NATIONAL STOCK

A Fortune for Everyone—Quick

I have always preached "Don't Speculate," but the whole world does.

The soundest, safest, surest principle of speculation is; Buy 100 shares of something selling at $2 per share to make 100 points profit instead of buying 100 shares of anything at $100 per share to make 2 points profit. Your liability of $100 per share is $10,000, at $2 per share it is only $200. The greatest fortunes in the world have ALL been made on this foundation.

My own fortune and financial success was laid in buying Butte and Boston at the present price of "National Stock." Standard Oil, Rogers and Rockefeller, who were my partners in the deal, and every broker in Boston and New York will vouch for this fact. They will vouch, too, for the fact that I advertised as I am now advertising "National Stock," that all who would buy at $2 per share would be able to sell at $100 per share, and also for the fact that inside of two years from the time I advertised they could all have sold at $130 per share, and notwithstanding the recent panics and what-nots each $2 invested in Butte and Boston upon my pledge for its future is worth in the open market today $80.

I trust that people everywhere will buy "National Stock" to the extent of every dollar they can spare and not be frightened off by the System's machinations for the System, panic stricken at the enormous success of "National Stock," as evidenced by the trading each day in the open markets of Boston and New York, from 500,000 to 800,000 shares, is getting out its broom to sweep back the deluge. It has sent in instructions to its press agents and brokers everywhere "Spread this story: 'National Stock' is a blind discretionary pool; has never been traded in on Stock Exchanges, is not traded in on any open market. Is sold privately by Lawson for his personal profit."

To spike this mud gun of the System I herewith as president of "National Stock" legally bind it to pay to anyone who can prove there is any truth in any of the above statements the sum of $50,000.

Yesterday was the heaviest day for orders, pamphlets and inquiries since the campaign began.

Tomorrow the first pamphlets will be mailed. On receipt of pamphlets the real buying of "National Stock" will begin, and in anticipation of the tremendous demand, I again ask that every one limit their orders to $3 per share (Boston) or $6 (New York) and to hold orders at this figure until I advise in public advertisements to increase the limit.

Boston, August 19, 1908.

THOMAS W. LAWSON.

ERRATIC TRADING IN STOCKS

Prices Move Back and Forward in Confusing Manner.

LARGE VOLUME OF BUSINESS.

Selling of Great Northern and Northern Pacific a Feature.

[NEW YORK TIMES FINANCIAL LEADER.]

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—[Special.]—Trading on the stock exchange today was in larger volume than on Monday, and the range in most of the active stocks amounted to between 2 and 3 points.

Prices, however, moved backward and forward meaninglessly during the day, and at the close the net changes were in most cases disproportionate to the fluctuations between the opening and closing of the market. The exceptions to this were Southern Pacific, which closed at an advance of 2⅛ points, Great Northern which lost 1⅝, and Northern Pacific which showed a net decline of 1⅛.

In the other active issues the changes, one way or the other, were fractional, the various movements of the day having in most cases offset each other. The trading was of a highly professional character, and the public, which at an early stage of the present period of activity in the market took considerable part in the trading, seemed to be represented today only to a limited extent.

Selling of Hill Issues.

The character of the influences which were made to exert themselves today were fairly well illustrated in the selling of Great Northern and Northern Pacific on reports circulated early in the day that the chairman of the Great Northern in an accident with which he met a few days ago had been gravely injured. This was pointed to as sufficient excuse for selling both of these stocks in considerable quantities. The report, happily, was unfounded, and its use today is chiefly interesting as illustrating the tactics which are now being used in the market.

That the selling of Northern Pacific and Great Northern, prompted by such considerations was effective in depressing both of these stocks more than a point a day, is explainable chiefly on the ground that equally flimsy arguments recently had been made to do service on the opposite side of the account.

The report of the country's foreign commerce for the month of July published today showed a continued shrinkage in exports, with a still greater contraction in imports, with the result that in July as in other months this year the excess of exports was unusually large. The reports showed for July total exports of $103,200,000, and total imports of $86,400,000, with an excess of exports amounting to $16,800,000. These figures bring the total excess of exports over imports for the seven months of this year up to $372,600,000, against an excess of exports of $193,000,000 in the corresponding period last year.

Trade Balance a Factor.

The effect of this growing balance in our favor in our foreign trade upon the relation of New York to other money markets is important, but it is by no means the sole item which affects the question of a gold movement toward New York this fall and whether or not we take gold from Europe will depend as much upon the course of interest rates at this center as upon continuance of the movement which is giving this country an unusually large credit balance on its foreign trade.

Money on call easy, 1@1¼ per cent; ruling rate, 1; closing bid, 1; offered at 1. Time loans dull; sixty days, 2, and 90 days, 2½@3; six months, 3½@3¾. Prime mercantile paper, 3@4 per cent. Sterling exchange easy, with actual business in bankers' bills at 4.84@4.85 for sixty day bills and at 4.8640 for demand. Commercial bills, 4.84@4.84⅛. Bar silver, 51¼. Mexican dollars, 45. Government bonds strong; railroad bonds irregular.

IN THE FOREIGN STOCK MARKET.

LONDON, Aug. 18.—Money was easy today and discounts were firm. On the stock exchange business continued small and the markets generally were uninteresting. Consols and other gilt edged securities drooped for lack of support, but the first mentioned recovered in the afternoon. The securities in which Paris is interested closed firmer, copper shares improved with the metal, and diamond shares were active and higher. American securities received little attention at the opening. The public is holding aloof and the professionals seemed less eager. With the exception of Canadian Pacific and Grand Trunk, which were well supported, values in the forenoon were barely maintained at parity. Later the New York opening caused fair strength. The leading stocks fluctuated sharply, but after a temporary weakness the market finished with a hardening tendency.

IN THE WORLD OF FINANCE

Commonwealth-Edison Touches Highest Point, Going to 106.

"L" STOCKS SELL DOWN TO 46

Northwestern's Bonds Recover Nearly Two Points in Last Week.

Commonwealth Edison was bought up to 106 yesterday in the Chicago market, that price being the highest it ever touched. The former high mark was 105, just before the stock sold ex-dividend a short time ago. The buying yesterday was in liberal amount and generally for the account of persons who already were holders of the company's stock, as has been the case for some time. The market absorbed with little difficulty all the Edison that was offered recently by eastern sellers.

South Side Elevated sold down again at 46 and 100 shares of Northwestern Elevated preferred went at the same price. Metropolitan "L" preferred was not traded, but was 43½ bid and 45 asked. There is little demand in the market for any of them. Northwestern Elevated bonds were advanced fractionally and had some call. The present price of 88⅛ shows a recovery of nearly two points from the low last week.

Shipbuilding common sold up to 47½, the best mark it has reached since the recent passing of its dividend. The general industrial list was dull and prices were little changed. City railway and Chicago Railways bonds were handled in small amounts and were steady in price.

Future Money Requirements.

From August to the end of January bond and note issues amounting to $101,519,200 will mature for payment, and installments amounting to $54,140,000 on new stocks will fall due. Of the total to be taken care of the short term notes represent $65,857,000 and the bonds $35,661,000. In several cases provision has been made for important bond and note maturities and some of the stock payments have been anticipated.

The following table gives the maturing obligations and the stock payments due from Aug. 1 to Jan. 31.

Grand total			$403,513,841

Detailed figures for 1909 and 1910 cannot be presented so far in advance, yet sufficient data have been gathered to show that while next year's maturities approximate $215,000,000, the year 1910 will face maturing bonds and notes to the total of $485,000,000—a total that will be materially added to before then. Railroad companies in 1910 will have to pay the penalty for the hothouse financing done during 1906-1907 forced boom in stocks, when high interest rates had to be offered in order to induce investors to part with more capital. A preliminary computation of 1909 and 1910 maturities follow:

RAILROADS.

Dividends Declared.

The Boston and Albany railway has declared a quarterly dividend of $2 a share, payable Sept. 30 to holders of record Aug. 29.

The Mines Company of America has declared the regular monthly dividend of 2 per cent, payable Aug. 25. Books close Aug. 18 and reopen Aug. 26.

Greene-Cananea Output.

The Greene-Cananea is now treating 2,200 tons of ore daily, of which 700 tons goes directly to the smelter, and the monthly recovery therefrom is approximately 4,000,000 lbs of copper. The gold and silver values are equal to 1½c a lb of copper produced. It is said the total monthly expenditures are within $300,000, indicating a cost of production at the mine of not more than 7½c.

Financial News Notes.

Stockholders of the American Agricultural Chemical company have been asked by the directors to authorize an issue of long term debentures, convertible into the 6 per cent preferred stock, the object being to supply larger working capital.

Gross earnings of the Aurora, Elgin and Chicago in July were $148,748, compared with $152,252 in July last year, and surplus earnings after bond charges were $48,762, compared with $49,836.

Local rates for money are easy at 4@4½ per cent on commercial paper, 4@4½ per cent on local collateral loans, and 4½@5 per cent on customers' loans.

RATES SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION.

Southeastern Passenger Association Takes Up Big Problem Today.

The Southeastern Passenger association will open its meeting today at the Auditorium Annex, which will probably continue in session for two or three days. Several questions in regard to passenger affairs in the southeastern territory are to be taken up, including homeseekers' excursion fares, the payment of commissions on immigration business, winter tourist fares, and the revision of mileage ticket methods. About forty or fifty representatives of the various roads are expected to be present.

Changes of Wabash Officials.

W. C. Maxwell, general traffic manager of the Wabash railroad, has announced several new appointments in the traffic department which become effective today. Because of the large increase in the road's immigration business it has been found necessary to devote special attention to this traffic, and C. S. Crane has been appointed to the newly created position of general foreign passenger agent. Mr. Crane is considered to be well fitted for his new position, after a long service with the road as general passenger and ticket agent. J. D. MacNamara, formerly assistant general passenger agent, has been appointed general passenger agent, and C. H. Stinson, formerly assistant general freight agent, has been made general freight agent. Mr. Stinson has been connected with the Wabash for twenty years, and Mr. MacNamara for three years. The new officials will have headquarters at St. Louis.

Railroad Men Form a Club.

A club of officials and employés of the Pennsylvania railroad has been organized at Altoona, Pa. Every officer located in the city, from the general superintendent down, is eligible to membership. It also includes the rodmen and some of the apprentices from the shops. The purpose of the club is to improve the service of the railroad by broadening the individual officer, not only in relation to his work, but to his fellows. At the meetings papers on various subjects pertaining to railroad work are read and discussed, so that every member shall have an opportunity to present his views on current questions.

W. W. Atterbury, general manager of the Pennsylvania, has written a letter to the members of the club congratulating them upon the organization, saying, among other things, that the club "will become one of the important factors in the railroad life of those whose duty and pleasure it is to maintain the esprit du corps. There can be no more important duty, and there should be no greater pleasure, than the work of establishing between railroad officers mutual sympathy and regard."

Grand Trunk Superintendent Quits.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 18.—O. O. Winter, general superintendent of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, resigned today. His successor comes from the Wabash.

REWARD UP FOR WRECKING CREW.

Employers' Association Will Assist in Hunt for the Sluggers.

SPEYER LIKELY TO LIVE.

Canadians' Appeal to Immigration Inspector for Protection Is Not Successful.

The Chicago Employers' association yesterday took a hand in the movement to exterminate "wrecking crews" and to suppress slugging and such brutal attacks as that to which Wiert B. Speyer, a West Pullman dairyman, was subjected Sunday morning.

A reward of $1,500 was offered by the association for the capture of Speyer's three assailants. The reward is divided into three parts of $500 each. In addition to the reward, the Employers' association will coöperate with the police in their hunt for the criminals and aid in prosecuting them.

The action of the association was taken at a meeting of the executive committee in the afternoon in the Marquette building.

Statement Given Out.

The following statement was given out:

"The Chicago Employers' association conferred today on the reported assault and perhaps murder of Wiert B. Speyer on account of his alleged refusal to join the Milk Wagon Drivers' union, and determined to do all in its power to coöperate with the proper authorities in discovering and prosecuting the perpetrators of the crime.

"The association believes, as it always has, in the enforcement of the law and in the preservation of order, and therefore has decided to offer a reward of $1,500 to assist in bringing the criminals to justice, to the end that every man, woman, and child in our city shall be given all the protection the law affords them in earning an honest living, regardless of membership or nonmembership in any organization."

Speyer Likely to Recover.

It is believed now that Speyer has a fair chance of recovery. His condition improved greatly during the day, and Dr. P. H. Hollemen held out hope that he will be out of danger in a few days.

Detectives from Assistant Chief Schuettler's office and from the Kensington police station scoured the West Pullman and Kensington districts all day in search of clews that would lead to the discovery of Speyer's assailants. Search also was made in the railroad yards for trace of the "railroad detectives" who are said to have visited Speyer's premises in search of grain thieves.

United States Won't Interfere.

William R. Robinson, a nonunion pressman employed by Poole Brothers, 116 Harrison street, who complained that he is being interfered with by union sluggers, appealed to Immigrant Inspector D. D. Davies in the afternoon for protection, Robinson being a native of Canada.

Mr. Davies told him the immigration officers have no jurisdiction in such matters and referred him to the British consul. Thomas Erskin, acting British consul, referred Robinson to the police.

"The consulate can do nothing in the matter," said Mr. Erskin. "The complainant is subject to the laws of the United States, even if he is a British subject. If the police refused to protect him we might consider the matter, but there is nothing to show that the police have refused him protection."

The fourth annual convention of the National Association of Sheet Metal Workers will begin in parlor O of the Palmer house today. The sessions will last three days. The meetings will be attended by 175 delegates.

LEWIS TRIES TO STOP STRIKE.

Mineworkers' President Repeatedly Advises Indiana District Miners to Return to Work.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 18.—[Special.]—President Lewis of the United Mineworkers has telegraphed twice to officials of the Indiana district of the organization, advising against their policy in calling out the miners because of a grievance at a mine affecting one man was not settled within five days.

Following their action at that mine the Indiana Operators' association decided not to collect the dues of the men for their United Mineworkers' membership, whereupon the miners' officials ordered out all the men at the mines where this order went into effect. President Lewis advises that the men be sent back to work pending an investigation and final settlement.

LOCAL JURIST WEDS IN ERIN; SEQUEL OF CHICAGO ROMANCE

Judge Kavanagh and Herminie Templeton, Writer of Irish Fairy Tales, Married in Church Parents Attended.

Not in a century have "the good people" of Ireland had such a glorious festival as they enjoyed yesterday. This fact is all the more interesting when it is considered that the two personages who brought joy to the heart of every fairy on "the ould sod" are Chicagoans.

Of course, it was a marriage the "little people" celebrated, and in the marriage of Judge Marcus Kavanagh of the Superior court of Cook county and Herminie Templeton of Chicago and Paris, in every place in the wide world where men and women and children read Irish fairy tales, "the little people" saw an occasion worthy of the greatest celebration of an age. The ceremony took place in their very midst.

It is said there has been a silent understanding and a wait of over ten years. Fifteen years ago in Chicago Herminie Templeton was deserted by her husband. In the course of the clerical work by which she supported herself Mrs. Templeton met Judge Kavanagh.

Over a year ago word came that John Templeton had died, and a few months later Judge Kavanagh went to Paris. Mrs. Templeton also was in Paris doing special literary work for an American magazine.

Then there came the announcement which brought joy to every fairy from Belfast to Cork, for Judge Kavanagh and Herminie Templeton would be married in the little church in the County Waterford in which the father and mother of the groom had been married many years before.

And that is why every fairy in Ireland rejoiced yesterday. Judge Kavanagh and his bride will tour Europe before returning to Chicago.

FIRE FIGHTERS COME TO CITY.

Marshals, Chiefs, and Pipemen Arrive for Annual Convention of the National Association.

Fire fighters from every large city in the union are gathering at the Sherman house for the eleventh annual convention of the National Firemen's association, which begins a three days' session in the Masonic temple this morning.

The Sherman house is headquarters for the delegates, of whom there will be several hundred, including fire marshals, fire chiefs, battalion chiefs, pipemen, hook and ladder men, firemen, and engineers.

Fire Marshal James Horan, head of the local committee on reception and entertainment, has prepared a program that will show the visitors something of Chicago's beauty, interest, and worth, and likely give them a sample of "how we do it in Chicago," with several spectacular "runs."

Seeks Murderer of a Sheriff.

Detective Robert Walker, from Flora, Miss., is in Chicago searching for Bob Meyers, colored, who killed Sheriff W. C. McDougal of Carroll county, Miss., on Oct. 16, 1907. It is said Meyers robbed the sheriff of a gold watch and an automatic pistol after he had shot him.

CLEARED AFTER SEVEN YEARS

John A. Hinsey Exonerated by Supreme Lodge K. of P.

DELIGHT SHOWN BY FRIENDS

Charge of Misappropriating Insurance Funds Is Wiped Out.

John A. Hinsey, former head of the endowment rank of the Knights of Pythias, learned yesterday that he had been exonerated of charges of mismanagement and misappropriation of $500,000 of the order's funds filed against him in 1901.

Mr. Hinsey, who is 75 years old, has been employed by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad in the special agent's department continuously for forty-three years. He was at work at his desk in the Railway Exchange building when the information was carried to him.

"It couldn't have been any other way," said he. "The charges were the result of animus, and I felt sure they would right themselves if given time."

Then he went about his work as if nothing had happened. But his companions would have none of that. They crowded about him and shook his hand heartily.

Official action on Hinsey's case was taken by the supreme lodge, which held its convention in Boston last week. Not only did the lodge exonerate Mr. Hinsey but it reinstated him as a member of the order.

Shortly after Ogden H. Fethers of Janesville, Wis., became supreme chancellor of the order in 1901 a special convention of the organization was called for the purpose of inspecting the finances of the endowment rank. The charge of mismanagement and misappropriation of the lodge's insurance funds followed.

Then began a long drawn out fight in the Pythian, civil, and criminal courts. His friends declare that those who were pushing the charges against him even endeavored to have him discharged from the railroad, but without success.

The vote favoring Hinsey's exoneration, according to the delegates who just have returned, was 80 to 29.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOLS FINISH FIRST TERM FRIDAY.

Eight Hundred Children Enrolled Will Take Part in Big Demonstration at Centenary Methodist Church.

The Chicago branches of the National Vacation Bible schools will close the first summer of their existence with a big demonstration at the Centenary Methodist church Friday morning. The 800 children enrolled in the schools will take part in the exercises, and the Rev. R. G. Boville of New York, national director of the society which organizes and supports the schools, will be present.

The plan of the schools is to take care of the children in the poorer districts of cities during the summer months, to give them religious training impossible in the public schools, to aid those who are backward in their regular school work, provide for manual training of boys, and give kindergarten training to children too young to enter the public schools.

The plan was put in operation in the east a few years ago, and there have been this summer fifteen schools in Philadelphia, twenty-two in New York, and ten in Boston. There have been five in Chicago this summer, but it is planned to have fifteen next summer.

RINGERS ROUT LOCAL ALDERMEN

Only Four Bona Fide St. Louis House Delegates Played in "Comiskey Day" Game.

Four members of the St. Louis house of delegates actually did play in the "Comiskey day" benefit baseball game in this city last Saturday, in which the visitors routed a team of Chicago aldermen. The other five, including the pitcher, were men who never had the pleasure of hearing Clerk Leonard call "Mr." before their names. To speak plainly, they were "ringers."

Golden, Bourg, Weeke, and Tirre were the house members who actually did run bases. But Hollas, whose name appeared on the program as shortstop, was represented by his son Charles. "Jiggers" Gallagher sat in the grand stand and watched a substitute win glory for him on third, and J. T. Brennan, who was named as the pitcher, never got within rooting distance of the box.

Wiedmer and Simmons of the St. Louis house minority, whose names generously were placed on the list of players by the indulgent "combine," spent a pleasant day at their homes in St. Louis.

LIFE SAVERS TO GIVE DRILL.

Two Steamboats Engaged to Carry Crowds to View Elaborate Display of Fireworks Tonight.

One of the most interesting features of the Lipton cup yacht race program will be an exhibition drill at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon by the United States life saving crew in command of Capt. Charles Carland. The exhibition will be given in front of the Columbia and Chicago Yacht club houses.

The display of fireworks tonight—Venetian night—will follow an illuminated parade of all the boats of all classes entered in the Lipton races. The fireworks will be set off from four barges anchored in the center of the basin at the foot of Randolph street and will be visible from Grant park.

The steamboats Pere Marquette and Roosevelt have been engaged to carry those who wish to view the fireworks from the water. The two boats will leave their regular docks—the Marquette from the Fifth avenue bridge and the Roosevelt from the Clark street bridge—at 8 o'clock. The fireworks display will begin at 8:30 o'clock.

BULLETS RELEASE DOG'S GRIP.

Policeman Shoots Bull Terrier to Make Him Remove Teeth from Little Girl.

Policeman Dale of the North Halsted street station was compelled to fire three bullets into the body of a bulldog yesterday before the animal would remove his teeth from the arm of Ellen Schatz, 3 years old, 426 Clybourn avenue. The dog had dragged the child into the street when the policeman ran to the rescue. Other efforts failing Dale used his revolver.

Other victims of savage dogs, according to reports received by the detective bureau, are:

Donald Dillon, 38 years old, 7425 Normal avenue; Thomas A. Emmet, aged 24 years, 904 Rosemont street; Cornelius Delehanty, 14 years old, 1960 Magnolia avenue, and Joseph Konin, 911 Ashland avenue.

IN MEMORY OF IRA D. SANKEY.

Special Service Next Tuesday Evening in Moody Church, Where He Began Evangelistic Career.

A memorial service to the late Ira D. Sankey will be held next Tuesday evening in the Moody church, where he commenced his evangelical labors thirty-eight years ago. Mr. Sankey's hymns will be sung and brief, appropriate addresses will be made.

All the ex-members of the Moody church choir, with singers from other choirs, are invited to meet at 8 o'clock next Friday evening at the Moody church to rehearse music for the occasion.

Eloper Freed on Wife's Plea.

Albert L. Keim, an ex-policeman of Pittsburg, who eloped with Mrs. Mable Curry four months ago and was arrested two weeks ago at her bedside in Englewood Union hospital, was discharged by Municipal Judge Lantry in the Englewood court yesterday afternoon on the plea of his wife, with whom he returned home. A bailiff, who had a warrant for Mrs. Curry, declared her husband had telegraphed to him not to serve it.

IN THE REAL ESTATE WORLD.

A new $100,000 theater building is to be erected by W. A. Wieboldt, a west side merchant, at the southwest corner of Division street and Ashland avenue, on land which originally was selected as the site of a Y. M. C. A. dormitory. The lot fronts 130 feet on Division street and 122 on Ashland avenue, and the theater building will occupy 100 feet of the Division street frontage. It will be a fireproof structure, with exterior finish of pressed brick and white enameled terra cotta. It will have an auditorium, balcony, and gallery, and a seating capacity of about 1,500. It has been leased for ten years to Carruthers & Ricksen, who have a string of vaudeville houses in the western and southern states. The new theater will, it is said, be devoted exclusively to the legitimate drama.

An interesting feature of the transaction is the fact that in order to cary the deal through it was necessary for Mr. Wieboldt to repurchase the land which he had donated to the Y. M. C. A., paying $30,000 for it. It is planned to begin work immediately and have the theater ready for occupancy by the fall of 1909. A three story store building will occupy the remaining 30 feet frontage of the lot. R. I. Terwilliger & Co. negotiated the deal.

Flats Sold for $35,500.

Murray Wolbach has sold to Clara Tascher the twelve flat building, with 80x125 feet of ground, west front, in Calumet avenue, ninety-four feet south of Fortieth street, for $35,500, subject to incumbrance of $17,000, which grantee assumes.

Mrs. Tascher has sold to Louis Nath the store and flat property at the northeast corner of Chicago avenue and Paulina street, with 50x118 feet of ground, for $28,000, subject to incumbrance of $11,000.

The Chicago Title and Trust company, trustee, has conveyed to L. Solomon the flat property in Indiana avenue, 277 feet south of Thirty-fourth street, with 50x160 feet of ground, east front, for $30,000, subject to incumbrance of $15,000.

Deal on Northwest Side.

Richard Funk has purchased from Julia Smolski the property at the northeast corner of Humboldt and Spaulding avenues, 50x150 feet, with flat improvements, for $18,500, subject to an incumbrance of $10,000.

The New England Mutual Life Insurance company has made a loan of $25,000, five years, at 4½ per cent, to Marcia L. Melville and husband, Henry H., secured by the property at the northeast corner of Market and Van Buren streets, 50x79½ feet, with brick business improvements.

The nominating committee of the Cook county real estate board met yesterday in the office of the board, 97 Washington street, and named the following candidates for directors and officers:

James D. Stover,	Henry F. Coonley,
Gurden H. Coney,	William A. Webster,
Paul Kraemer,	John F. Wegforth,

Lionen A. Bell for secretary.
Samuel O. Olin for treasurer.

The president and vice president will be elected from the board of directors after the annual election Sept. 18. The members' nominating committee will now proceed to name a members' ticket, which will be posted in a week.

I APPRECIATE ACCOUNTS OF HONORABLE people [men employed or in business, women with allowances or incomes] who want to borrow money confidentially, with or without security. The methods of some dealers never change, and high rates for money are demanded by the professional lender. Will gladly advance reasonable sums to honest people, who have the ability to pay, with reasonable promptness at legal rates. No insurance or other device to swell interest charges. Prefer accounts upwards of $100, but will advance smaller sums if so doing will be the making of a new customer. Ask for WILLCOXE, care of Englewood Company, 538-540 E. 63d-st., corner Greenwood-av. COEY AUTOMOBILE LIVERY COMPANY

This is the largest automobile livery in the world. Has the best and newest cars; all kinds from taxicabs to theater buses and ambulances. Special rates on touring cars.

FIRE

The fire did not interrupt our service, as we had enough cars on the streets at the time of the fire and in our Michigan avenue store to satisfy all demands. We are pressing new and better cars into service every day, with new and better drivers.

Bonded Chauffeurs

Remember that we are the ONLY automobile livery company who furnishes bonded chauffeurs. We are the originators of this idea. Your life is safe in the hands of our drivers. Those who COULD NOT give bonds are driving for rival concerns. Since they left us our ACCIDENTS have DECREASED 100% and our BUSINESS has INCREASED 100%.
